New Decorating Idea
For Cookies And Cakes

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN
The idea of producing foods to sell started with me during the depression," she told me. "The people in our community were hard hit, so the First Church of Jesus Christ, of which I am now pastor, bought a grocery store, sold the foods at cost and gave credit when necessary. "To give work to the community, we started a candy project that grew into a business. During the war, we made candy for the Government. Then, at long last, we decided to feature the jelly candies now on sale nationwide.

"Holidays are times of joy and gladness. These candies are lovely to look at and good to eat."

TOMORROW'S DINNER
French onion soup, pork chop potato-bake, buttered beets, deep dish berry pie, coffee tea or milk.

All measurements are level recipes for 4 to 6.
Pork chop potato-bake: Duct 6 pork chops with 1 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. powdered sage, 1 tsp. powdered bouquet garni and 2 tsp. flour.

Brown slightly on both sides in vegetable oil.
Place in baking dish. Surround with thin-sliced, peeled white potato and 2 tsp. minced onion.

Heat 3 c. whole or skim milk and pour in.
Bake 40 min. in moderate oven, 350-375 degrees F., or until both potatoes and meat are tender, lightly browned and milk is almost absorbed.

Deep-dish berry pie: Combine 1 (1 lb.) can blueberries or loganberries, 1/4 c. sugar, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. nutmeg and 2 tsp. quick-cooking tapioca.
Transfer to buttered shallow baking dish. Cover with pie pastry, rolled 1/4 in. thick. Flute edges. Slash centre for steam-escape.

Bake 45 min. in hot oven, 375-400 degrees F. Serve warm.

New Decorating Idea For Cookies And Cakes

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

Supermarkets and specialty food stores all over the country are showing a new kind of cake and cookie decoration. It is winsome, colorful fruit or spice-flavored jelly candies, shaped especially for glamorizing holiday desserts in the form of bells, Christmas trees and stars. These come attractively packed on cardboard and are covered with cellophane.

FOR EACH OCCASION
As the New Year rolls along, there will be Valentine jelly candy hearts; peppermint shamrocks for St. Patrick's Day; Easter flowers and eggs; and, for next Halloween, orange and anise flavored pumpkins; lemon and orange fruit leaves and orange and black witch's hats of enticing taste.

For Mother's Day, and all year through, there is a bouquet of candy roses in a plastic box for a gift, or for decorating desserts, cakes, cookies, and ice cream sundaes.

Who dreamed up these unusual treats: Who was responsible for their gay flavor and charm? PRIME MOVER

One day I met up with the prime mover, Miss Leah Hershman of Sullivan, Illinois. She is a woman of serene poise, clear vision and a working knowledge of the value of stick-to-itiveness.

KINGSTON W. L.
The regular monthly meeting of Kingston W. L. was held at the home of Mrs. Edgar Newson on Tuesday evening, Dec. 9.

Meeting opened by singing Jingle Bells. Roll call was answered by 12 members with a gift for orphanage.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed. A letter from Teachers regarding Christmas party in Hall.

It was moved and seconded to get a hamper of apples for school children, and make candy to sell at party.

STIRLING W. L.

Mrs. Gordon Fyfe was hostess to the Stirling Women's Institute when they met for December meeting.

Meeting was opened by singing Silent Night, followed by the Mary Stewart collect. Nineteen members and two visitors attended. Roll call was answered by an exchange of Christmas gifts.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Then the correspondence was read by Mrs. Lora McEwen, Secretary. It was decided to renew C. A. C. membership, and to send in three dollars to help send a delegate to Scotland.

It was moved and seconded to send five dollars to the Sanatorium and to get a blanket for a resident who lost his home by fire.

The sick committee gave their report. It was reported one baby gift was given to a new baby. School committee also gave their report.

Mrs. George Henry Parker Celebrates 90th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Beck opened their home to the relatives of Mrs. G.H. Parker (Adeline Dewar) for a party which marked the 90th anniversary of her birth. Mr. Parker received her guests with a cheery handshake and entertained by telling tales of long ago.

Mrs. Parker was the third member of a family which had shown an interest in Medicine. Her elder sister Isabel, (Mrs. Stewart MacLaren) had studied nursing. Her brother George (Dr. G.F. Dewar) studied to be a doctor. Mrs. Parker herself became a registered nurse. Later her younger sister Mabel (Mrs. Shirley Snow) became an R.N.

Her sister Catherine Mrs. Egerton Norton) and her brother John A. married and raised their families in Brudenell and New Perth.

Mrs. Parker practised her profession in the United States where she had taken her nurses' training and upon retiring from that profession, married G.W. Parker who operated a farm in Georgetown Royalty.

There Mr. and Mrs. Parker lived until the time of his retirement when they moved to Charlottetown. In 1956 Mr. Parker died. Now Mrs. Parker is a popular member of the household in the home of her niece, Mrs. Preston Beck.

A generous serving of birthday cake and ice cream completed a delicious lunch served by the hostesses who was assisted by Mrs. Parker's nieces and grand nieces. After lunch, Miss Catherine Beck played the piano for an enjoyable sing song of old favorites and carols. "For She a Jolly Good Fellow" brought a memorable birthday party to a close.

It was moved and seconded that all bills be paid. It was decided to give treats to the shut-ins at Christmas and to send cards to others that are away from the district.

Treats will be given to school and pre-school children. Collection amounted to $2.10.

Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Lora McEwen. Two contests were served. A very delicious lunch was enjoyed by hostess and committee in charge. A Christmas sing-song followed and meeting was closed with National Anthem.

TOLL DOWN
MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal chalked up its lowest traffic fatality rate in four years in 1958 and had its lowest December toll in eight years. Police department figures showed that 116 persons died on city roads, compared with 156 in 1957. In the greater Montreal district, 254 died in traffic, down from 279.

The evening proved to be a very pleasant family get-together. Mr. Parker received gifts from all present. Two nephews, Dr. George Dewar of O'Leary, and Douglas MacLean of Montague assisted their aunt in opening the gifts. Later both spoke informally and with great admiration of the lady whom they have been privileged to know since childhood.

Edgar-Doyle Wedding Is Lovely Event In Toronto

St. Basil's Church, Bay St., Toronto, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding on Saturday, Nov. 15, 1958, when Florence Mildred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Doyle of Charlottetown, P. E. I., was united in holy wedlock with Alan Peter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edgar, Toronto, Ont.

Rev. Fr. DeBily performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The organist of St. Basil's Church played the wedding March and the choir sang appropriate hymns during the Mass and the signing of the register. The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of mixed flowers. The guest pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Leo Doyle of Charlottetown, P. E. I., looked charming in a wait length gown of hand-clipped lace and nylon fillet over satin. The full skirt was made on Princess lines and featured pleated organza panels. The boat neckline ended in a point over the hands. Her only ornaments were Pearl necklace and ear-rings gift of the groom. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a nylon fluff crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of red and white roses.

Miss Ida Doyle, sister of the bride was bridesmaid and chose a wait length gown of pale blue satin with matching feather head dress and mitts. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white roses.

Mr. John Edgar, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen. The ushers were Mr. Robert Edgar brother of the groom and Mr. James Hardy.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Arlington Club on Dover Court Road, where dinner was served to fifty guests. The table was centred with a three tier wedding cake which was cut by the bride and groom.

Mr. James Hardy proposed a toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly responded. The remainder of the afternoon was spent with singing and dancing. Later they journeyed to the home of the groom's parents where a buffet lunch was served and an evening of dancing was enjoyed.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip through the United States. On return they will reside in Toronto, where they both are employed with the Civil Service, the groom with the postal dept. and the bride with the Unemployment Insurance Commission.

Prior to her marriage the bride-to-be was tendered several showers where she received many lovely gifts.

OPEN MIND ON ART
—VATICAN CITY (Reuters)—Pope John says people should approach modern art with an open mind and judge it calmly. But certain "mad forms" ought not to be fostered. The Pope made his comments Friday when he received members of the International Institute for Liturgical Art in Rome.

"Press Onward" - York WMS Has Its 70th Anniversary

A special service was held in York Church on Sunday evening, November 30th, to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the York Auxiliary of the W.M.S. Mrs. Elmer Brown, president led the opening devotions and was assisted by Mrs. George Elliott.

The guest soloists, Harley Ings and Wayne Crockett delighted the audience with several selections with Mrs. Lloyd Vessey as accompanist.

Rev. F.H. Littlejohns, a former pastor of the York Charge was the special speaker and gave a very inspiring missionary address. The offering was received by Mrs. Randolph Murray and Mrs. Chappell. The following history of the society was read by Mrs. W.D. Cooke.

We have met tonight to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the York Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society, also to pay a tribute to the memory of the women who with deep spiritual vision helped to lay the frame work of our auxiliary.

We owe a great debt to all those faithful far-seeing women who kept the task in mind. Each gave of her best in loyalty and devotion to the work of the W.M.S. to help spread the good tidings to those at home and in foreign lands who had not known of God's love and care.

They began in a small way but by their faith and courage they left a bright path for their children to follow, and today descendants of these true women, who have all passed to higher service, still carry on what their mothers so well began.

The society was organized in November, 1888 during the ministry of the Rev. Mr. Knight with six members:

Mrs. Wm. Large, Mrs. James Essery, Mrs. Amos West, Mrs. George Deacon, Miss Eliza Vessey and Mrs. Knight. The meetings were held monthly in the parsonage. Mrs. Large was the first president. As it was the only society on the York charge, the members were soon increased by others from Stanhope, Pleasant Grove, Covehead and Union Road.

A number of men by the payment of the annual fee became honorary members. After a time members from the other parts organized auxiliaries in their own churches and so the work grew.

The charter members have all passed on to higher service, but we are proud of the fact that Miss Lottie Deacon, a daughter of one of our charter members volunteered for missionary service, and in 1901 sailed for Japan where for a number of years she laboured faithfully in the Master's service.

Later owing to ill health, she returned to Canada and took up work among the Indians at Port Simpson, B.C. She is now retired and living in Alberta. Not every Auxiliary can be represented in the mission field, and her life and work has given us inspiration and courage to keep on working and praying and training the young people, which is a very important part of the missionary program.

In 1891, the Dayspring Mission Band was organized, and has continued active throughout the years. A Mission Circle was formed which later became the Evening Auxiliary, also a C.G.I.T. group and Baby Band are now doing good work.

Our financial allocations have always been met and many boxes of clothing and other necessities have been sent to the needy in our own and foreign lands. Let us look forward, not backward, press onward.

Keep a brave spirit and never despair. Hope brings you message through the keen air. Good is victorious God everywhere.

Grand are the battles which you have to fight. Be not down-hearted, but valiant for right. Hope and press forward, you face to the light.
