LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

FOR DRILL.—The Engineers will meet for drill to-night at 8 o'clock sharp.

ORIENT DIVISION.—Members will please note that P. G. W. Associate, Rev. J. M. McLeod, of Vancouver, B. C., is engaged to visit the Division this evening.

L. O. O. F.—Wiley Lodge, No. 27, meets in regular session this evening. Every member should be present, as matters of importance to the lodge will be up.

McClure's Magazine for October seems to us to be more replete with pictures than the other monthlies. There are about as many pictures as there are pages; and, too, they are so much to the point. If they accompany articles they enforce and make more living the text. If they illustrate stories they are sure to bring out the spirit of the incidents and characters.

THE TRAP.—Dot is entered in the 224 trot at Brockton this week.

It is stated that Gordon Sim won the 240 class at Rigny Park, Me., on Tuesday in two straight heats. Best time, 2:20. Gordon Sim is owned by Frank Wilson, of Yarmouth. He was driven by Harry Lydard, of Kentville.

A PECULIAR FIND.—On Tuesday night last, Officer Wright, of the Lynn, Mass., police force, made a peculiar find at that place. On Allen street, near Western Avenue, and standing in front of a vacant lot, he discovered a stray team, apparently a milk wagon. There were several milk cans in the wagon, and on investigation thirteen were found to be filled with rum and whiskey—in all about fifty gallons.

BRITISH TROOPS IN CANADA.—According to information given to the Halifax Herald, two regiments will arrive at Halifax in March, and will, it is supposed, be the 23d Welsh Fusiliers and Camerons. Instead of one regiment being stationed in Halifax there will hereafter be two, and Halifax will be made the first change station. A regiment will also be permanently stationed at Vancouver, B. C.

SEAGRA.—There is a sugar famine in Chicago. The Halifax Herald reports that taking advantage of the famine the Acadia Refining Company are shipping considerable quantities to the Windy City. The Nova Scotia and Moncton refineries are running full time; and the Woodside refinery is being put in order as quickly as possible. It is expected to be ready for running within a month, and if the present brisk demand continues, it too, will be operated.

A WIFE BEATEN PERISHED.—A man named James Roman was fined $10 in the Halifax police court on Wednesday, because that he held a shaver's razor before her face and threatened to dig her eyes out. He also took a pot of boiling soup off the kitchen stove and attempted to throw it at his wife, and would have done so but his fifteen year old son intervened in doing so some of the soup went over and scalded him. The wife has a black and blue mark on her face where her husband struck her.

THE WEATHER IN SEPTEMBER.—Weather observers at Halifax say that in thirty years they have not known the wind to blow like it did all through September without change from one point. It began from the east early in the month and continued unintermittently from the same quarter. Rain fell lightly on the 19th of the past month, and has been falling more or less ever since. The rain, drizzle and easterly winds that have prevailed here and elsewhere along the Atlantic coast are exceptional and unaccountable.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon the case against Joseph Parcell, charged with selling intoxicants on Sunday, was disposed of. It appeared from the evidence that the beer sold by Parcell was of a non-intoxicating character, and a fine of $10 and costs was accordingly imposed for a breach of the Lord's Day Act only. Sylvester McDonald, for driving a load of coal over the sidewalk on Lower Queen Street, was fined five cents without costs, and Ronald Bell, for a similar offence, was similarly disposed of. Several persons were fined for non-payment of dog tax, and more summonses are to be issued.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Carroll, Captain Hansen, left for Boston at six o'clock last evening with a general cargo and the following passengers: Lewis Carvell, Michael Dowie, C. H. Matthews, F. Rogers, Miss B. Kelly, Mary Shean, A. Halber B. Haffey, Mrs. O'Donnell, Mrs. Ashton, Miss Ashton, L. Houston, Miss McKeon, Mrs. McKinnon, A. Welsh, Miss S. McNeill, Janet Macdonald, Richard St. John, Mrs. Prowse, Miss A. Redmond, Miss Nellie Macdonald, Miss Atkinson, A. C. McMillan, Miss Forrest, Miss Stone, Miss L. Doyle, Mrs. L. Power, Arthur Salisbury, W. Chalmers.

AT AMHERST.—Writing from and of Amherst, a correspondent of the St. John Sun says: "Amherst has greatly developed since my schoolboy days, when I spent some months there in study under the tutelage of J. T. Mellish, M. A., then principal of Cumberland Co. Academy, but now a member of the bar of P. E. I., and practicing in Charlottetown. The developments most noticeable are those which have been produced directly and indirectly by the building and operation of the I. C. Railway. Towards evening we drove to Pointe à la Peste, the East End Road. Here we put up at one of the many comfortable farm houses in the community to remain until the afternoon of the next day. In the evening we attended a session of the Methodist District S. S. Convention then being held. An enthusiastic meeting was had. Perhaps it may be fairly stated that the addresses which produced most interest were given by Rev. John Beal and Dr. Stewart—the former in his own inimitable way setting forth the relation of children to the church, and the latter with his wonted emphasis presenting the conditions to be observed in order to successful religious work.

SATURDAY SNAPS! What are they? Where are they? Don't Miss Them!

To-morrow we will show 20 BASKETS full of these "snaps." Please don't imagine that "snap" means an ordinary vulgar, every-day "bargain." It means nothing of the kind. It means something new, something you want, something you will like—AT A PRICE YOU NEVER SAW BEFORE. Expect a good deal! You will not be disappointed.

BEER BROS. Weather Bulletin. TORONTO, Oct. 6, 10 a. m. Moderate winds and fine weather; not much change in temperature.

ANOTHER FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT GEORGETOWN.

The eastern Capital on Tuesday last was the scene of another of those events that create such a flutter in social circles. For many years the Episcopalian church at Georgetown has not been so well filled as it was on that fine autumn morning, when nearly everyone in the town went to see the marriage of Miss Minnie E. Lavers, youngest daughter of John Lavers, Esq., and one of the most popular young ladies in the community—to Mr. Frederick Webster, of Dunstaffnage, Lot 35. The bride wore a handsome dress of silver-grey brocaded silk, with extra trimmings of silk and lace, and wore a hat to match. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss M. A. Lavers, who was dressed in a heliographic costume gown of latest design, and hat to match. Mr. Joseph Webster supported the groom, and the nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. Mr. Bryant, Rector of Georgetown and Cherry Valley, assisted by James Easton, Esq., deacon. After the impressive ceremony of the Anglican Church had been performed, and the register duly signed in the vestry, the wedding party proceeded to the residence of the bride's father, where a bountiful breakfast was set out, and which was partaken of by a number of invited guests. Shortly afterwards, the happy couple, accompanied by a number of friends, drove to the house of Mr. Webster, where a reception was held, and music and dancing chased the hours until far into morning. The popularity of the bride is well seen by the number of elegant wedding presents she received, not only from residents of Georgetown, but also from friends in Charlottetown and other places. In congratulating the bridegroom on his good fortune, we add THE EXAMINER'S best wishes for the prosperity and long years of happiness that we hope will attend the married life of his wife and himself.

PERSONAL Mr. and Mrs. John Trainor returned from their wedding tour last evening. S. Simpson, Esq., Grand Worthy Patriarch S. of T., has been visiting this city since his return from his tour to Marshfield last evening.

If Mrs. Rudolph Wellar, or any of her children will communicate with "C. A. D." 213 Barris Street, Montreal, they will hear of something to their advantage. of 1c Mrs. D. Montgomery left this morning for Montreal en route for Chicago, and then to the Pacific Coast, where she expects to spend the winter.

Mr. Robert Harris, R. C. A., has just completed a portrait of the late Hon. Senator Ferrier, for the governors of McGill College, and represents Mr. Ferrier in the robes of office of chancellor of that institution.

Mr. Geo. H. Ham, the popular passenger agent of the C. P. R. at St. John, has been transferred to Montreal, where he takes the position of Chief of the Canada Pacific Literary Bureau. Mr. Ham says the change is only temporary.

St. James' Y. M. C. A. will have their popular course of lectures and songs on 1893-94. The first will be a lecture by the Rev. A. McLean Sinclair on Nov. 7, followed by an organ recital on 23rd—Thanksgiving day. Tickets for course, $1.
