

Police Restraint Breaks With Raid on Europeans

Police Presents Today 3 Honorary Degrees

Three honorary doctor of law degrees will be conferred on three prominent Islanders today as St. Dunstons' University observes St. Dunstons' commencement exercises at the university gymnasium this afternoon.

Those to receive degrees are: Chief Justice of Prince Edward Island Hon. Thane A. Campbell, Dr. J. A. MacDonald of Souris, Mother Frances Loyola, CSM, superior general of the Sisters of Martha of P.E.I.

PM WILL SEE PARK PROBLEM

Prime Minister John Diefenbaker may be taken on an unscheduled sight seeing tour when he arrives in the province Thursday.

Mrs. A. Walthen Gaudet suggested at last night's City Council meeting that as federal aid has been refused for the Victoria Park breastwork, arrangements are being made to have the Prime Minister and the two island members for Queens take to the park and show it the situation.

World Market Is Suggested By Pearson

Mr. Pearson with election day five weeks away, said "There is a tide of opinion sweeping the country in favor of his Liberal party."

18 Persons Killed, Another 54 Wounded

ALGIERS (AP) — Algerian nationalist killers from the Casbah broke off their self-restraint Monday under goading of European Secret Army terrorists and went on a killing rampage. Authorities said at least 16 Europeans were killed and 54 wounded, and the casualty figure would go higher.

Spanish Prince Weds Princess From Greece

ATHENS (AP) — Princess Sophie of Greece and Prince Juan Carlos of Spain were wed twice here Monday, then received the thunderous cheers of more than 1,000 persons.

Mayor A. Walthen Gaudet, led the honor 'at night' of receiving the 'Canadian Highway Safety award' for the second year in a row. The award is presented to the city having no traffic fatalities during the year.

Some confusion arose between councilors as to whether it had been decided previously that an incinerator would be purchased immediately or the land would be used as an open dump.

City Purchases 65 Acres To Provide New Dump Site

By STERLING KNEEBONE, Guardian-Press Staff Writer. Approximately 65 acres of land located in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, was purchased by the Charlottetown City Council last night as the site for a new city dump. The purchase price was $9,500.

Americans Fire 11th Test Shot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Word of the 11th United States nuclear blast in the current Pacific test series was released Monday a few hours after President Kennedy received an optimistic report on chances for a ban on atomic weapons.

Human Element Stressed As Prince Opens Meeting

MONTREAL (CP) — Prince Philip said Monday the effectiveness of all industrial and community planning must be judged by the extent to which it eliminates human misery.

Diefenbaker Stresses Subsidizing Industry

By DAVE MCINTOSH, Montreal, Que. (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker stressed the need for a flat farm-lands program through the flat farmlands of the south shore of the Lawrence River Monday.

Belgrade 5-Year Term

BELGRADE (Reuters) — Milovan Djilas, 51, once a leading Communist, was sentenced Monday by a Yugoslav court to five years in prison for disclosure of state secrets.

Maritime Electric Plant Gets Safety Award

At Maritime Electric Company Limited's Cumberland Street plant yesterday, the Canadian Industrial Safety Association presented a plaque to employees of the plant whose safety record showed that during the past year no time was lost as a result of on-the-job accidents.

Gold Smuggling Case Opens Against Major

By ARNOLD MACKENZIE — OTTAWA (CP) — Legal manoeuvres to set aside a gold-smuggling case against Major William Allan Platt were rejected Monday before a court martial and the major entered a plea of not guilty.

Candidate List Sets New Mark

The number of candidates for the June 18 election reached 538 Monday, passing the 500 mark of the 1957 general election.

IFK Calls Session Over Laotian Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy Monday called a special meeting of congressional leaders both parties to discuss the tense situation in Southeast Asia.

U.S. Astronaut Says He Was Loser As He'd

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm Scott Carpenter, scheduled to attempt this Saturday to become the second U.S. astronaut to orbit the earth, says that as a youngster he was a loser with no sense of responsibility.

Dijlas Given 5-Year Term

BELGRADE (Reuters) — Milovan Djilas, 51, once a leading Communist, was sentenced Monday by a Yugoslav court to five years in prison for disclosure of state secrets.

Maritime Electric Plant Gets Safety Award

At Maritime Electric Company Limited's Cumberland Street plant yesterday, the Canadian Industrial Safety Association presented a plaque to employees of the plant whose safety record showed that during the past year no time was lost as a result of on-the-job accidents.

Laotian Gov't Said Elated By U.S. Moves

VIENTIANE (AP) — With United States peace efforts apparently making little headway, Laotian government sources said Monday they are elated by prospects of American marines entering nearby Thailand.

Maclean Pinned For Prime Minister

OTTAWA (CP) — The Minister of Fisheries, P. L. Maclean, was pinned for Prime Minister Diefenbaker on Monday when he addressed the annual adventure in citizenship luncheon here.

U.S. Astronaut Says He Was Loser As He'd

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm Scott Carpenter, scheduled to attempt this Saturday to become the second U.S. astronaut to orbit the earth, says that as a youngster he was a loser with no sense of responsibility.

Dijlas Given 5-Year Term

BELGRADE (Reuters) — Milovan Djilas, 51, once a leading Communist, was sentenced Monday by a Yugoslav court to five years in prison for disclosure of state secrets.

Maritime Electric Plant Gets Safety Award

At Maritime Electric Company Limited's Cumberland Street plant yesterday, the Canadian Industrial Safety Association presented a plaque to employees of the plant whose safety record showed that during the past year no time was lost as a result of on-the-job accidents.

U.S. Astronaut Says He Was Loser As He'd

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm Scott Carpenter, scheduled to attempt this Saturday to become the second U.S. astronaut to orbit the earth, says that as a youngster he was a loser with no sense of responsibility.