Conference of N. B. and P. E. Island at St. Stephen.

(From our own correspondent.)
COMMITTEES:
Stationing Committee was the first to meet. Its duties will be very difficult this year, on account of the large number of men removing. It is composed of Revs. D. D. Currie, E. Evans, D. Chapman, J. S. Phinney, R. Duncan, and H. P. Cowperthwaite, Chairmen; and Rev. W. W. Brewer, W. Dobson, C. W. Dutcher, L. S. Johnson, R. W. Weddall and J. Burwash, representatives from Districts. The Missionary Committee also met. There were present W. E. Dawson, Esq., Charlottetown; Hon. A. McQueen, and other lay representatives. Rev. H. R. Baker preached an admirable sermon on Tuesday evening, and Rev. E. C. Turner preached a good sermon on Wednesday morning.

OPENING OF CONFERENCE.
This conference met for the second time in this place, on Wednesday, at 9 a. m. Rev. J. S. Phinney in the chair. Nearly sixty ministers answered to their names. After singing, and reading of Scripture by Secretary, prayer was offered by S. Smallwood and Dr. Pickard. The first business was the election of a president. On the first vote, Dr. Stewart received 20 and Rev. S. T. Teed 24, besides several scattering votes. Mr. Teed was declared elected on the second vote, having received 29, while Dr. Stewart only received 26. Rev. S. T. Teed is stationed at Tryon, P. E. Island. He has been in the ministry 27 years. He has occupied circuits in Guysboro, Margerie and Sydney, in Nova Scotia; Burin, Grand Bank and St. John's, in Newfoundland; and Greenwick, Baie de Verte and Fairville, in New Brunswick. He was Financial Secretary of the St. John District, from 76 to 79; and Chairman of the Chatham District from 79 to 82. On taking the chair, Mr. Teed said he felt disconcerted at the vote just taken, and because of the position which he was placed. He had never aspired to anything more than to do the work of a Methodist Minister. He hoped to have the sympathies and prayers of the brethren, and would do his best according to the ability which God had given him. Rev. R. W. Weddall, B. A., was re-elected Secretary by a large majority. On a second vote Rev. J. Reed was elected Journal Secretary, Revs. W. Harrison and H. R. Baker, A. B., receiving a good many votes.

Rev. L. Day and A. W. Day, father and son, Ministers of the East Maine Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, were introduced to the Conference by Rev. R. Duncan, and took seats upon the platform. Both made appropriate but brief speeches.
Rev. J. W. Fisher and Hicks were elected Assistant Secretaries, and Rev. Wm. Harrison was elected Assistant Journal Secretary.
Conference Sessions were fixed from nine to twelve and from two to five.
The following were appointed a Nominating Committee:—Revs. J. Shenton, E. Evans, J. Howie, E. Slackford, T. Marshall, and J. Burwash. Revs. J. A. Clarke, and C. W. Hamilton, were appointed letter writers for the Conference.
Robert Clements was received as a candidate for the ministry from the P. E. Island District.

MISSIONARY MEETING.
The President occupied the chair. On the platform were Revs. E. Evans, T. Marshall, D. D. Currie, R. Duncan, Dr. Stewart and Hon. A. McQueen. After singing, prayer was offered by Dr. Stewart. Rev. R. Duncan, Secretary-Treasurer, read the report. The total income for the year was nearly $160,000 being higher than ever before. The Conference of N. B. and P. E. I. had raised $5,429.59, being an advance of $367.59 over last year. Of this amount P. E. Island had raised over $1,800. The first speaker was Rev. T. Marshall, who spoke of the openings for preaching the Gospel in various lands. Rev. D. D. Currie spoke on prayer in its relation to the work of the Church. Hon. E. Evans made a good speech. Rev. E. Evans refused to speak on account of the lateness of the evening. There was a small audience. The platform of the Church was decorated with a great variety of choice flowers. The singing of several anthems greatly helped the meeting. The Benediction was pronounced by Rev. D. D. Currie.

THURSDAY MORNING.
After reading of Scripture, Rev. J. S. Phinney led in prayer. Rev. J. Reed read yesterday's journal.
Rev. J. J. Deinstadt made a request, which was granted, to have a committee appointed to look into a matter pertaining to himself. Revs. Dr. Pope, E. Evans, W. Dobson, D. Chapman, and J. Stenton were appointed such committee. Conference then proceeded to consider what young men were on probation for the ministry. Rev. A. D. McCully, D. D., was recommended to be received into full connection and ordained. His examination was appointed for Saturday morning. Revs. J. W. Tait and A. C. Bell were reported as having travelled two years. Revs. G. F. Dawson and Samuel Howard were reported as having travelled one year. The following young men were reported as candidates for the Ministry, Mr. Allan T. Taylor, from Sussex Circuit, Mr. Robert Clements from the Alberton Circuit. Next, the Conference proceeded to consider the question, who have died since last Conference? Before the answer was given, the hymn "Hark, a voice divides the sky" was sung, and prayer was offered by Revs. R. Duncan and J. A. Clarke, A. M.—the name of Rev. H. McKeown was reported. A suitable obituary was read by Rev. D. D. Currie. He was 54 years of age, and had been 27 years in the ministry. Mr. Currie spoke a few words, paying a tribute to the deceased's name. Rev. J. Reed referred to his zeal and activity in the Church of God. Rev. J. Shenton made some suitable remarks, and Rev. G. B. Payson spoke of the esteem and regard in which Mr. McKeown was held on some of the circuits where he had labored. Rev. R. Duncan mentioned that the deceased had spent two terms on this circuit, and is greatly revered by the people. Dr. Pickard mentioned hearing him at a Camp Meeting years ago, when he was fully persuaded that he felt the responsibilities of his position as a Minister. Mention has been made of his great pulpit and platform power. Rev. T. Marshall spoke of the deceased's interest in him when he came as a stranger into this land. Dr. Pope suggested that a letter of condolence be sent to Mrs. McKeown, and of sympathy to Revs. H. Daniel and F. Smallwood in their bereavement.
Report of Nominating Committee was received. The following supernumeraries were reported: Revs. B. Payson, H. Daniel, H. Pope, J. R. Narraway, A. M., S. W. Sprague, and W. Tweedie. St. John District—Rev. F. W. Harrison and C. Mills from the Fredericton District. Rev. H. Pickard, D. D., and J. Prince from the Sackville District, F. W. Smallwood and Rev. V. Jost.
There was no afternoon session.

The secretary of the Tuke fund declares that emigrants who have been assisted to go to America from Ireland by the fund have been sent direct to relatives or friends in that country and been provided with money on landing.
The Wexford borough club has chosen, by a unanimous vote, the brother of Mr. Redmond, the Irish national league's representative in Australia, as the candidate of the national party for the seat in the British House of Commons for the borough made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Healy.

At a meeting of British ship-owners in London, on the 28th, opinions were received from eminent English counsel, which were decidedly against Count De Lesseps' monopoly of the work of constructing the canal across the Isthmus of Suez. A committee of ship-owners will forthwith demand power to construct a second canal.
The BELLIVEAU MINING Co.—The St. John Telegraph says it is understood that a proposition will be made to stockholders of this company at their meeting of the 9th prox., by which an offer will be made to fully develop the mines at no expense to the company, unless the development is successful. This offer was made to the directors and declined.
Mr. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, replying in the House of Commons, on the 28th, to a question of Mr. Cowen as to whether it was true that pauper emigrants had been sent to America with the knowledge and consent of the Government, said reports about the landing of paupers in America were greatly exaggerated. He stated that the steamer Anchoria took no inmates of any work-house; that all emigrants sent by the commissioners had been supplied with funds; no paupers had been sent out by boards or guardians. He also stated that no definite offer for sending emigrants to Canada had been received from the Dominion Government. Mr. Trevelyan also said that telegrams from America on the subject should be received with great caution. He said the Furness took 421 emigrants, of whom only five families had been in the work-house, and in each of those cases friends in America had offered them homes. He had himself seen all the tickets of the emigrants, including railway tickets from the other side. They had also checks for the full amount of landing allowance, which for adults is £1, and for children 10s. each. Mr. Trevelyan said that questions relating to the action of the American government in the matter should be addressed to the foreign office, as his business was simply to ascertain whether the administrative details of the Irish emigration were carried out as far as possible. Mr. Lowther, Conservative, gave notice that he would at an early day call attention to the subject.
