"FATHER WAS A FULLBACK" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

The producers of "Father Was Fullback" have taken a quizzical look at a familiar American scene and have brought forth a comedy that will really raise your chills to a new high. Patrons at the Capitol Theatre, where this new Twentieth Century-Fox picture opened yesterday, had an hilarious time watching Fred MacMurray, as the harassed football coach, worry through a disastrous season on the gridiron and at the same time cope with the antics of two adolescent daughters. Between the two situations, the coach is pretty well sunk in a series of episodes that bring forth waves of laughter. MacMurray delivers another of his smooth performances, perfectly timed to the fast moving comedy situations, and Maureen O'Hara, his co-star, plays the wife and mother with restraint and understanding. Betty Lynn the bobby-sox baby sitter of "Sitting Pretty," tops her performance in the former hit and comes pretty near stealing the picture with her characterization of the daughter who has a low Hooper rating with the boys. She has a perfect "oll in little Natalie Wood, the kid sister who has a tendency to tell "whoppers" at the most inopportune moment.

Neighbors Give Anniversary Party for Tryon Couple

When Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wood, of Tryon, returned to their home early on Wednesday evening, July the twenty-sixth, from visiting with neighbors, their yard was full of parked cars and in the house "all was merry as a marriage bell." Unknown to them, many friends had gathered there to honor them on their wedding anniversary. It was thirty-nine years ago that Florence Toombs of Clifton and Alfred Wood, of Tryon, plighted their troth. The minister who united them was Rev. T. B. Gough and Mrs. Wood still retains, among her prized possessions, the Bible which Mrs. Gough presented to her on that day. Through the years, and as it should be in every happy marriage, they have obeyed God's injunction to "love one another."
Mr. Arthur Dawson was chosen unanimously as Chairman for the evening and after extending personal congratulations and wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Wood he asked Mr. George MacKay, M.L.A. on behalf of the guests to deliver the address. During Mr. MacKay's remarks he stressed the very high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Wood are held by the community and the hospitality of their home which is unsurpassed. In the school too they have ever been most co-operative and their loyalty to the Church is particularly outstanding. Each Sabbath they seek strength for the coming week within its hallowed walls. "Not only did they attend service regularly" in fair and wintry weather", Mr. MacKay related, "but they took their children, Walter and Olive, with them to the House of God for they firmly believe in the words "train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it." To paraphrase "Bobby Burns" "From homes like these our Island grandeur springs, which makes her loved at home, revered abroad."
They were presented with an attractive chair, on behalf of the guests, and as Rev. Mr. Chappell of Rothesay, N. B. said, it was "big enough for two." "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung justly and sincerely by the throng after which "open house" was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served, by friends of the happy couple, later in the evening.
After wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wood many more years of happiness the well-wishers left for their homes glad indeed to have been at this happy gathering.
Among the guests were three from Western Canada who received a warm welcome from their Island friends, Mrs. E. P. MacKenzie, who is Mrs. Wood's sister of Lethbridge, Alta. is visiting at her old home after an absence of thirty-one years. Mrs. Ella M. Muttart on the "Spud Island Special" to re-visit the "scenes of her childhood," as did also Mr. Charles Wright, formerly of Tryon, who now resides in New Westminster, B. C.
