her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Moore Smith, Victoria West.

Messrs. Percy Yeo and John Murray, Harmony, spent a few days in Halifax, N. S., recently. They visited Mr. Murray's sister and brother and also called to see Mr. Yeo's brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas B. Yeo, who has been a patient in Camp Hill Hospital for many years. He is a veteran of World War I and suffers from arthritis. He also is blind, but despite these afflictions he keeps cheerful and is interested in the world news as well as news from his island province. He takes the Island papers and by hearing the "notes" read by the Nurses and friends, he keeps posted on the local events from his boyhood community.
