

The Vern Proteus of All Diseases.

IT IS COMMONLY KNOWN AS GRIPPE

Paine's Celery Compound the Only Medicine that Can Cope With the Dread Visitor.

The old enemy gripe is now prevalent in many sections of the land, and, as in the past, it is the same old insidious foe—cruel and deadly.

The late eminent English physician, Sir Morell McKenzie, held that gripe was the result of "poisoned nerves." Sir Morell compares it to an extraordinary disturbance in the telegraphic system produced by a thunder storm, which is nothing compared with the freaks played by the living conductors in the human body when the governing centres are out of gear.

It is certain that the majority of medical men now agree about the theory of "poisoned nerves," which explains the almost infinite variety of the attacks that mark the disease. The profound impression made on the nervous system by the poison explains all the after effects of the malady, and more especially that curious loss of vital energy experienced by victims of gripe.

In past seasons, when gripe was epidemic, the ablest and most thoughtful doctors prescribed Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine that acts directly on the nerve of the body, cleansing them from all deadly poisons, toning and bracing up the entire system. In this way fresh vitality is quickly bestowed and sound health restored.

The mysterious visitor gripe may pass many of us this autumn and winter; we have, how ever, no guarantee that we shall be spared, so that it behooves all to be prepared for the arch enemy.

To those who are run down, weary, tired, sleepless, nervous, who have periodical headache and debility, we say, "Use Paine's Celery Compound to fortify the system for all emergencies." Physically strong men and women are not readily attacked by disease; the half well and weakly mortals are the first victims. At this time precaution and prevention are all important; the banishment of nervousness, sleeplessness, languidness, debility and headache should be first thoughts with old and young.

To safely guard against gripe and all other common diseases, Paine's Celery Compound is the one effective medicine—the only sure preventive of danger.

Do not be misled by dealers who attempt, for the sake of large profits, to substitute something they call just as good; where health is concerned there is no other medicine that can take the place of Paine's Celery Compound and give satisfaction to those who are anxiously desiring a new life.

PEN, CHISEL AND BRUSH.

Tanner, the American negro painter, who has one picture in the Paris salon and another in the Luxembourg, is the son of Bishop Tanner.

Miss Kate Lily Blue, sister of Lieutenant Blue of Santiago fame, has written a novel under the title, "The Hand of Fate; A Romance of the Navy."

Miss Theodora Cowan of Sydney, Australia's first woman sculptor, was a student under the American, Hiram Powers, and has exhibited two pieces of her work in the Grafton gallery.

Rudyard Kipling's cruise with the British channel squadron is confidently expected by the British tars to result in something that will completely eclipse his "Barrack Room Ballads."

In her recently probated will Mrs. Lynn Linton bequeathed a brooch given her by Lander D. Swinburne, some of whose finest verse has been in praise of the author of the "Imaginary Conversations."

THE NEW EGG.

Now let some good man hatch out an incubator scheme for a set of the artificial eggs, and we can have spring chickens while you wait.—Richmond Times.

Now that the artificial egg problem has been successfully solved we may soon expect some rubber company to spring artificial chickens on us.—Kansas City World.

The man who has invented an artificial egg equal to the "real thing" in every thing but fecundity has conferred an everlasting boon upon the overworked hen. She can now turn her attention to her family affairs in blissful ignorance of the fact that her ancient enemy is "laying for her" with an ax. With artificial eggs and artificial hatchers the time honored "landmark" of the barnyard is sure to get it in the neck.—St. Louis Republic.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

Neither caucus, court, committee, convention nor conversation can keep a good man out of politics if he insist upon running for congress.—Detroit Journal.

The candidate who is said to be "in the hands of his friends" often sincerely wishes before the campaign is over that others had charge of him.—Baltimore American.

Smith has been elected governor of Vermont and Jones of Arkansas. If the Republicans of Maine had nominated Brown, the early fall elections would have gratified the three largest families in the land.—New York Press.

A Word to Women

Very few clothes are discarded because they are actually worn out. They are thrown aside because you get "tired of them." You want something new or different and it costs a good deal of money to buy new things.

Why don't you take those discarded clothes which are in your closets and bureau drawers, and make them new with

Maypole Soap

Dyes any Colour

Maypole Soap cleanses and dyes at one operation. It dyes any material any color—from sombre black to the most brilliant hues of the rainbow. An ordinary wash-bowl is all that is required for small garments.

Maypole Soap does not streak or crock the fabric. Anybody can use it. It multiplies your wardrobe at almost no cost. Your children can be clothed with the material in your cast-away garments, made new with Maypole Soap.

The best druggists and grocers sell it. Black, 15 cents a cake. All other colors, 10c. Better send for our free illustrated booklet that tells all about home dyeing.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Some small minded competitor has started a rumor, which is now being circulated to the effect that prices on our goods were marked up so as to enable us to give the big discounts. We hardly need assure the public the story is false as not an article in our stock was changed and our clerks are instructed to give the full discounts advertised. We are selling off everything and will continue to give the big discounts of 20 to 50 per cent until all sold. Sale every day.
