FIND BODY OF WOMAN—Miss Yvonne McLean, 50-year-old Charlottetown woman was found dead by City Police last night in a room on Kent Street where she did light housekeeping. The deceased was strangled in the room on Wednesday night, and probably died almost instantly, it was believed. She was found half off a couch on which apparently she had been lying. Her face was in a pall of water beside the cot. An inquest would not be necessary. Coronor Dr. J. D. McGilligan decided occupants of the house at 24 Kent Street where Miss McLean had her room became alarmed last evening when they recalled they had not seen her woman since Wednesday night. City Police were notified and Sergeant William McInnis and Constable A. J. Lund investigated. They found the door locked from the inside. Breaking into the room they found the woman lying dead. The deceased was a native of Charlottetown. She is survived by an aunt, Mrs. Frank Creighton, New Glasgow, N.S., and an uncle somewhere in the United States. Her mother died last winter.

About one hundred merry-makers from New Glasgow and surrounding districts to honor the niece, Miss Katie Matheson, one of the season's most popular brides. At 10 o'clock as the Wedding March was being played by Mrs. Russell Matheson, Miss Ruby Roberts escorted the bride to a beautifully decorated chair. A large white bell, little Miss Thekla Coles presented Miss Matheson with a beautiful bouquet of mixed flowers. Miss Letitia MacLeod and Miss Helen Ford carried in a basket which contained a bountiful supply of gifts; they also assisted in unwrapping them, while the accompanying verses and good wishes were read by Miss Kathleen MacDonald. The gifts were neatly arranged on the table by Miss Ruby Roberts. Miss Matheson in her usual good manner then expressed her thanks for her gifts and her desire that they would visit her in their new home. After which all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." A dainty lunch was served "G-O-L-D" then took charge of the entertaining and furnished music. The young and joyously tripped the "light fantastic" all the way through the morning. (Patriot please copy).

Death Thursday

Of Mrs. Sarah Jane Stewart

Many friends will regret to learn of the death, on Thursday evening, July 13, of Mrs. Sarah Jane Stewart, 730 Prince Street, widow of the late Lieutenant Colonel Daniel Stewart.

Mrs. Stewart, who was in her 88th year, was quite active until two weeks ago, when she took a weak turn. She passed peacefully away at her home on the street which she had lived seventy-five years of her life. Though of late years she had been confined to her home, she maintained contact with a wide circle of friends, her cheerful disposition and sterling Christian character making her a great favorite with both young and old.

Mrs. Stewart was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cameron, of Brackley Point, her paternal grandfather being a native of Perthshire. Her husband, Colonel Stewart, died in 1921.

There survive four sons, Messrs. W. A. Stewart, M.L.A., of the firm of Moore and McLeod, and W. C. Stewart, of the firm of Wm. & Co., Ottawa, and Lorne, of Wm. & Co., Charlottetown, to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Mr. Charles Stewart arrived home just before his mother's death. A grandson, Allan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stewart, is expected home from Owen Sound, Ont., today, accompanied by his wife.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow, Sunday, from the home to the People's Cemetery.

All Troops will carry a proportion of First Aid Kit.

Troops and Crews will rally near the north entrance to Victoria Park on Brighton Road, Leaders will report to District Commissioner Warren at that point at 2.30 p.m.

Don't forget the combined Girl Guide and Boy Scout Campfire on Thursday evening.

Mr. S. C. Moore, Assistant Commissioner for Wolf Cubs will be in charge of Cub activities on the 17th instant.

The route for the parade on Monday afternoon is as follows—starting from Victoria Park, along Park Roadway and Kent Street to Queen, under canvas with the Rev. W. L. C. Ousehouse of Montague in charge.

THE MONTAGUE HUCKEY boys have been sponsoring a weekly dance for the past month, which has proved most successful. The boys are looking forward to next year and its financial needs.

NARROW ESCAPE—Early Wednesday morning a car driven by two young men, was making the turn at the bottom of the Wood Island Hill, Montague, and crashed into a post in front of the restaurant, breaking off the post, then served into the drug store, removing a portion of the stucco on the building and causing a fire. Fortunately there were few people about and no little children. The driver escaped without injury.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Dr. J. M. Murchison, Bonshaw, who departed this life July 15, 1938. It is singular how in every heart we hear it each and all—A song of those who answer not. However we may call They throng the silence of the breast We see them as of yore—The rays that sweep the true, the sweet, Who walk with us no more. More homelike seems that time when we were young Since they have entered there To follow them were not so hard Whenever they may fare; They cannot be where God is not. On any sea or shore, Whate'er beides They love abide, Our God forevermore. By Wife and Daughters.
