

R.C.A.F. Royals Take Two Games From Abbies; C.&B. Trounce Falcons

The R.C.A.F. Royals captured both ends of a doubleheader with the Abbies at the Memorial Field diamond yesterday afternoon to go into third place in the Island Baseball League. The scores of the games were 3-2 in the first and 6-2 in the latter encounter.

McCullough pitched for the Royals in the first game and bested Charlie Ryan of the locals. "Gunner" Cox's triple with two aboard in the fifth inning was the winning blow for the airmen. Richard singled home their first run in the second frame. The locals tallied both their runs in the third inning when Ryan and Lund singled home Hennessey and Murphy.

In the second game Barlow went the distance for the airmen while the Abbies used MacLean and Murphy in a vain attempt to ground the airmen from Summerside.

The winners' big inning was in the second after they had taken a one to nothing lead in the opening frame. They scored four runs on some heavy clouting that had the Abbie outfield chasing balls all over the lot. Richard hit a home run in this inning with one aboard while Hume and Boivin unloaded triples. The Royals added their final tally of the game in the fifth on two singles and a sacrifice. The Abbies scored a singleton in the seventh and eighth frames for their only two runs.

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN

JULY 24, 1950

Local sporting enthusiasts were blessed with ideal weather over the week-end, which permitted the large program of sporting activities to be run off as scheduled for a really full two days of keen sporting entertainment. Highlighting the activities were horse racing, baseball, golf, and yacht racing.

Performing before a large crowd of enthusiastic racing fans in Saturday night's program at the Exhibition track, a total of sixty-two trotters and pacers from leading Island and mainland racing stables came up with some really exciting track duels in a large program of ten, one-mile dash events. Spot-lighting the card were the sixth and tenth pacing events, that saw five top-notch entries battle it out over the mile of dirt in a terrific demonstration of speed and horse-manship that gave the large number of bettors a real race for their money.

With Argot Pointer, A. G. Scott, Josedale Clipper, Filbert and Babe Britton all going away behind the starting gate together in the sixth event, it was a battle for positions all the way that kept the crowd on its feet and just when it looked like the Scott horse from the Springhill stable was going to be the big winner, driver James MacGregor brought his charge out from a two-horse position to make a powerful drive on the stretch to nose out the favourite. Driver Lorne Letcher made no mistake in the tenth event, however, when he took the lead from Clipper before the quarter pole had been reached, and despite repeated challenges by Clipper and Argot came home a winner, followed closely by the other two in that order.

But these were not the only two races that were giving the crowd more than their quota of excitement. All of the other eight events were top-notch affairs that produced some excellent racing and kept the rail birds in attendance busy trying to dope out the winners.

In baseball here Sunday, the R. C. A. F. Royals came through with two strong performances at Memorial Field to boost themselves from the cellar position to third place in the league standing when they took both ends of a doubleheader from Abbies by scores of 3-2 and 6-2. They now lead the Abbies by one game and lead the second place Falcons, who lost out to Curran and Briggs 7-1 at Summerside the same day, by two games. The C and B boys are still the top dogs in the league race with nine wins, a tie and a loss in eleven trips.

Do you, as a baserunner, know how to properly advance on a juggled fly ball? Whether you do or don't, here is the proper dope on the situation as laid down by Billy Evans, umpire in the American League for 22 years. "Runners were on second and third. One was out. Batter hit long fly ball to left fielder, who made a sensational play on the ball, catching it almost against the centre field wall. After getting the ball in his hands, the outfielder juggled the ball three times but finally managed to hold it, completing the catch.

"The runner on third, immediately tagged up, feeling he would have no trouble beating any throw to the plate for him if the ball was caught. The moment the ball struck the glove of the left fielder, the runner on third started for the plate. He scored easily. Since the ball was juggled three times before being finally held, no play was made on him."

"The runner on second also tagged up in order to properly advance. However, he did not try to do so until the ball was finally held by the left fielder, who had a great arm. The runner on second was thrown out at third on a very close play. This completed a double play, retiring the side. Does the runner score on the double play that retired the side? How should a runner advance on a juggled fly ball?"

"The run from third was properly scored. Said runner crossed the plate before the third out of the double play that retired the side. It was not a force third out. On all such plays, base runners who have tagged up have the right to advance the moment the fly ball strikes the hands of the outfielder. The runner originally on second, who was thrown out at third on the play, erred in delaying his advancement until the fly ball was finally held. That lost him the decision. If runners were not eligible to advance when the ball struck the hands of the outfielder, but had to hold up until the juggled ball was finally held, they would constantly be at the mercy of the outfielders. They would purposely juggle every fly ball running with it at the same time and not finally holding it until they felt that the base runner or runners had no chance to advance."

Racing Program Triumph Held Over Exhibition Track Saturday Night

The Provincial Exhibition Association and the Charlottetown Driving Park scored another racing triumph here Saturday night over the Exhibition Raceway when a large crowd of enthusiasts witnessed a sparkling program of harness horse racing entertainment.

With the favourites going down to defeat in some instances, the driving finishes of long shots, and coming through in an anticipated, it was an outstanding evening of keen competitive racing that left the final winners in doubt right to the wire, and at times even after they had gone under the wire, when the photo finish had to come into play to bring forth the final decisions.

Competing against two strong favourites, A. G. Scott, owned and driven by Lorne Letcher of Springhill, N. S., and Argot Pointer, owned and driven by Horace Willis, City, driver James MacGregor piloted Josedale Clipper to a smashing win over the two feature events of the program.

Given little chance to win according to the betting, the roan gelding, owned by Barbour and Bevans of Charlottetown, paced away to a battling victory over A. G. Scott and Argot, two other leading entries. Filbert and Babe Britton in the number six event, to come up with the fastest mile of the night, 2:11, and pay off winning ticket holders to the tune of $20. Coming up with another stout battle in the tenth and final dash on the card, Clipper had to give way to a killing pace set by A. G. Scott who came in the win with the Clipper and Argot Pointer close on his sulky for second and third places respectively.

The two big double winners of the night were Sammy Kennedy's Carl Aubrey and Lorne Letcher's Miss Donna Mae. Aubrey clipped off firsts in the third and seventh events, while the Springhill, Nova Scotia entry turned in powerful performances to win the fourth and eighth races on the ten dash program.

Dale B., driven by Claude O'Brien was the winner of the fifth event with Rhodola D. a close second, but in the ninth dash the positions were reversed when Rhodola came through a winner with a flashing drive down the stretch to nip Dale at the wire.

Another mainland entry, Cumberland Scot from Clare Johnston, stable, Parrsboro, N. S., was the winning horse in the opening race of the program, flashing under the wire in front of a five-horse field with Harold Stead of Brackley at the reins, while in the second dash, James Arbing guided Josedale to a win over a large field of seven entries in a race that was a battle for positions over every inch of the mile route.

Two mishaps, the first over the local track this season, occurred during the night's program, although no serious injury was sustained to either driver or horse. Random Harvest, driven by Don MacNeill, took the first spill on the backstretch during the number four event, while Billy Conn, driven by Ensor Bowness of Summerside, took a nasty spill on the upper turn when a tightly packed field of five horses were making final drives for positions on the way to the home stretch in the fifth dash. Random's spill put him out for the rest of the meet, but the plucky Billy was back in again in the ninth race to come in for a

Tigers Score Twice In Ninth To Beat Yankees And Retain League Lead

The Detroit Tigers staged a gar-rison finish and defeated New York Yankees 6-5 Sunday to remain at the head of the class in the American League pennant fight.

Red Rolfe's raiders scored twice in the ninth with two down to pull the game out of the fire and enlarge their first-place margin over the Yanks to one and one-half games. The Yanks, who won the first two of the three-game series, would have taken the lead if they had nipped the Tiger rally.

Consecutive singles by Hoot Ebers, Gerry Friday and Don Koloway with two down and George Kell on first turned the tide in favor of the Bengals. The first two blows were yielded by Allie Reynolds, fourth Yankee pitcher, and the winning hit by Joe Page.

Prior to the Tiger uprising all the runs arrived on homers. Tiger starter Saul Rogovin slammed a grand slam homer in the second off Ed Lopat to give his side a 4-0 edge.

The Yanks came back with three in the third on Hank Bauer's threerun inside-the-park belt and assumed a 5-4 advantage in the sixth when Joe DiMaggio and Yogi Berra poled consecutive homers. Dizzy Trout and Art Houtteman finished up for the Tigers with Frank McInnis, 7-1, 3-3, and Jim Burdett, 9-8, 7-2, 1-3.

Cleveland's third place Indians got off to a good start and went on to trounce the Washington Senators, 6-2, to give Bob Lemon his 15th victory.

Lemon limited the Nats to nine hits while his mates collected 12 including a double and two singles by Joe Gordon. The Indians scored all of their runs in the first three innings.

The Boston Red Sox also scored early in defeating the St. Louis Browns, 6-2, for Ellis Klander's tenth triumph. The Sox tallied all their runs in the first two frames with Dom DiMaggio and Bobby Doerr driving in three runs apiece. Doerr binged his 15th homer—a three-run blow in the second. Homers by Don Lenhardt and Les Moss accounted for both St. Louis runs.
