

Foul Conspiracy to Murder.

TWENTY-ONE PERSONS BROUGHT UP IN DUBLIN COURT—ALLEGED STRONG ORGANIZATION FOR ASSASSINATION—DAMAGING TESTIMONY OF ONE OF THE FENIAN BROTHERHOOD.

DUBLIN, Jan. 20.—Twenty-one persons, including Town Councillor Carey, all charged with conspiracy to murder Government officers, were arraigned at the Police Court this morning. The courtroom was densely crowded and the streets were filled with spectators. The police arrangements for preventing any disturbance or attempted rescue were perfect. There was great excitement when Mr. Murphy, the counsel for the Government, said that he would prove to the court the actual existence in the city of a strong and well directed organization for the purpose of assassination. This society or union had for its special object the murder of officers of the Government, not only those who were known to be hostile to such secret organizations, but of all who were concerned in maintaining order under the laws. The prisoners now at the bar were members of this illegal and murderous organization. A witness named Farrell deposed that he was a Fenian, a sworn member of the Brotherhood, and that he had attended drill meetings of the organization in question, of which the prisoners were also members.

Farrell further testified that a number of picked men, chosen for their hatred to the English Government and their determination to murder its representatives in Ireland, formed a special assassination committee, which gave its instructions to the secret agents, who were each sworn to carry out the orders given by this committee. A sensation was caused in court when Farrell said that he received a revolver, with instructions to stop the Chief Secretary's carriage, and that Jim Kelly and Joe Brady, also members, were to do the rest. The police court is closely guarded, and detectives in private clothes are moving among the crowd. A detachment of soldiers is under orders for the court. Farrell's evidence is a veritable scare.

In answer to counsel, he said the Chief Secretary's carriage was allowed to pass by mistake. Farrell said he was asked on the day of the Piffenix Park murder when he would stop work, and he answered: "Half-past seven." Brady said that was too late for the job. Brady, Hanlon and Kelly committed the outrage on Field, the juror. His shooting was done at the bidding of the assassination committee. This committee met in the greatest possible secrecy, and issued its instructions by signs, also giving to its agents the necessary instruments for the work they were ordered to do. Farrell is still on the stand.

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White Excessive or Painful Menstruation, Green Sickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, Pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected.
