RESIGNATION OF THE HON. MR. HENSLEY.

We give below the following correspondence which passed between His Excellency the Lieut. Governor and the late Attorney General...

CHARLOTTETOWN, 20th June, 1858.

To His Excellency Sir DOMINICK DALY, Knight, Lieutenant Governor, &c., &c.

Sir,—The election for the Third Electoral District of King's County having terminated adversely to me...

I beg leave to thank your Excellency for the courtesy and kind attention I have always experienced from you since I held the above offices...

I have the honor to be, Your Excellency's most obt. servt., JOSEPH HENSLEY.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, 20th June, 1858.

MY DEAR SIR,—In reply to your letter of the 26th instant, tendering, for the reasons therein stated, your resignation of office...

I cannot, however, permit my official connexion with you to cease without assuring you of the high appreciation in which I have always held the zeal and ability with which your various duties have been performed...

With my best wishes for your prosperity and happiness, Believe me, my dear Sir, faithfully yours, D. DALY, Lieut. Governor.

THE MAIL FROM INDIA.

The letters and journals brought by the Bombay Overland Mail have come to hand. As already known by telegraph, the dates are to May 19.

SUN-STROKE IN THE CENTRAL INDIA FIELD FORCE.—STORMING AND CAPTURE OF KOONCH.—The troops under Hugh Rose have, it seems, a more serious enemy to encounter in the heat than in the bullets of the mutineers.

About four or five thousand mutinous Sepoys from Calpee, three thousand Bundelas, one thousand Sowars, and four hundred Velaities, with some guns, had occupied Koonch for the purpose of opposing my march to Calpee.

The rebels had thrown up strong entrenchments for protecting the town from the Aite and Jhansi roads, by which my force was marching on it. I marched here yesterday, and turned all these defences by making a flank movement to the northwest and attacking the town from that quarter with my force and Major Orr's field force.

The rebels were so completely exhausted by the long day's march, the intense heat, and the day's operations, that they could go no further. Among the slain are Sepoys of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 7th Regiments Gwalior Contingent, of the 12th, 32nd, 52nd and 56th Regiments Bengal N. I., and Mehidpore Artillery.

DESTRUCTION OF SITANA.—THE HINDOSTANEES CUT TO PIECES.—It is reported by the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawar that Sitana was destroyed by a force under General Cotton on the 4th May.

The Hindostanee fanatics fought with determination, and were cut to pieces. We had four natives killed and twelve wounded. Previous to the attack on Sitana, that is, on the night of the 28th or 29th of April, General Cotton and Colonel Edwards ascended Mahabun, a mountain on the right of the Indus, and destroyed the stronghold of a noted chief.

The following telegram from Colonel Edwards, C.B., to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjab, regarding Sir Sydney Cotton's operations on the frontier, is published in the Lahore Chronicle:—"Punjab was burnt without opposition on 15th April, and Chinglee on the 26th, by the force under General Cotton. Immense loss of property inflicted on the robber chiefs. Captain Thelwall's new regiment distinguished itself in driving the enemy off the hills at Chinglee, and pursuing them into the Chumla valley. No loss on our side. Loss of the enemy supposed to be 20 killed and wounded."

Sardinia has claimed from Naples an indemnity for its subjects who were imprisoned at Naples in consequence of the capture of the Cagliari, and who have now been liberated. She likewise insists on the proprietors of the Cagliari being indemnified. The King of Naples has declared that he yielded only to force, being unable to resist the power of England; most probably, therefore, he will not be found so yielding in the case of Sardinia.

"ENCOURAGEMENT AND PROGRESS."—Protector June 30.

The late election brings in full review A goodly host to thwart the Snatcher crew. The victory is ours! Still, two or three Give to the foe a small majority.

The god the preachers did with zeal evoke Rose in his might and loosed the oppressor's yoke; "Corruption" fell before the blaze of day, And base "intimidation" skulk'd away.

"Falsehood and fraud" can ne'er again be known, Since Liberal rule, your countrymen disown. Oh! to that god who o'er the poll presides, Revels in faction, and delights in bribes, Who broken pledges and dishonest ways Approves—to him, good friends, be "all the praise;"

"All honour" to the sons of Edward's Isle, Their votes productive as the widow's oil; Paeans to "chokers white," the gallant few Who lustily their brazen "trumpet" blow, And from the hustings, o'er the country round, Sent forth a blast of no uncertain sound;

Scared their best friend, and drove him to his den, Until their wants may urge him back again. "Loyal-hearted sons"—the Tory banner waves "O'er Britain's 'chiefs,' who never shall be slaves." Throw up your caps—let's have another cheer, And thank your stars that victory is near.

Praise the Protector, and its ghostly crew, Who've done so much for liberty and you. The reverend Editors demand your praise. Free Kick, and Burglers, Sutherland and Grays. Mark with a whetstone that auspicious day, When the poll you forced your eager way, When the old ranter, with stentorian throat, Drew from the "Gills" their reluctant vote;

While Sinclair's sermons, more full of faith than works, Were fairly maddened by his pious jerks; Spurn'd at the chance of farms from agents free, And Douse return'd, with Gray, his nominee. Mark June the twenty-fourth, the day you came Your rights "against the mighty" to maintain. Tell all your gaping children lots of lies, How fair your struggle for the glittering prize. Tell them in future ages, if your days Be thus prolong'd, of all your scheming ways; The plots you hatch'd, the labour and the pain You long endured, true liberty to gain; How manfully you fought 'gainst Lib'ral rule, To place the Bible in each district school; But tell not all the truth, of that beware, Nor let them know—it was already there! Say that "free lands" were promised to the poor, A clever lie, to make success more sure. Tell them, their real friends were but "a mob," Fictive and drunken, who the State would rob. Instruct your offspring thus, in tender youth, That they, like you, may love to speak the truth. Tories, farewell! the Premier's reign is past, One mightier than him, is found at last. June 30, 1858.
