Closing Meeting Girls' Auxiliary
The closing meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church was held at the home of the G. A. leader, Mrs. M. W. Weeks. All but two members were present. The afternoon was spent in having the girls themselves complete the navy blue skirts which are part of the uniforms of the G.A.'s. This sewing on their part qualifies them for their Dorcas Badges. Other members completed an interesting scrap book, unique because it presents most of the pictures in a three dimensional motif. This, with other items made during the winter months, will be included with the articles forwarded to the Anglican Mission Schools.

In the absence of the secretary, Barbara Place recorded the minutes of the meeting. The devotional period began with the members' prayer recited in unison and led by the president, Gail Williams.
