We shall meet, but we shall miss her.
There will be one vacant chair.
We shall linger to caress her
When we breathe our evening prayer.

YORK W. M. S.
Mrs. Parker Jewel of York entertained the Evening Auxiliary of York United Church at her lovely home for their March meeting. The president, Mrs. Frank Vessey, opened the meeting. The devotional period was carried out by the committee in charge, by singing Hymns, with prayer and scripture reading.
A study period was carried out about the mission field and its work among the African of Angola, in day school, Church, hospital, training of nurses, ministers of the church and young Africans in trades of which the important ones is agriculture, from the Study Book.
The business period opened with roll call answered with a verse of scripture. Minutes of the last meeting were read. Sick and house calls were reported. The sale of everyday cards, stationary, sympathy and junior books on commission helped to swell the funds of the Society.
Collection was taken. A temperance reading was much enjoyed. New committees for lunch and the devotional were named. The mailing committee reported mailing several four pound parcels of old Christmas greeting cards for the mission fields.
A delicious lunch was served by the committee assisted by the hostesses. Mizpah benediction closed the meeting.
