Young Couple Are Honored

KENNINGTON — A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew P. Johnson, Margate, recently to honor their son Edward and his bride on their recent marriage.

Clair Mayhew acted as chairman and called on Kenneth Thompson who read a complimentary note to the young couple, welcoming Mrs. Johnson, the former Asrid Miller of Kelvin Grove to the community.

A beautiful platform reciter was presented by Mr. Scott Woodside and Mr. Ronald Frutt, and a bassoon by Royden Dyment.

Individual gifts were opened by Miss Mary Campbell, and Miss Sharon Clark read the accompanying good wishes.

The groom expressed appreciation for the gifts for himself and his bride. A social hour with lunch followed.

Members donated money in the form of checks to the fund of the program for the August meeting of West Covehead W.I. held at the home of Mrs. George MacMillan.

Mrs. Wilfred MacLeod dealt with the early history of the community with notes she had prepared on the history of the old grist mill and saw mill. "The Yankee alarm" and "The Yankee alarm" were also mentioned.
