

Cubs Wallop Braves 10-5 Score 4 Runs In Seventh

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Keyed by Ernie Banks' double and pitcher Bill Henry's single Chicago Cubs jammed across four runs, only one of them earned, in the seventh inning Tuesday to defeat the fumbling Milwaukee Braves 10-5.

The Cubs also kicked the ball around before 21,157 Wrigley Field customers. The Braves got two unearned tallies among their first four runs in the opening three innings.

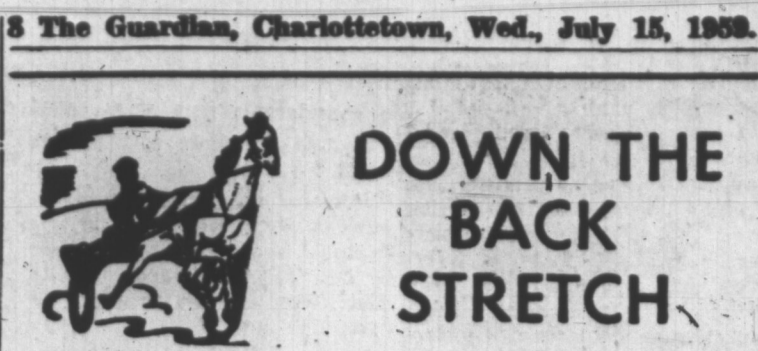

In all, five errors were made in the game, three by the Braves. Lee Walls hit his fifth homer for the Cubs in the first inning with a runner aboard, and doubles by Banks and newly-acquired Art Schult gave the Cubs three runs.

Earl Averill also homered, his sixth for Chicago in the sixth. Hank Aaron added No. 24 for the Braves in the same inning.

Then came the decisive seventh. Al Dark led off with a grounder down first base line that went for a hit when Joey Jay, the second of four Milwaukee hurlers, missed scooping up the ball.

Walls bunted and was safe when Jay threw high to first base. Banks doubled scoring Dark. Bobby Thomson was hit by a pitched ball. Pinch-hitter Dale Long grounded out; but Walls scored.

After pinch-hitter Irv Noren flied out, George Altman was intentionally passed, loading the bases. Winning pitcher Henry

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Rain cancelled most of the meetings on Maritime tracks Saturday night, but at Sydney they had six events with the fast class putting up a great performance. Jackie Jackson winning from Lola H. Stout, Wing Commander and three others in 2:11 1/5. In the next dash with the same field Wing Commander won with Jackie Jackson second, time 2:09 4/5—the fastest mile paced in Cape Breton this year. Wing Commander is owned by Richard Jabalee, North Sydney, and was driven by Phil Pinkney. Jackie Jackson is owned by R. J. Logue and Duncan MacDonald, Sydney, and was driven by D. MacDonald. Wing Commander was raced for several years at Roosevelt and Yonkers in the stable of Earle Avery, Woodstock, N.B., and Earle got him a record of 2:04 3/5 and he had won $30,000 at the end of last season.

Racing Fans Are Treated To Another Stellar Card

Another top-notch racing program was witnessed by local racing fans at the Charlottetown Driving Park last evening with the slowest mile of the night being an amazing 2:13-2 and the average time of the nine dashes being 2:11 and a bit.

Once again records were strewn by the wayside with four winners taking new marks. Norine Clegg lowered her mark from 2:15-1 to 2:13-3. Dunlop B took a mark of 2:10; Belle Texas 2:11 and Sister Dawn 2:11.

Lady Lakeburn, 5-year-old brown mare, owned by Macpo Stables of Summerside and driven by Joey Arsenault, took the first dash of the free-for-all in 2:09, the fastest mile trotted so far this season in the Maritimes, and also the fastest mile of the night.

Colonel Dan reined his 6-year-old bay mare to a win and placed in the B-trot, with both

'Leather Curtain Descends' On Champ Archie Moore

MONTREAL (CP)—What Jack (Doc) Kearns calls "the leather curtain" descended Tuesday and light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore had his gymnasium workout in secret.

The hush-hush business was heralded by the veteran manager Monday with something of a mysterious air on his own part. The Doc, ever a gimmick man, said Archie needs the privacy in preparing for his July 29 meeting with Tony Durelle of Baie St. Anne, N.B.

The mystery training is to end Saturday, when the public and newspapermen again will be privileged to watch the champ do his stuff in the Jean Baptiste gymnasium.

"I've done this before every big fight," said the cagey Kearns. "This time it's specifically to develop new and potential punches."

Kearns didn't elaborate on all that but did hint that "people from the Durelle camp" have been snooping around.

HEAR MUSIC

A few newspaper men, who didn't take Kearns at his word Monday, showed up along with spectators at the gym Tuesday. They weren't allowed to see Archie work out. From the outside they heard strains of jazz music and speculated whether Archie was dancing or training or both.

Archie made a public appearance, however, at the Negro community centre where he was host to more than 100 youngsters. There was ice-cream and other things and Archie footed the bill.

Durelle is scheduled to arrive today from his home and resume training in nearby Ste. Anne de Bellevue. He kicked back home for a spell when the fight, originally set for July 15, was postponed two weeks because of a sore heel Moore incurred in road work.

SPORTS FRONT

BOSTON RED SOX really have done amazing things since Billy Jurges took over as manager. Winning ball games has become a real habit with the Beantowners and the faithful Boston fans are delighted with what's going on.

The recent slaughter of the world champions, the New York Yankees, by the Jurges-managed outfit, is about the most pleasant thing that a Boston baseball fan could imagine. It's always nice to win ball games, but when you take five in a row from your arch enemy, then there really is cause for jubilation.

Jurges certainly has done something to the Fenway Park gang who before his arrival on the scene, were accustomed to one thing only, losing ball games.

FOR OWNER Tom Yawkey's sake and for those ardent ball fans around Boston, this recent surge of the Red Sox is surely something. Both Yawkey and Boston fans have been extremely patient as if anybody deserves a break, they do. The Red Sox are still far off the pace and the chances are that they will fall in their bid to overcome the pace setters. However if they keep powdering that ball the way they did against the Yankees, there's no telling just what might happen.

One thing is certain and that is that Boston fans have really fallen in love with their baseball team. They figured that any club that could maul the world champions in five straight, has the ability to do just about anything.

Here's hoping that Jurges can keep the boy on the victory march.

TONIGHT in Moncton race fans from all over the Maritimes will gather for the famed Monctonian, a yearly racing classic in these seaside provinces.

Prince Edward Islanders will be pulling for that great pacer, Mighty Lee, to cop top honors in the Hub City tonight. Race fans here have been impressed to no end by the Willard MacDonald-Rankine MacLaine owned speedster. It's been a long time since race patrons saw a pacer with greater promise.

So tonight, the folks who follow horse racing, in this island, will be hoping that Mighty Lee heads the parade to the wire.

And we have the idea that he will do just that.

THIS IS OPENING DAY for Summerside's Lobster Carnival. Each year since the big week was inaugurated, the show has enjoyed great popularity. This year that popularity seems certain to be increased.

The folks from the Prince Count capital really put a terrific effort into their show and it's indeed fitting that their efforts should be met with success.

One of the big attractions, as far as the spot end of the program is concerned, is the invitation track and field day which is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at Queen Elizabeth Park.

The committee, headed by Vaughan Groom, has done its very best to make this track and field meet something to remember. They are anticipating the greatest entry list ever and are expecting some great performances from the competing athletes.

This is indeed a true amateur sport and is deserving of full co-operation from athletes and sport fans alike. May they have success in abundance.

ANOTHER SPORT attraction at the Lobster Festival will be the harness racing programs slated for Thursday and Saturday nights.

A great entry list has been obtained by the folks who are arranging the show. Nine dashes will go each night and race patrons are assured two splendid cards.

The new owners of the Summerside raceway were greatly encouraged by the backing they receive from fans and horsemen on Dominion Day. That holiday attraction was far beyond the dreams of the promoters. They are looking forward to these two programs this week and are hoping that the same enthusiasm will be in evidence.

If the weather behaves, we don't think the Summerside race promoters have a thing to worry about. Right now there are many tourists among us who are eager to take in a racing program. They, along with the faithful local fans, will be in Summerside for both nights.

Yes, the holiday spirit is really prevailing in Summerside. Everything points to a banner four days—days into which has gone much planning.

We predict two large crowds at the raceway on Thursday and Saturday.

THE RACE for the National League pennant is a red hot one. Milwaukee Braves slipped back last weekend but when the chips were down they turned the tables on the loop-leading Giants.

It's strange how things go. Los Angeles Dodgers were moving right up into top spot and they went into Milwaukee and took two out of two from last year's champions. After that they moved over to Cincinnati's Crosley Field. Here they were meeting a team that couldn't beat anybody these last few weeks. But what do the Redlegs do when the Dodgers move in? They proceed to trounce them and in rather convincing fashion.

However, it's quite a race and Braves Giants, Dodgers and Pirates intend battling each other from here until the last Sunday in September.

It should be a close fight all the way. Chances are the pennant winner will not be decided until the last few days.

The United States Harness Writers' Association held a meeting at Roosevelt Raceway last week and elected Trainer Horn 2.00, the leading money winning trotter of this season who has won $200,000 to the end of last season, to be president of the United States in the $50,000 International Trot at Roosevelt Raceway, August 1st. The runner up in the balloting was Stearnin' Demon 2.00 2.5, a seven-year-old who has won a total of $59,265 this year. Trainer Horn raced the fastest heat this season when he won in 2:01 2.5 at Yonkers Raceway. That and his past season's record made him the choice of the Writers.

At Foxboro, Mass., last week Betsy Boy, a 4-year-old pacer in the Daniee Stable, was a winner in 2:11 1/5. The many friends of Daniee in his native land—this Province—will be glad to learn that his colors were out in front last week. The same night the C Trot was won by Watchin's Olli in 2:08 3/5, which is a new record.

BAD SPELL.

The following night at Foxboro there was a bad spill and four horses were piled up in the featured race of the night—the Sharon Mile—and three drivers were injured and taken to Norwood Hospital. An ambulance and two state police cars were rushed onto the race track to help remove drivers Johnny Baker of Croton, Ohio, and Bill Bailey of Quanaa, Texas. Driver Harry Craig of Lexington drove a horse that finished, but was treated in the paddock for injuries. Tomil B., driven by Joseph Clobossey of Southern Pines, N.C., was leading on the far turn when the accident occurred. Six horses behind Clobossey's pacer piled into a wild jam of animals and skulks. Bailey, driving Rapid Goose, was thrown high into the air. Driver Baker appeared to be caught under fallen horses. Madam Moraka driven by Charles Ray Hill of Saylesville, R.I., came clear of the wreck and fallen horses to win. Frank King, driven by Craig was second, and Grand K.G. driven by Clarence Hansen of Beaumont, Calif., the track's leading driver, was third. The first fallen horse, Tomie B. had to be destroyed on the track.

In the write up preceding the above the author made the statement that harness race drivers are the "clock watchers". To be exact, most of the reinsmen carry stop watches while they are in their sulks behind pounding hoofs. During the course of a mile dash, a driver glances at his watch frequently, judging the pace by each quarter. He strives to save his steed somewhat, reserving it for that final brush along the homestretch.

ONE OF FASTEST

Saratoga Raceway, Saratoga Springs, N.Y. is possibly one of the fastest, if not the fastest, harness horse oval in the world and on Saturday, July 4 and the previous Saturday, world record performances by Victory Lind and Corsican increased to twelve the number of world marks established over that fast half-mile track. Corsican's 1:59 2/5 mile not only set a world mark for 4-year-old pacing gelding, but tied a world record for all 4-year-old pacers. The other was Chief Rainbow, Adie Harry, Gold Worthy and W.D. Direct. Only two horses have ever beaten that figure on a half-mile track, Hi-Lo's Forbes with his 1:58 2/5 at Roosevelt Raceway in 1953 and Speedy Pick with his 1:58 4/5 at Yonkers last year. Saratoga Raceway has presented Ralph Baldwin with a $1,000 cheque for driving Corsican to this world record effort.

Erwin Grossman, who is a feature writer for the New York Herald, states that Trainer Horn, selected to represent the United States in the $50,000 International Trot at Roosevelt Raceway, will be opposed by challengers from Italy, France, Norway, Sweden West Germany and Canada in that race. Jamie, the French trotting champion, has received world wide recognition by his outstanding performances in Europe this year. The 6-year-old bay has won nine successive victories and has won 20 of his last 25 starts. He is owned by Arthur Nardin and he bought him for $1,000 as a 2-year-old! Some men are very lucky!
