THE street corner loafing nuisance has again commenced. At some of the corners the language used by some of our young men (?) is simply disgusting. The attention of our police is called to this matter.

In the event of war, says the Toronto Telegram, Prince Edward Island would be in great danger from Russian cruisers. All they would require to do would be to tie a hawser to the island and tow it out into the ocean. To which the Detroit Free Press adds:—"This would seem to show the desirability of the government taking Prince Edward Island in every night until all danger disappears." This is certainly the wit of small wits.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP McINTYRE, accompanied by the Rev. Pius McPhee, left this city yesterday morning for St. Hyacinthe, Montreal, where they will attend a reunion of the aged classmates of the St. Hyacinthe College. On the way thither they will call at Chatham N. B., and assist at the ceremony of laying the foundation stone of the new Catholic church at that place. This ceremony will be presided over by the Apostolic Delegate, Bishop Conroy, who is, we understand, on his way to Newfoundland.

THE SCAFFOLD.—Friday next, "the longest day in the year," will in all probability be regarded as all too short by one unfortunate man, the condemned murderer, Vaughan, who, it is generally believed will, on Saturday morning, suffer death on the scaffold for the murder of the poor old woman Mary Quinn, in February last. The condemned man, who was understood to have admitted his guilt to several clergymen soon after his sentence, has, it is now said, made a full and complete confession, which will be made public after his execution.—St. John Freeman.

THE steamer Carroll arrived from Boston on Tuesday evening with a cargo of merchandise, and the following passengers:—Rev. J. Wheaton Smith, Mr. O. G. Cameron, Miss Kate Lea, Miss Bessie Morris, Mrs. M. T. Gara and child, Mrs. Walker and children, Miss Eliza McLeod, Mrs. C. McLeod, Miss Flora McCornack, Mrs. E. Holland, Miss Mary Buchanan, Miss Maggie McDonald, Mr. Holland, Mr. J. Wortman.

OBITUARY.—The Patriot says:—"We deeply regret to learn by telegram yesterday of the death of Mrs. Walter Bourke and child, at Montreal. Some months ago the prosperous head of a fine and happy family was stricken down to the great grief of the many friends he had deservedly made in his native island, and in the commercial capital of Canada. We knew him well, and in his death we felt as if we had lost a dear friend. Now we have the melancholy duty of recording the death of his wife and child. We believe the remains of the husband, wife and child will be brought to the Island for interment. We tender our heartfelt sympathy to the families and friends of the deceased in their sad bereavement.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.)

BERLIN, June 18. The Persian Minister to England is here, not, as previously reported, with the object of claiming admission to the Congress. He is simply soliciting its protection of Persian interests. The Vienna Bohemian intimates that Austria will demand Kileek, Sittoria, and other districts bordering on Dalmatia, and that the assent of Congress to her request is certain.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 18. The Allavians have sent a protest to Berlin against the annexation of their territory to Montenegro, which they are resolved to forcibly resist, if the protest is disregarded. It appears that, within the last few days, there has been imminent danger of a conflict between the Russians and Turks, Baker Pasha or Fwod Pasha having, on Saturday, given the Russians a few hours notice to remove an observation overlooking the Turkish lines.

The Porte, on being informed of the affair, ordered the authorities to maintain peace, and the danger is now averted. The movement of the Russians to meet the apprehended attack gave rise to an unfounded report that the Russian headquarters were about to remove from San Stefano.

BERLIN, June 18. The physicians in attendance on Emperor William publish a formal declaration that the patient, besides transitory pain, suffers much from helplessness. Being unable to use his arms, his complete recovery can only be effected in a long time.

The Anglo-Russian Agreement.

THE London Globe publishes the full text of the agreement between England and Russia, which, it asserts, was signed at the Foreign Office on May 30th, and which serves as a mutual engagement for the Russian and English plenipotentiaries. The conditions of the agreement provide for the division of Bulgaria into two provinces. Provision is made for the government and departure therefrom permanently of the Turkish troops. England stipulates not to oppose the retrocession of Bessarabia or the annexation of Batoum, but reserves the right of discussing in Congress any prospective changes relative to the Danube. Russia agrees not to take any indemnity in land from Turkey, or to advance further upon her Asian frontier, or to interfere with the claims of English creditors. The re-organization of Thessaly, Epirus and other Greek Provinces, will be left to Congress. The Province of Keturis is to be ceded by Turkey to Persia, and Bayazid is to be ceded to Turkey. The questions of the organization of Bulgaria by Europe, the passage of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus, and Russian military occupation of Roumania, will also be submitted to Congress. Provision is also made for the rectification of the western boundaries of Bulgaria on a basis of nationality; the superior officers of militia in Southern Bulgaria to be nominated by the Porte, with the approval of Europe. The Turkish promises of reform in Armenia are not to be exclusively to Russia, but to England also.

Socialism in Germany.

A Berlin letter throws some light upon Socialism in Germany. The writer attributes its rapid growth to the reaction following the flush times that succeeded the war with France. The number of Socialist voters is estimated at 700,000, and there are about forty newspapers printed in their interest. Twelve members of the German Parliament are avowed advocates of Socialism, and the converts include persons of all classes and all conditions of society. At their meetings the question of a revolution for the overthrow of the present order of things is openly discussed, and the belief is entertained that all the European governments can be overturned.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 19 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent.
