and Government officials to unimpeachable integrity and unquestionable veracity.

JAMES D. HASZARD.

Recreation Grove, July 11th, 1853.

The Editor of Whelan's Gazette, unable to rebut, in the slightest point, our remarks on the conduct of the members of the Government and on that of the leader in particular, inserts a letter full of insinuations, which we should disdain to notice, except for the purpose of shewing the low character of the Government which allows such scurrility to appear in the columns of its own Newspaper.

We have slightly and boldly attacked the public proceedings of our public men, as we have an unquestionable right to do, but we have left intact their private characters, although we are well aware that the most libelling situations of trust should be men of irreproachable demeanour in private life, as the surest guarantee of integrity in their public character. Even in public matters, we have never asserted anything that we could not prove, or that we had not good foundation for believing. Here, however, is the honorable Editor of Whelan's Gazette, giving publicity to a tale of private life, without the slightest foundation.

The first paragraph states—

"That the individual who wrote the Editorial in Haszard's Gazette, 'Charlottetown Nomination' had better hold his whist. The "confirmed inebriate" arose in a little wee own door for many years of his thus degraded life."

Now we can bring incontestable evidence that the article above quoted was written by ourself—the proprietor—and if any person can adduce the slightest testimony that he ever saw or heard of our being in that state, let him do so. We may give it—as that article was not intended for us—as our opinion, however, that he, who years ago—when we were but in low corrective and many incentives to lead into error —did become intemperate, but, who now reformed, sets and behaves himself as a gentleman, is more worthy of respect, than the man, who, with all the enlightenment of the age, and the benefit of example degrades himself, by a continued indulgence in tipling and constant inebriation, at every dinner he may be invited to.

We do not know who is alluded to in the second sentence, and of the third we cannot understand the meaning except that it may be an attempt to shew a low species of wit, in expressing the word excise (XIII.) by means of numerals.

Mark the littleness of the third paragraph—

"That George T. Haszard, son of James Douglas Haszard, and proprietor of the ass horse press, is not the wisest man in the world; and that his behaviour at Shediac, not long since, was offensively loose, &c.,"

In the first place, we are attempted to be held up to ridicule, because we have had the enterprise to introduce in the first power printing press into the Island, thereby in some degree keeping pace with the age, giving employment to a number of hands—stimulating native industry—and effectually competing with the high foreign importation. The second is an allusion to our being ill at Shediac, but with the intention of making those persons who are unacquainted with us, conclude to the contrary. There was no doubt nothing there that we could be ashamed of at any time, we believe we will not suffer by this calumny.

As to the last paragraph which states—

"That Mr. George Beer, jun., and James Douglas Haszard, Esq., are two of the gentlemen who, Haszard's Gazette says, are making arrangements to quit this Island, should the present Government remain in power.

We merely remark that neither of the above persons were those alluded to, and may be allowed to state, that the removal of any respectable person with a little property would be a loss to the community, but we trust if there would be an greater public benefit proposed, than the removal of the Honorable Queen's Printer and the greater Premier Brewer. If these persons, or any of their friends, doubt this statement, we shall be prepared in a future number, to make good the assertion.

A Report of the Trials which took place in the last sitting of the Supreme Court, has been prepared and is partly in type, but from its great length, we must defer it until our next issue.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

THE MAY Number closes the Third Year and the Sixth Volume of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. It has now reached a monthly edition of ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTEEN THOUSAND COPIES: and the demand for it is still increasing with greater rapidity than ever. This unparalleled and unexpected success has compelled the Publishers to resort to extraordinary means for printing the work with the requisite rapidity, and at the same time preserving the typographical elegance by which it has always been distinguished. It is now Electrotyped by a new process, which makes it easy to print, from a number of copies from the same plates, without in the least impairing the clearness and beauty of the impression. The publishers desire to repeat their cordial acknowledgments to the Press and the Public for the extraordinary favour which has thus far extended their efforts to interest and instruct the great body of the American people; and to renew their assurances that every possible effort will be made to increase still further the claims of their Magazine to a liberal share of support. It will continue to present, at the cheapest price, the most interesting and instructive literary matter, original and selected, domestic and foreign, in the most elegant and convenient style, and accompanied by the finest pictorial illustrations, which a lavish expenditure of money can command. They appeal with confidence to the past, as a guarantee that their promises for the future will be abundantly fulfilled.

Each Number of the Magazine contains 144 octavo pages, in double columns; each year thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every Number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Current Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the Month. The Volumes commence with the Numbers for JUNE and DECEMBER; but Subscriptions may commence with any Number.

TERMS.—The Magazine may be obtained for Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers at THREE DOLLARS per annum, or TWENTY-FIVE CENTS a Number. The Semi-annual Volumes, as completed, neatly bound in Cloth, are sold at Two Dollars each, and Muslin Covers are furnished to those who wish to have their back Numbers uniformly bound, at Twenty-five Cents each. Six Volumes are now ready for binding.

(an entirely new invention.)

IS the cheapest, neatest, best, and most effectual article for all washing purposes, a packet of which is equal to ten pounds of Soap!

The saving of Time and Labour is so astonishingly great, that a WEEK'S WASH can be accomplished BEFORE BREAKFAST —no rubbing being required.

This new and valuable Article is MORE SERVICEABLE THAN SOAP, and it produces a better and much quicker lather, and is adapted for purposes for which Soap cannot be safely or effectually used.

It will not injure the hands, or the most delicate material; but whilst it is incomparable for permanently whitening Linens, &c., after they have become discoloured by age, or injured by bad Washing, it is also the most unsurpassed for imparting the colors of FLANNELS, BLANKETS, WOOLLENS, Colored PRINTS, MUSLIN and LACE.
