WITH THE 1ST GEORGETOWN BOY SCOUT TROOP

The regular weekly meeting of the 1st Georgetown Troop was held in the Legion Hall on Friday evening, May 13th. Seventeen boys were in attendance.

The meeting commenced with patrol roll call; followed by the Troop in Horseshoe; Flag Break; Salute and Scout Silence. General inspection was carried out by the Scoutmaster who spoke briefly to the boys.

After dismissal the boys returned to their patrol corners. Patrol Leader Paul Batchelder of the Curfew Patrol instructed his Scouts in Second Class work.

Patrol Leader Ray Murphy gave instruction in First class work with his Wolves; and the Owl Patrol under Patrol Leader Roger Solomon worked on knots and lashing. Instruction periods were interspersed with a number of lively games.

The meeting came to a close with Taps. On Saturday morning May 14th, the Curfew Patrol under Patrol Leader Paul Batchelder started a hike through the country. Uniformed with packs filled with necessary food and dishes and hiking along in single file they presented a fine appearance.

On the bank of a river they built a lean-to, prepared a fire and cooked dinner. After dinner they constructed a raft and went across the stream. Some of the boys got wet but were happy about the whole affair.

A number of boys of the Owl Patrol also were out but not much has been heard from this. However one of the boys will tell about it at next meeting.

Swiss frontier, including the great Brenner pass. If American troops from Austria were based in Verona, their lines of communication would reach southwestwards across the Apennines to the west coast port of Leghorn, where the United States has maintained a big logistical base for four years. Austrian independence and neutrality already is beginning to raise new political issues. Italian rightwing newspapers are professing alarm at what they see as attempts by Austria to "create trouble" in the German-speaking areas of Italy's northern frontier region.

The newspapers splashed reports from Vienna of complaints made in the Austrian parliament about Italian treatment of this Austrian minority.

It's Your Turn. It is reported that there have been enough of those little white stakes driven in the ground in Georgetown to fill a small lumber yard. The people are supposed to believe that not only will all the streets be widened if they vote Liberal but they will also be paved. Time has run out on the Government Party. Everyone knows where the Conservative Party stands. They know its program for good government for all. Everyone has a right to vote and a duty to vote. We hope that election day will bring out the biggest popular vote in our history. Should the people - in their great wisdom - elect a new Government, as many think they will, the Conservative Party stands ready, willing and able to serve the cause of good government. It's your turn - let your ballot speak. GO AHEAD! Vote Conservative on May 25th!

Joint Political Meetings. The Liberal candidates for the 5th District of Kings will be at the following places on the following dates: ST. CHARLES HALL MAY 23. All meeting open at 8:30. Opposition candidates invited to attend.—Half time. (Signed) GEORGE E. SAVILLE.

TO THE VOTERS FOURTH KINGS. Owing to the shortness of time before the Election Date and pressure of business at this season of the year, we regret that it will be impossible to call on each elector personally, as we would like to do. We offer our apologies, and assure you that we will see as many voters as time will allow. We take this opportunity of respectfully soliciting the support of Fourth Kings voters on Election Day.
