FOR THE WOMEN

Woman.

Confucious—Woman is the masterpiece.

Herder—Woman is the crown of creation.

Voltaire—Woman teach us repose, civility and dignity.

Whitter—If women lost us Eden, such as she alone can restore it.

Richter—No man can either live pious or die righteous without a wife.

N. P. Willis—The sweetest thing in life is the unclouded welcome of a wife.

Hiene—Handsome women, without religion are like flowers without perfume.

Beecher—Women are a new race, recreated since the world received Christianity.

Voltaire—All the reasonings of a man are not worth one sentiment of a woman.

Luther—Earth has nothing more tender than a woman's heart when it is the abode of pity.

Shakespeare—For where is any author in the world teaches such beauty as a woman's eyes?

Margaret Fuller Ossoli—Woman is born for love, and it is impossible to turn her from seeking it.

Something a Mother of Boys Should not do.

She should not forget that if she treats her boy as a gentleman she will do much towards making him one.

She should not treat her boy to perpetual frowns, scoldings and fault-finders. "sugar attracts more flies than vinegar." Love wins her boy to a noble manhood.

She should never be so busy or hard pressed for time that she cannot listen to him. If he lives to be a man he will all to soon leave her. She should make the best of him while she has him.

She should not deny her boy any opportunity to enjoy outdoor exercise or sports, and she should not forget to train him with a proper regard for his personal appearance.

She should never allow him to form such habits as coming to table in his shirt sleeves, neglecting his nails or teeth, or carrying soiled handkerchiefs.

She should never nag him, or forget that he is a creature of reason, not an animal which requires to be driven.

She should not try to break her boy's will, but be thankful that he is manly enough to have a mind of his own, and devote herself to training it to the noblest uses.

She should not fail to instill in him a distaste for all that is vulgar.—Canadian Home Journal.

A Hint for Warmth.

Now that the cold weather is beginning, it is well to remember that if the wrists and ankles are warm, the rest of the body is not likely to suffer. Worst-ed wristlets have gone out of fashion but the muff and the long sleeved coat serve quite as good a purpose. Few things, however have been found to take the place of leggings, which if they are of worsted, are apt to be awkward and if they are buttoned are sure to tear the skirts. The long knitted tights were found a trouble to put on when one was in a hurry to go out. Yet to have something which can be easily slipped on and off has become a necessity. Women in the overheated houses of the present day have discovered that it is impossible to dress, as their grandmothers did, in warm unwieldy flannel or even in the same warm clothes in which they must dress for the streets. They claim too that if one dresses in light clothes for the house and in something warmer for the street the dangers of taking cold are minimized. The ingenious young woman of the present day buys golf stockings without feet, and these she slips on over her cotton stockings when she goes out of doors. They are snug enough not to slip and slide, and having no hooks or catchable places about them, answer a purpose in cold weather which nothing else has done.—Harpers Bazar.

Nervous Headache.

"An excellent and never failing cure for nervous headache," said an apostle of physical culture, "is the simple act of walking backward. Just try it some time if you have any doubt about it. I have yet to meet the person who didn't acknowledge its efficacy after a trial. Nobody has as yet discovered or formulated a reason why such a process should bring such certain relief. Physicians say that it is probably because the reflex action of the body brings about a reflex action of the brain and thus drives away the pain that when induced by nervousness is the result of too much going forward. As soon as you begin to walk backward, however, there comes a feeling of everything being reversed, and this is followed by relief."

Plain Indian Pudding.

Boil one point of milk, add one cup of sifted meal mixed with one cup of cold milk. When scalded remove from the fire, and add a half a cup of molasses, two teaspoonfulls of brown sugar half a teaspoonfull of salt, one teaspoonfull of ginger, a little cinnamon, a pint of cold milk and one egg well beaten. Pour into an earthen baking-dish and bake three hours.

The Racing Season.

LONDON, Dec 1.—The English racing season closed this week, and some interesting figures are published concerning the financial result thereof from the owners' point of view. The first place among winning owners is taken by Leopold Rothschild, who won stakes amounting to more than £30,000. The Duke of Westminster makes a bad second, with £16,000 to his credit. Among other prominent winners are the Earl of Rosebery, with £11,000, and the Prince of Wales, who, however, won only £6,000.

Pope Negotiating With Carlos.

LONDON, Dec 1.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The Pope has been so much impressed by the alarm expressed by the Papal Nuncio at Madrid at the possibility of civil war, that with the consent of the Queen Regent, and with a view of avoiding bloodshed, he has opened negotiations with Don Carlos, proposing that Don Jaime, the pretender's son, should marry Princess Mary of Asturias."

A Terrible Storm.

ROME, Dec 1.—The whole Italian coast line has been swept by a terrific storm which has caused the greatest damage everywhere, havoc having been wrought by both wind and sea. Spezzia, Genoa, and Messina have suffered greatly, and most of the Sardinian fortifications have been seriously damaged. Hundreds of vessels have been wrecked and many lives have been lost.

A Question?

OTTAWA, Dec 1.—A promising item for discussion in supply next session will be that of the cost of 50 iron doors, which the Minister of Public Works has just procured from a local hardware dealer. It appears that only two firms were favored with the intimation that the doors were required, and they were not manufacturers either. As a result, the contract was awarded to Mr W S Charleston, a local hardware merchant, and son of Mr Tarte's supervisor of public works.

Germany and the Carolines.

LONDON, Nov 30.—The Berlin correspondent of the London Daily News says that Germany will buy part of the Carolines if they can be purchased cheap enough.

Prisoners Go Free.

VIENNA, Dec. 2.—Emperor Francis Joseph, upon the occasion of his jubilee, the 50th anniversary of his ascension to the throne, occurring today, has granted full amnesy to all less majestic prisoners and has remitted the remainder of the sentences of 540 other prisoners.

The Gordon Memorial.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—William Waldorf Astor has donated $25,000 toward the fund being raised, at the instance of General Kitchener, to found the Gordon Memorial College at Khartoum, for the purpose of educating the inhabitants of the Soudan.

—J Israel Tarte wants the Government to spend $25,000 on an expedition to the North Pole, and the Ottawa Citizen remarks: "We're afraid some of Tarte's good friends would freeze on to the cash before the polar expedition got started."

—Mr Stead, whilst on his travels, noted the growth of the use of English on the Continent. He found that, as a rule, the governing classes in Europe would understand and speak English. In the Russian Royal Family, especially, English is the familiar language of conversation. The Tzar, for instance, invariably speaks English to the Tzaritsa and his little daughters.

—An explanation of the cause of the Dreyfus case is given by the London papers. It is stated that Esterhazy, Henry, and du Paty de Clam regularly supplied the German and Italian Embassies with military secrets till Dreyfus was put into their office. He kept such a sharp look-out that they were unable to send any more of value, and tried to keep up their incomes by sending news that they invented. The Embassies soon found out that they were no longer getting valuable information, and stopped the pay. The traitors found it necessary, therefore, to get rid of Dreyfus, which they did by accusing him of treachery.
