enjoyed the whole freedom of the United States, have had the whole advantage of commercial union, of unrestricted reciprocity, and yet you have only to take the records to show that the difficulties existing there, with respect to those lands, are greater, by far, than those which exist with regard to our own lands. Suppose my hon. friend proves that there is not a rapid rise in the values of lands in this country, does that prove they would be more rapid if unrestricted reciprocity were the rule? Does that prove they would be more rapid if we had a wider channel of commercial intercourse, unrestricted reciprocity with the United States? That is what they have got to prove before they establish the proposition that the heroic remedy should be applied, founded upon this as a reason for its being applied. I desire in the next place to notice the statement which was made, that there has been a total reduction in the volume of trade, and that there is no inter-provincial trade in this country and there cannot possibly be any. The hon. member for South Oxford (Sir Richard Cartwright) was not ingenious in that argument or in that statement. He did not state the whole truth, and he did not state it in the way it should be stated in order to convey the impression that ought to be conveyed. He took the year 1873, an abnormal year, and he made the statement that the volume of trade is to-day less than it was in 1873, and he proves it by what? By simply taking the amount of foreign trade, the exports and imports. He said nothing with regard to the great decrease in the volume of that trade when he was in power from 1873 to 1879, when it went from $127,000,000 of imports for home consumption down to $72,000,000 when it went from $217,000,000 of total trade down to $158,000,000; and yet although there were a constant and fearful diminution of the volume of trade, measured as he measured it, there was no need than for the heroic remedy! There was no resolution then, embodied as the principle of Government and carried out in practice, that we must have unrestricted reciprocity with the United States. No, wiser counsels prevailed then.

Desires to Live at Peace.

The editor of the Spring Hill News was sorely tried, last week, as evidenced by the following in the last issue of his paper:

"We desire to live in peace with all. We want to run our business in our own way, without interference. Do we ask too much? If we are not allowed to do this we can fight. We have no desire to do so. But we refuse to be bull-dozed by a political sore-head, of bad reputation, or a religious (?) sore-head, who, in the livery of heaven, serves the devil by mischief-making and meddling with other people's affairs. Even now we are willing to live at peace with these people, and to continue to extend to them the privileges of the paper. We have been uniformly kind and courteous. But our stock of patience is rapidly becoming exhausted.

Honors Carried off by an American Lad.

The New York Times' London special says: "Gordon Taylor Hughes, of Ohio, son of the American consul at Birmingham, after four days' severe competitive examination in a class of fifty-two, on Saturday was awarded a Cambridge scholarship, valued at $2,000, one of the greatest prizes in English school life. The competition was open to boys under 19 of all nations. The examination of Hughes, who is only 17, was conducted while he was confined to bed by illness, and he was compelled to dictate his answers to a stenographer. This is the first instance of an American winning an English scholarship.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.
