It is proposed to add ten new battalions to the British army. A very large supply of Carbolic Acid received last night at Watson's. The meeting of the Young Men's Union is postponed until further notice. The Examiner is for sale at James McLeod's Grocery, Spring Park Road. Mrs Roberts desires to state that her dancing classes will be postponed until further notice. It is not known in Spanish official circles that America and England have claimed damages for injury to the subjects on the Caroline Islands. The London News says that Parnell's demand that Gladstone formulate a scheme for self-government in Ireland before the election is impracticable and preposterous. The loss of the steamer Algona, with 47 lives, has moved the whole country to pity and compassion. The smallpox carries off more victims in Montreal every day. Rev. J. HUGHES (D. V.) officiated on Sabbath first, the 22nd inst., at North River, at 10.30 a. m.; at New Glasgow Road, at 2.30 p. m.; and at Hauger River, at 6 o'clock in the evening. A HALIFAX despatch says: Samuel Creed, aged 77, for a quarter of a century City Librarian, and Anne Grant Moffat, aged 43, were married on Friday. The affair created great interest in the city. No smoker who has ever used the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco, for say a month, ever relinquishes it for any other brand. Its flavor is rich and full, and it never burns the tongue or scorches the palate, it is in fact, the plus plus of smoking tobacco. ALEX LITTLE, the Brentnall County, Missouri, desperado, was on the 14th sentenced in the United States Court for 16 years, on a charge of forging pension papers and post office orders. Little is 45 years old and is credited with the murder of 14 men. CALL ACCEPTED—The Montreal Times says: Rev. W. B. Hinson, of Summerside, has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Mount Zion Baptist Church, recently extended. Mr. Hinson will probably enter upon his duties here within the next few weeks. AN ENIGMA. Toss made in London. Sold in York. 'Twill stop a bottle And scald the cork. What is it? As DODD'S Medical Hall, Carbolic Acid, the only reliable disinfectant in smallpox. Early Fruit Salt, Montserrat Saline, our own Fruit Salt, all pleasant and safe. Fever Medicines, specially indicated during the epidemic. Calvert's Carbolic Toilet Soap, 18 and 30 per cent. The only genuine. DODD'S Corns, Queen Square. no 17, in front. A LETTER received from Pointe-au-Loup, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, tells a harrowing tale of the misery and starvation at that place. Some sixty families have no food and will surely die of starvation unless aid is forthcoming. Some twenty-five men have left the place to obtain work in the woods at Boisbuis, but it is said that the lumber merchants would not employ them. MR. JOHN L. STARRS, General Manager of The Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, is to be seen upon a social and business visit. The Mutual, it will be remembered, is the oldest and largest Life Company in the world. It is expected that its business on the Island will be the largest, and that its policy holders will be so well satisfied with their contracts that they will persist until their business here will also be the oldest. Rev. G. HOWIE AT HUNTER RIVER.—In the course of his lecture at Hunter River, last week, Mr. Howie sketched Shwiro, his native village. It lies on the western slope of Mount Lebanon, to the north of Jerusalem. It has a population of upwards of 2,000. The people there are practically abstainers, water being their only drink; the result, Mr. Howie affirmed, being that disease is very rare, and very early treated. People are long-lived. Mr. Howie's grandfather died at the age of 110. In the East, drunkenness is regarded as a vice which leads to all other vices. Mr. H. is to deliver his lecture, "Jerusalem to Bethlehem," at Braselbaire on Friday next. He is expected at East St. Peter's on the 21st inst. THE LATEST WHISKEY.—The Amherst Sentinel says: The latest attempt at imposing on the incredulous is a circular received by quite a number of people through the country, making enquiry about heirs to an immense fortune left by a man one. The reader of the circular offers to give full information regarding the steps to be taken to secure the fortune provided his receiver will forward two dollars. Several in this vicinity have received such circulars and it is believed that some have actually sent the money. We will be pleased to learn that they got the fortune, but the best way to acquire wealth in this country is to work for it. It is to be hoped that few are foolish enough to pay any attention to such frauds. A MYSTERIOUS SCHOONER.—Six weeks ago the schooner Handy Andy sailed from Halifax, ostensibly for St. Pierre, with 29 packages of liquors and 233 packages of Montreal tobacco on board, all in bond. The goods were shipped by Daniel McDonald, G. W. Jones and J. G. Sievert. The cargo and vessel were well insured. The vessel has not since been heard of, but portions of the cargo found on sale in Halifax stores have been seized by the Customs officers. Collector Ross, in an interview with the Herald, gives some details of the case, and expresses the belief that the goods were landed "along the shore," brought back to Halifax, and that the vessel has been settled with the idea of both cheating the Customs revenue and obtaining the insurance. THE FUNERAL of the late Francis J. Conroy, Esq., took place from his brother's residence at St. Daniel's Cathedral this morning at 7 o'clock. A solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, assisted by Rev. Fathers Burke and Gallant. At the conclusion of the service, the remains were conveyed to the Railway Station, followed by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends, and forwarded to Tignish. They were accompanied by His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, Father Gallant, Dr. Conroy (brother of the deceased), and several ladies and gentlemen. To-morrow morning, services will be held in Tignish church, and the mortal remains of him who was dearly beloved will be laid to rest beside those of his respected father, in the family plot of the Parish Churchyard.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

The Execution of Riel.

(SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.) The execution of Louis Riel took place at eight o'clock this morning. He met his fate bravely. At seven o'clock he ate a light supper. At five this morning Mass was celebrated, followed two hours later by the administration of the last sacraments. He died a devout Catholic. The hour fixed for the execution was at 8 o'clock, but it was 8.15 before the sheriff and attendants entered the guard room. Here Riel was found kneeling in prayer. Around him were gathered Fathers McWilliams and Andre, and others connected with the Church. Riel repeated the responses in a clear voice which could be heard above the murmurs of the priests. Jack Henderson, a Red River pioneer, and at one time Riel's prisoner, was the hangman. The melancholy procession wended its way toward the scaffold, the Sheriff leading; then came Father McWilliams, next Riel, then Father Andre, Dr. Jukes and others. As he stood on the trap door, Riel continued invoking the aid of Jesus, Mary and the Saints. "Courage, Pere," he said to Father Andre, and then he addressed Father McWilliams in the same words. The latter priest kissed Riel, who said: "I believe in God." "To the last!" said Father Andre. "Yes, to the very last," answered Riel. "I believe in and trust in Him. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on me." Dr. Jukes shook hands with the prisoner, who said in English: "Thank you, Doctor." Then he continued: "Jesus, Maria, I seph, assist me in the last moments." Deputy Sheriff Gibson then said: "Louis Riel, have you anything to say before death?" Riel answered "no." He was given two minutes to pray and he repeated the Lord's Prayer, Father McWilliams leading. While the cap was being drawn over his eyes and the rope adjusted, at the words "Lead me not into temptation," the hangman sprang the bolt at twenty-eight minutes past eight and Riel shot downward. For a second he did not move. A slight twitching of limbs was noticed, but instantly all was quiet again. In two minutes he was dead. His neck was broken, and the doctors say he could have experienced no physical suffering. Few persons were present. Father McWilliams, who spent the night with Riel, says he slept well, that he woke early and engaged for two hours in prayer, and that he intended to speak from the scaffold but was dissuaded by the priests. When the announcement was made to him that he could have no hope of life being spared, he said: "I am glad that at last I am to be released from suffering." Intense Excitement in Montreal. MONTREAL, Nov. 16. The excitement over the hanging of Riel was intense here and threats were made upon the Protestants. Flags were half-mast on many French establishments. In one window a picture of Hon. Mr. Chapleau was hung with a broad band of blood across his forehead, and the motto, "the hangman's brother" at the bottom. In the evening 8,000 Frenchmen met on Champ de Mars, and after inflammatory speeches an effigy of Sir John, and effigies of his Cabinet, including Chapleau, Caron, Langevin and Oimet, were burned. Great excitement prevailed, but there was no rioting. Race feeling is very bitter here. Hon. Peter Mitchell, who went out of the window of the Herald office, was showered with stones and greeted with hisses. The demonstrations will be renewed to-morrow. How the News was Received. OTTAWA, Nov. 16. The news of Riel's execution caused some excitement here. In Montreal 500 French Canadians, carrying the tri-color marched through the streets, giving cheers for Riel and groans for Sir John. In many instances flags were half mast. Sir John was to-day warned to set a watch around his own house and around Government House, which was done. Satisfaction in Toronto. TORONTO, Nov. 16. The news of Riel's execution gives marked satisfaction here. WAR IN THE EAST. OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. LONDON, Nov. 16. The Standard, commenting on the outbreak of hostilities between Serbia and Bulgaria, says: "War has been kindled in the Balkans. We see the beginning, but no human intelligence can pretend to set a limit to the area or to the intensity of the fire." The News considers that the Marquis of Salisbury's utterances precipitated the conflict between Serbia and Bulgaria. King Milan's conduct, it says, is an evil omen for the Balkan States. If all the Balkan States had hailed the Bulgarian union as a step towards the expulsion of Turkey from Europe, they would have acted wisely. The present confusion is only likely to strengthen Turkey. Hand-to-hand Struggles. LONDON, Nov. 6. It is reported that the Servians have captured Adisk Kula. The report current Saturday night that they had captured Trin is revised. It is said both places were taken after a brief hand-to-hand struggle. Mussulmans Rising Imminent. LONDON, Nov. 16. The Daily Telegraph says that in consequence of the massacre of five Mussulmans at Kirdshah, a Mussulman rising against the Bulgarians is imminent.

THE SUBWAY.

Senator Howlan holds his First Meeting at Tignish.

The Scheme Approved Of. TIGNISH, Nov. 17. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in St. Mary's Hall by Senator Howlan at which resolutions were passed unanimously favorable to the subway. The meeting requested the Dominion Government to cause a thorough survey and investigation of the subject by competent Engineers, and, if found practicable, that no time should be lost in its construction. The principal speakers were Rev. D. McDonald, Hon. S. F. Perry, Mr. O'Leary, M. McFadyen, Esq., and Mr. F. Larkin. The resolutions were proposed by Mr. A. Larkin and Capt. Gallant, and seconded by Peter Broderick and Charles Dalton. Great Servian Victories. BELGRADE, Nov. 16. After desperate fighting yesterday, Servian troops occupied positions at Raptchia. The losses on both sides are very heavy. This victory enabled them to turn the very difficult and rocky gorge of Dragoon Pass. The Bulgarians, after gallant resistance, retreated to Svinitsa, where an important engagement is expected to take place to-day. BELGRADE, Nov. 16. D. Jukunith, commanding the Semok division, drove the Bulgarians from their entrenchments at Killa, and captured 150 prisoners. Total Servian loss is two officers and 50 men killed, and 200 wounded. An official report says after a brilliant charge the Servians carried four Bulgarian redoubts beyond Tzaribrod. Col. Djukunith with the Tomok division has taken Kela. The Servian troops continue advancing everywhere, and have captured 400 Bulgarian prisoners. A great battle is now being fought in the direction of Dragoon. PIEROT, Nov. 16. The Bulgarian troops are making an obstinate retreat along the whole line. Five hundred Bulgarians were taken prisoners. Servian telegraph officers have been forbidden by their Government to accept from foreign war correspondents despatches relating to the movements of the army. Turkey Refuses to Interfere. PARIS, Nov. 16. The Journal des Debats' Constantinople correspondent says: "Turkey has refused to interfere between Serbia and Bulgaria." Weather Bulletin.
