

Attempts on the Lives of Royal Personages.

One of the Paris papers gives the following catalogue of attempts on the lives of royal personages and rulers during the last 30 years.

The Duke of Modena attacked in 1848.

The Prince of Prussia (now the Emperor William) at Minden, in 1848.

The late King of Prussia, in 1852.

Queen Victoria, (by an ex-lieutenant) in 1852.

An infernal machine discovered at Marseilles on Napoleon III's visit in 1852.

The Austrian Emperor slightly wounded by the Hungarian Libenyez, in 1853.

Attack on King Victor Emmanuel in 1853.

Attack on Napoleon III, opposite the Opera Comique, 1853.

The Duke of Parma mortally stabbed in 1854.

Napoleon III, fired at by Pianori in the Camp Elysees in 1855.

A policeman seized Fuentes when about to fire at Queen Isabella in 1855.

Milano, a soldier, stabbed King Ferdinand of Naples in 1856.

Three Italians from London were convicted of conspiracy against Napoleon III, in 1857.

The King of Prussia twice fired at but not hit, by the student Beker, at Baden, in 1861.

Queen of Greece shot at by the student Brusios, in 1862.

Three Italians from London were arrested for conspiring against Napoleon III, in 1862.

President Lincoln assassinated in 1865.

The Czar attacked at St Petersburg in 1866 and at Paris in 1867.

Prince Michael of Serbia assassinated in 1868.

King Amadeus of Spain attacked in 1871.

President of Peru assassinated in 1873.

President of Ecuador assassinated in 1875.

President of Paraguay assassinated in 1877.

Two attempts on the life of the German Emperor in 1878.

A woman took her little one in her arms to hear a famous preacher. The loud voice from the platform awoke the child and made it cry, and its mother got up and was leaving the hall, when the minister stopped her by saying: "My good woman don't go away. The baby doesn't disturb me." "It isn't for that, sir, I leave," she replied, with a perfect unconsciousness of sarcasm. "It's you disturb the baby."

A novel mode of advertising for a wife has been adopted by an inhabitant of a provincial town. A photograph of the gentleman is placed in the window of a shop-keeper and underneath is the following notice:—"Wanted a female companion to the above. Apply at the office."

Sidney Smith once said that clergymen might be divided into three classes—Nimrods, Ramrods, and Fishingrods. It was not a bad epigram, but it has been beaten by an American, who says that railways are built on three gauges—broad gauge, narrow gauge, and mortgage.

Don't tell a man you sweat. It is vulgar. Inform him that you are being deprived of the saline and oleaginous fluids of your material substance through the excretories of your pellucid cuticle, with a sensible condensation of moisture upon the superficial exterior.

The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POREOUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different, the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POREOUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POREOUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.

Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POREOUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
