THE SEVEN WISE MEN OF GREECE.
The names generally given are Solon, Chilo, Pittacus, Bias, Periander, Cleobulus, and Thales. They were the authors of the celebrated mottoes inscribed in later days in the Delphian Temple. These mottoes were as follows:

'Know thyself.'—Solon.
'Consider the end.'—Chilo.
'Know thy opportunity.'—Pittacus.
'Most men are bad.'—Bias.
'Nothing is impossible to industry.'—Periander.
'Avoid excesses.'—Cleobulus.
Suretyship is the precursor of ruin.—Thales.

AN ARTIST'S MODEL.

The public schools of a certain New England city have recently taken to an exacting form of art. The pupils are placed before a model and told to sketch as they see.

One day a little girl was seated in a chair on the platform and her classmates were given the usual order.

The results varied. Some of the drawings looked like a human being in a state of repose, others like wooden dolls. But one little girl had drawn the chair and a tiny little figure standing in front of it.

'Mary,' said the discouraged teacher, 'didn't I say, 'Draw Amelia as you see her?'

'Yes'm.'

'Well is she standing in front of the chair?'

No'm, she's sitting in it.'

'Then why didn't you draw her sitting?'

Tears came into the child's eyes. She was misunderstood. 'But I hadn't got to it,' she said, 'I was just going to bend her down when you rang the bell.'

LAZINESS THE HINDRANCE.

A very successful business man names laziness as the chief reason for failure in any line of work. On being asked to give a closer definition of laziness as he understood it, he said he meant lack of energy in pursuing the work one is engaged in, half-hearted devotion, in other words, the temptation of this laziness seems to have chosen teachers as their special victims.

Here are a few instances that will show what is aimed at: A graduate of a normal school was employed to take charge of the primary department in a Western city. A friend tried to have her salary increased, but the superintendent objected because, he said, 'I would not be just to advance her. (She spent her evenings in working fancy articles for the stores.)'

Painful, Fatal Kidney Disease

One of the most common symptoms of kidney disease is the smarting, scalding sensation when passing water, which is likely to come very frequently and at inconvenient times. Then there is the dull, heavy aching in the small of the back and down the limbs.

When these pains are accompanied by deposits in the urine after it has stood for twenty-four hours, you may be sure that you are a victim of kidney disease, and should not lose a single day in securing the world's greatest kidney cure—Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Don't imagine that you are experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They are almost as well known as his great Recipe Book, have made some of the most surprising cures of kidney disease on record, and have come to be considered the only absolute cure for kidney disease. Ask your neighbors about them. Nearly everybody can tell of some remarkable cure by their use. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box, at all dealers', or Edman-son, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THIN CHILD

If a child is thin, let him take a little of Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

Some children like it too well; begin with a little. A half- or quarter-teaspoonful is enough at first, if the stomach is weak; but increase, as you find the stomach will bear.

The effect is: the little one takes on strength; gets hungry; eats and is happy; gets fat—he ought to be fat—and gets healthy.

We'll send you a little to try if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

Another normal graduate went from the school to the stores and offices of the town, more frequently a physician's office. Finally he studied medicine. A superintendency became vacant, he applied for it, but made a poor showing when questioned by the committee. Disappointed, he began the practice of medicine. Twenty-five years later he remarked: 'I made a mistake in not giving my whole thought to my work in P—, for I have found, since, I was never intended for a physician.'—Teacher's Institute.
