

Patterson Chills Archie Moore In Fifth Round

BY JACK HAND
CHICAGO (AP) — Floyd Patterson became the youngest heavyweight champion in history Friday night when the 21-year-old Brooklyn boy knocked out Archie Moore in 2:27 of the fifth round before a roaring near capacity crowd at the Chicago Stadium.

Dazzling the 39-year-old light heavyweight king with his blazing speed of hand, Patterson climaxed his amazing rise from Olympic champion to king of the world's heavies in only four years.

Patterson was piling up a lead on the official cards against his widely missing opponent when he crashed home a terrific left hook to the jaw. The hook had a delayed-action effect on old Archie, who hoped to become the oldest man ever to crash to the heavyweights title on a second try. For a split second, Moore started to come on his feet, he spun and fell on his face. Dazed and befuddled by this scowling young tiger, Moore barely beat the count of referee Frank Sikora, rising at the count of nine.

Archie began to get up slowly, pulling himself up inch by inch in painful fashion. Just as he was getting up, at the count of 10, referee Sikora signalled the end.

Justice J. McManus had given the first four rounds of this nationally televised fight to Patterson by a 20 to 16 lead in the "five must" point system used by National Boxing Association states, Judge John Bray had it even in rounds 2, 2 and even in points 18, 19, while referee Sikora scored it 20-17 for Patterson with three rounds for Patterson and one, the fourth, even.

The Associated Press had Patterson ahead 20 to 17, taking three rounds with the first round even.

FLOYD TOO FAST
Patterson, who gave weight to his opponent, 182 1/2 to 187 1/2, simply packed too much speed. Floyd shook off some of Archie's punches, blocked a good share of them and made him miss with his crouch, bob and wave.

Patterson was criticized on many sides as an untested heavyweight who hardly deserved to step into the shoes vacated by Rocky Marciano when he retired April 27. There will be no more criticism of his inexperience.

It was a brilliant success for Patterson, who, since he was 14, haunted manager us D'Amato's Gramercy Park Gym on New York's east side, watching his two brothers do their training.

Moore was slashed near the left eye on the bridge of the nose in the third round. At the end of the same round, Patterson had a slight cut along his left eyebrow.

MORE DESPERATE
When the blood started to flow it was obvious that Moore had to persevere. Patterson never was able to get it off.

Patterson continued to apply pressure. Just before the bell ended the third, Moore was wounded by three successive hooks to the jaw.

Young Floyd never let up. At the beginning of the fifth he drove home a beautiful series of punches to Moore's head and body—two lefts to the body, followed by a right to the chops.

In Patterson's anxiety he slipped to the floor as he missed with a wild swing. Moore drove a hook to the body, but ran flush into a left hook that practically lifted him off his feet.

Although he did manage to get up, the end was in sight.

By a strange quirk of fate, a few hours after Patterson hit the jackpot his successor in the Olympi-pic middleweight division was to be crowned at Melbourne, Australia.

The only thing left to Archie, who now calls San Diego, Calif., his home, is his light heavyweight title. After his knockouts by Marciano in 1955 and by Patterson, he no longer figures among the top heavyweight contenders.

18th VICTORY
It was Patterson's 18th straight victory and his 31st in a 32 fight career since his return from the 1952 Olympics. His only defeat was at the hands of Joey Maxim, the former light heavyweight king, on a disputed decision in an eight rounder in 1954.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Tattersalls fall sales which will be held in the Keeneland race course, Lexington, Kentucky, start next Tuesday morning and will continue all day Wednesday. A lot of attention is being focused on this sale because the breeding stock and many brood mares owned by the late W. H. Cane will be disposed of. Then again there are over 100 race horses among the fastest being Port Rodney 2:00 2-5, Proud Bert 3: 2:02 2-5, Susie Win 2:03 2-5, Lusty Tom 2:04 2-5, Deco Y. 2:02, Smart Choice 2:03 and many others that have marks better than 2:10 trotting and pacing.

The new situation is due to far-sighted men who also have wealth, who some years ago instituted 2-year-old and 3-year-old trotting and pacing stakes the total value of which run into millions. The Little Brown Jug is the top for pacers, reaching as high as $75,000 but there are lots of stakes that run to $50,000 and more of course many are called and few are chosen and in the process of getting trotters and pacers ready for the way. One must have a big bankroll to engage in that type of harness horse activity.

Several of the campaigning stables are now heading for training quarters in the sunny south. This year the Spring Garden Ranch at De Leon Springs, Florida, will be a great favorite. They have a good mile and half mile track, plenty of stabling and it will no doubt in a few years be tying with Orlando as the place to get youngsters ready for the fray, also aged horses. The writer with F. C. McCurdy and J. Henry DeWitt visited it last March. Mr. DeWitt doing the driving, and we were very hospitably received, shown over the place and the horses and invited back again. Since then a lot of money has been spent on improvements. Horsemen we spoke to there preferred it to Orlando and then again those at Orlando think they have the best of it.

Getting back to figures in connection with Harrisburg, Pa. we notice that of the 874 horses sold only 183 were 4-year-olds and older. This is the breakdown: 11 weanlings that sold for $14,050, an average of $1,277; 477 yearlings that brought $1,383,300, an average of $2,900, which is a new all-time high for a harness horse sale. 2-year-olds averaged $1,616 and 3-year-olds brought $172,000, an average of $2,620. The above comes to a grand total of $1,735,750. The balance of the over $200,000 came from the sale of older horses than 3-year-olds.

That is a spot worth seeing by any horseman, with the several tracks, the stables with hundreds of horses from 2-year-olds up being trained over it every day and the weather almost perfect. This year Billy Haughton is expected to again have the largest stable. Last year he had almost 100 and this year he will have that many or more. It is a tough grind to keep tab on so many, to decide whether their shoeing needs to be changed or some other adjustments made in their gait and all the other things that go into preparing a high priced youngster for the big stakes.

TO SUMMERSIDE
We were pleased to have a visit from Gordon "Cruse" Robinson Thursday. He had recently returned from the Harrisburg sale where he purchased the yearling filly Mount Holly for his employer, J. K. Cruse, of Summerside. Mount Holly is a dark bay filly, foaled March 1st, 1955 and is by one of the great sires, Bill Gallion 3: 1:59 1/2 and her dam is Miss Flair by His Excellency 1:59 1/4, dam, Flair Hanover, dam of five better than 2:10. Mount Holly is staked in $100,000 worth of engagements but we understand will only be kept eligible to a stake which will be raced in Indianapolis in September. Cruse said that everyone that saw the filly liked her. She is perfectly sound, has the best of feet and legs and has every appearance of a class.

Latest word is that Joe O'Brien who for the third straight year has been the Grand Circuit's leading driver is coming along very nicely at the Centinela Valley Community hospital in Inglewood, Calif. Following his severely fractured right ankle suffered in the first race of the final day of the Hollywood Park meet. This fall's was the most successful harness meet ever staged west of the Mississippi with a flood of fast miles during the closing days.

The former owners, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McClaren of Pine Run Farm, Hanover, Pa. were glad that she was going to a good owner and were exceptionally nice to Cruse. They had their man stay over until noon the next day to look after the filly and presented him with a lovely halter to take her away with and asked Cruse to let them know how she gets along. She was bred at the celebrated Hanover Show Farms where Mr. and Mrs. McClaren have other brood mares.

CHANGED AUCTIONS
Harness horse auctions have changed very considerably from those of the years ago. Then it was the aged horses that buyers were looking for. Now the chief attraction each fall is the yearlings that are heavily staked and whose blood lines show them capable of winning. A glance at the prices they bring this year shows that the new blood is being bred. They wanted the best that as the horse had won 13 of his 21 starts it would be better to give him a rest as he has decided to campaign him again in 1957 when he will have an opportunity of breaking all money winning records for a harness horse.

Breeding trotters is a hobby with them and they get a great deal of pleasure out of it. Cruse said that he met several former Maritimers at the sale and Earle Avery and Billy Hood gave him a lot of information about the horses being auctioned and Joe O'Brien was particularly nice to him. Joe considers he got a very promising filly. Cruse thinks that one of the best buys at Harrisburg was Seward P. 4, 2:06, record taken over a half mile track, that was knocked down to Heber Sweeney of Bridgewater, N.S. Accompanying Cruse on the trip was Myron MacArthur of Kensington, who also greatly enjoyed meeting former Maritime drivers and watching the auction.

GREAT PACER
One of the best bred pacers that ever came to this province died recently at Montague, Real Money 4: 2:09 was by the renowned sire Peter Volo 2:02, dam, Sister Susan 2:15 1/2 by Moko, and was a full brother to Cold Cash 1:58 1/4. He was bred at Walnut Hill Farm, Donnersburg, Kentucky. Among the good race horses he sired were Premier J. Walker 3:12 3-4, Money Royal 3:12 4-5, Doctor J.D. 2:13 4-5, Real Joe 3:13 2-5 and others. ## THE FIGHT ROUND BY ROUND

by JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO (AP) — Light heavyweight Champion Archie Moore switched to a 9-to-5 favorite after a puzzling change of odds as he met young Floyd Patterson for the world heavyweight title at Chicago Stadium Friday night.

A crowd estimated at 17,000 jammed the Stadium.

Moore weighed 187 1/2 pounds to Patterson's 182 1/2.

They felt each other out in the opening minutes with Patterson trying several swift left leads which Moore blocked with a number of right punches to the ropes but the light-heavyweight champion scored sharply with a left right combination.

Archie scored with a sharp right uppercut which seemed to slow his youthful opponent just before the bell ended the round.

Round two:
Again they started the round sparring cautiously. A minute passed before a solid blow was struck. Moore crossed a sharp right to the face but Patterson came back strong.

Round three:
Archie missed with a looping left as Patterson stalked him. Floyd's quick left lead drew a sharp left-right counter from Archie who seemed fighting a defensive battle.

Patterson scored sharply and pressed Archie to the ropes. A cut opened on Moore's forehead. He fought back viciously just before the third round ended. The cut was between the eyes close to the left eyebrow. Patterson also got a cut over his left eye.

Round four:
Moore's slightly greying hair was stained with blood as he came out for the fourth round. Patterson's white trunks also were crimson-stained. Moore began to work harder against the vigorous work-listed attack of his young opponent. The cut between his eyes was opened slightly. Patterson landed with two crisp lefts to the jaw as the fourth round ended.

Round five:
Moore came out for the fifth round with his injured brow heavily smeared with grease. Patterson landed a stinging right to the jaw which stung Moore into some crisp body punching. Moore's crouching style seemed no puzzle to Patterson who reached him consistently with lefts and rights. After an exchange Patterson slipped to the floor for no count. A left hook dropped Moore.

Moore staggered to his feet at the count of nine. Patterson pounced on him again and let fly with another whistling left hook which dumped Moore again. This time Moore climbed to his feet just as referee Frank Sikora counted 10 and he was ruled knocked out.

HUGHES SCORES 5 GOALS

S' side Nips Montague 9-8 In Island League Tussle

The Summerside Aces survived a terrific third period onslaught by the Montague Primroses to edge the visitors 9-8 at Civic Stadium in a regular Island hockey league game last night.

The Summerside boys were leading 4-2 in the first frame, and 8-4 in the second, but the visitors widely outplayed them in the final hectic session, and came very close to sending the game into overtime. Montague played superior positional hockey in that last period, and when they went over the Ace blue line it was difficult to wrestle the puck from their control.

HUGHES POTS FIVE
The line of Hughes, Carroll, and Arsenault accounted for seven of the visitors' eight goals. Hughes getting five goals and two assists, Carroll, one goal and three helpers, and Arsenault, one goal and two assists.

Coke Grady scored three times for Aces, and Ulric Gallant and Gord Cutcliffe each had two. Cutcliffe won the Holman "Most valuable player" award.

Two misconducts were handed out to Montague players, one in the second period to goaler Dillon who protested too vigorously an Ace goal, and one to McLure in the final frame. Six minor penalties were given, the Aces getting five of them.

Minor Loop Ball May Be Through

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was told Friday minor league baseball may disappear from the United States unless the federal tax on minor league game admissions is repealed.

George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, the minor league organization, told a House subcommittee tax relief "might be the difference between survival and liquidation."

One hundred of the 123 minor league clubs that answered a questionnaire reported losses last season Trautman said. The total of $2,022,391 he said, compared with profits of only $452,984 for the teams that did operate in the black. The average admission tax paid was $5,962, he said, and if the net loss were spread among all reporting clubs, the average would be $12,759.

Fast Action In Hoop Loop

The City Basketball loop has been dishing up a lot of fast action for the few fans who have bothered to sit in occasionally on the contests. Maybe we shouldn't say few fans because there was a sellout crowd at the Y.M.C.A. last Saturday when the "Y" won their first game of the season by whipping the R.C.A.F. Flyers 55-38. However other games have been far from sellouts and no doubt will continue in the same vein until the fans catch the hoop fever from one of the infected fans or players.

The Trotters, for some years the dominant team in city league play, still appear to be the team to beat. They won this distinction for themselves at the same time that they defeated Sains 58-35 last Sunday. For the Sains have a lot of dunkers - not the donut brand in their lineup who are capable of running up quite a score as demonstrated against the Air-men and Y.M.C.A., unless they are closely watched. But the Trotters threw a tight score defense at Sains last Sunday. Roy Mc-Gonnell, Mark Lader, Cliff Ready, and Father Clarence Roche and Coach Harold (Red) Howatt hit 6 ft. even. Midget on the team is Windy LePage at 5 ft. 10 inches.

By the way, in yesterday's column on the Parkdale Flyers, we didn't mean to insinuate that Orin Carver has been solely responsible for the first place position of the team in the I.S.H.L. That wouldn't be quite fair to fellows like Jim MacLeod, Willie Dunn, Frank Roper and in fact the entire team who have been playing their hearts out for the Flyers' cause. The whole squad has been playing top-notch hockey but Orin has certainly been the sparking to date. Orin, we might add with tongue in cheek, is in line for the league's rookie award that is if someone would donate one. After all it is his first year in it. Another good candidate, would be Lorne Hennessey and possibly Joe Mahar.

With no less than 12 players in the fold the Trotters can floor a team that averages close to 6 ft. 3 inches in height. For example Gump Gillis stretches 6 ft. 5 ins. Des Burge scales close to 6 ft. 1 inch, as does Thane Doyle, a newcomer to the squad. Roy McGonnell, Mark Lader, Cliff Ready, and Father Clarence Roche and Coach Harold (Red) Howatt hit 6 ft. even. Midget on the team is Windy LePage at 5 ft. 10 inches.

The only team that can approach the Trotters in length is S.D.U. Gerald Tingler is the big man at 6 ft. 4 inches. Ting-

Two Hoop Tilts Scheduled Today

Two basketball tilts are scheduled today in the City League. This afternoon at W.C. starting at 2:30 the two college entries in the loop—S.D.U. and P.W.C.—will clash in their first meeting of the season.

This evening at 7:30 at the Y.M.C.A. the undefeated Trotters hit the floor facing the Y.M.C.A. entry.

Following are the official standings of the league:

Trotters	2	0	123	101	4
S.D.U.	3	2	124	148	4
Y.M.C.A.	2	1	104	117	2
