Minor Hockey Week Opens

Minor Hockey Week began on Saturday and special ceremonies are being held across Canada (we must have nodded once or twice when the provincial reports were coming in for we missed New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island). The minor hockey program is an important one for young Canada. It is perhaps young boys' most beloved sport and for that reason can be used to advantage to inculcate in the participants worth-while attributes of character that will stand in good stead when they become adult citizens.

It is important therefore that as many boys as possible be persuaded to join the minor hockey program, whether or not they have the budding genius of a Howe, a Hull, or a Mahovlich. Even if they will never make acceptable hockey players, they will nevertheless learn the importance of self-control, co-operation, and good sportsmanship in general, providing the right leaders are chosen for their guidance.

These are the most important things: that they enjoy the game and learn the useful techniques of live and let live. Of secondary importance is the fact that some of them will develop into senior and intermediate hockey players, and one or two in a thousand may even hit the dizzy heights of the NHL like Forbes Kennedy, Bucko Trainor, and the late Charlie Cahill. These are only by-products, however, of a program which is in the business of manufacturing not so much hockey players as solid citizens of the future. Then, of course, there is the matter of keeping small fry out of mischief. As the adage goes: "If you want to keep a kid out of hot water, put him on ice."

Five Goal Spree Is Tops

Alan Gillis's five-goal splurge at Civic Stadium Friday night tops all other light-blinking sprees in the ISHL this winter. Only a week ago "Smelt" fired four goals in a game. This boy, one of the cleanest operators in the game, was noted only for his speed for a number of years. He travels like a frightened jack-rabbit). Of late he's picked up some new tricks, and apparently a more potent shot. Bob Sloan, airforce boy with the Kensington Bombers, seems to have bagged more goals in a game than anyone else around, however. Week before last against Hillcrest Strikes he scored nine goals which may be a record for Island Intermediate Hockey. We remember Taylor, who later made the NHL, scored nine goals (we think) in a midget game for the Ontario championship. If we remember correctly, the game was in Fort William.

Wayne Matheson, Summerside boy now attending Prince of Wales College, established a record for Summerside curlers, skipping two consecutive rinks which won the Island title. Last year he went to Halifax for the Dominion Schoolboy Championships. This year he will go to Guelph, Ontario. We remember last year Wayne, throwing his last rock, had hardly let the handle go before he started a kind of victory polka signifying he had won. How he knew so early what his rock was going to do is beyond us. Last Saturday after throwing his final stone, he said immediately to his rink mates that he was positive it was the right weight. And it was. Curlers will tell you rocks fall away unaccountably and sometimes do not curl as they should. Wayne's apparently follow through as the young skip intends them to do.

Last Week's Bouquet

"Smelt" Gillis fired five goals
and rates a star,
That fellow with more poundage
would go far;
But this cocky guy named Wayne
Song of victory's his refrain.
A bouquet we'll give him, and Churchill's cigar.

Last Week's Brickbat

The rink promoters naturally have a yen
To fill the rinks again, and yet again.
Now this is nothing new,
But very hard to do
By starting games at 25 to 10.

Carmen Basilio Glad Not Fighting Tiger

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — The energetic, bespectacled fellow peered up at the ring and commented:

"I'm glad I don't have to fight this guy. He looks too strong.''

A few years ago nobody would have looked too strong to Carmen Basilio, who once held the world welterweight and middleweight championships.

This time the retired, professional - appearing Basilio was watching Dick Tiger, the world middleweight champion from Nigeria, train for his return title fight with Gene Fullmer. The fight is scheduled for Las Vegas, Nev., Feb. 23.

Basilio retired nearly two years ago but there was a healing, red cut under his right eye.

"This you wouldn't believe," said Basilio. "In all of the years I fought I never was cut under the eye. This cut I got from playing basketball."

BASKETBALL AT 35

What was he doing playing basketball at 35?

"I teach physical education at Lemoyne College fiive days a week," he sad. "I run more now than I did when I was fighting. I figure I run from three to five miles a day."

Teaching is just one facet of the new Basilio.

He also is a public relations representative for a brewery in New York, a partner with a brother in a sausage factory, and a much sought public speaker .He is articulate and witty.

He still is an avid hunter and fisherman and tries to get away as much as he can during the summer.

"I'm a long way from the onion fields and I owe it all to boxing," said Basilio. "The ring has been good to me. I've had my share of titles, thrills and making big money. I'm not making that kind of money any more but because of boxing I'm getting along nicely."

Carmen follows boxing as a fan and often travels to the big fights.

"That Tiger is a real good fighter," said Basilio. "He beat Fullmer and I couldn't lick Fullmer in two fights.

"When you beat Fullmer you've accomplished something. Anyone who beats Gene has to be a real good fighter. Fullmer does so many awkward things that it upsets you. It may be the wrong moves to make but they're right for Fullmer. I couldn't do much with him because he just upset my timing.

"Tiger is 33 but it looks like he has a couple of years to cash in on his title. He's in great condition and punches real good to the body. That's the sign of a good fighter—When they can throw those hot pokers to the body and soften a guy up.

"Fullmer has a chance against him but he'll have to be at peak condition and ready to go all out for 15 rounds.

"I'm glad I don't have to fight either one of them now .I like it the way it is."

Sum-Hi Edges Montague 6-4

MONTAGUE — A cleanly played and fast hockey game on Friday night at the Montague rink saw Summerside High School edge Montague Regional High 6-4 before a large crowd of enthusiastic fans.

Summerside opened the scoring at the 6:37 mark of the first period and followed with a second four minutes later. Two more goals later on in the period sent the Prince County boys into the second period with a 4-0 margin.

Montague came along in the middle session with three tallies to close the gap but the tight defensive network of the Summerside team combined with the fine goal-tending by Gary Somers for the visitors sent the Montague team into the third period still trailing.

In the third period Summerside counted for two while Montague picked up a lone tally to send the winners home with a 2-goal margin.

Referees were Bob Mills of Montague and Charles Morrison of Summerside, who meted out twelve penalties, seven to Summerside and five to Montague.

Hampshire Keeps Streak Intact

B. Johnston paced unbeaten Hampshire Bulldogs to a 7-3 victory over Nine Mile Creek Bulldogs in a regular league game at North River rink Saturday night. Other goals for the winners were scored by Dingwell, Doiron and B. Balderson.

P. Smith, B. MacDonald and D. MacEachern counted the Nine Mile Creek goals.

This evening Cornwall and Hampshire tangle at North River rink with action slated to get underway at 8.30.

Welshmen Capture Spiel; S'side Lads Finish Second

Prince of Wales College curlers reign today as the schoolboy champions of Prince Edward Island.

The Welshmen assured themselves of the trip to Guelph, Ontario and the Dominion finals by downing a stubborn Summerside High School 12-9 Saturday morning. The triumph put the Charlottetown students out of reach of either Summerside or Montague and earned them the Pepsi-Cola trophy and the right to represent Prince Edward Island in Dominion play which swings into action February 18.

Summerside boys copped the runner-up spot by downing Montague 9-8 in a thriller that was decided by the westerners' single on the tenth and final end.

Wayne Matheson who skipped Summerside High to the crown one year ago did the masterminding for the Welshmen in this competition. Wayne found the going tough against his hometown pals who came into the championships as decided underdogs. Young Bob Keizer really made the collegians work to keep their win record intact and give them undisputed claim to the schoolboy curling crown.

GOOD COMEBACK

Keizer and his associates found themselves trailing 8-1 after four ends and it looked like Charlotttetown in a breeze. However, the Summerside youngsters refused to concede defeat and after seven ends they had made it an 8-6 match.

When Welshmen composed themselves and chalked up a big 3 in the eighth, Keizer and his pals were counted out by the onlookers. But Bob rallied his rink and they had three rocks counting when play ended the ninth. That sent them into the final end hoping for at least two that would get the affair into an extra end. However, Matheson's rink, throwing last rock, could not be denied in the tenth as they put a singleton up on the scoreboard to win the game and the provincial championship.

Prince of Wales lads finished the competition with three triumphs, two over Summerside and one over Montague. The other scheduled Montague-PWC match was cancelled when it was known that its result would have no effect on the standings. Summerside concluded things on a 2-2 basis, beating Montague in both meetings. The Kings County lads were winless in three starts.

TERRIFIC FIGHT

But Montague staged a terrific fight Saturday afternoon in an attempt to garner a decision. Bob Keizer's Summerside quartet held a 5-1 margin over Roger Clair's foursome in the battle for runner-up honors. Roger and his companions, went to town in the next three ends, counting two, one and three and gaining a 7-5 advantage entering the seventh. But Keizer squared matters at 7-7 in the seventh and grabbed singles in the eighth and tenth. The best Clair could manage was a singleton in the ninth and Summerside was home on top 9-8 and with a most respectable 2-2 showing in the double round robin.

Presentations toook place immediately following the Montague- Summerside skirmish with the coveted Pepsi-Cola trophy going to Welshmen's Wayne Matheson. In addition each of the winners received trophies in the form of clocks while the second place Summerside boys each was presented with a compass trophy.

Members of the Welshmen are Mark MacPherson, first stone, Rundell Seaman, second stone, Barry Willis, mate and Wayne Matheson, as skip, coach Bob LeClair.

Comprising Summerside foursome were Bob Keizer, skip, Dave Matheson, mate, Garry Paquet, second stone and Jim Rankin, lead.

Montague, skipped by Roger Clair, had Larry Fraser as mate, Steve Clarkson, second stone and Charles Rafuse, lead.

At the banquet following the final match, Gordon Bennett, secretary- treasurer of The P.E.I. Curling Association presided. Speakers included Gerry Riva, Pepsi-Cola representative, Halifax, Rundell Seaman, local Pepsi-Cola dealer, F. R. McLaine, local representative for schoolboy curling on the Dominion Curling Association, Hon. A. B. MacRae, minister of agriculture and the three coaches, Bob LeClair, Eric Johnstone, and George Nicholson.

Habs Still Tied For 2nd; Defeat Black Hawks 3-1

CHICAGO (CP)—A two-goal last-period spurt enabled Montreal Canadiens to defeat league-leading Black Hawks 3-1 Sunday night and remain tied for second place in the National Hockey League.

The victory moved the Canadiens, along with the Toronto Maple Leafs, to within two points of Chicago.

Jean Beliveau, Billy Hicke and Bobby Rousseau scored the Montreal goals. Defenceman Bob Turner was the lone Chicago marksman, giving the Hawks a temporary 1-1 tie in the second period.

Beliveau's goal, his second in as many games and his ninth of the season, was also his 301st regular-season tally. It was scored while Chicago's Pierre Pilote was in the penalty box early in the second period.

Beliveau also picked up an assist on Rousseau's goal, which was scored into an empty net with three seconds left to play. Beliveau now has a league-leading total of 35 assists. Minor Hockey Week Gets Underway Sat.

This is Minor Hockey Week. The big week for all young hockey aspirants opened Saturday night in Charlottetown as well as the many other centres across Canada and continues until Friday.

Here in the City the week's activities, under the supervision of Brigadier W.W. (Bill) Reid, will be highlighted by a Minor Hockey Night Wednesday. In this affair eight teams selected from the Minor League will give a sample of what goes on during the hockey season on Saturdays and other days of the week.

There will be periods of Paperweight, Pee Wee and Bantam hocky plus a short Midget game followed by a skate for all. The evening's activities get underway at 7.30 p.m. and boys accompanied by adults will be admitted to the night's activities free.

The City's minor program has grown in leaps and bounds since its inception in 1946 when Brig. Reid along with a few volunteers organized the program. At first games were played on open air rinks but this was soon found to be anything but practical due to weather and shortness of season.

Finally through the cooperation of Capt. Carl F. Burke and his arena management the Minor program was moved to the Sports Arena and now operates under excellent conditions all day every Saturday from Nov. 1st to April 1st annually.

The City Minor Hockey Leagues are operated with a completely voluntary staff of officials and coaches and approximately 850 youngsters take advantage of this program.

So when Wednesday's Minor Hockey Night program rolls around parents are urged to heed the Minor Hockey slogan 'Don't send your boy to the arena, take him and stay to see him play''.

MATHIS IN COURT

BOSTON (AP) — An 18-year-old girl student has accused Johnny Mathis of slapping her face when she attempted to take his picture after a show Saturday night. Mathis pleaded not guilty in South Boston district court Monday to a charge of assault and battery. He was released on $200 bail and the case was continued until Feb. 25.

STONE-AGE HOME

Russell Cave near Bridgeport, Ala. ,was used as a ready-made home by Stone Agers from about 7,000 BC.

Pole Vault Jump Highlights Games

BOSTON (AP) — John Belitza is the sixth man in history to pole vault 16 feet. The University of Maryland senior highlighted an evening of surprises at the 74th Boston AA games Saturday night when he vaulted 16 feet, ½ inch—first college undergraduate to accomplish the feat.

Dave Tork and John Uelses, two members of the 16-foot club, failed at 15-6. Tork had done 16-2½ in Toronto Friday night.

Less than three hours later C. K. Yang, the decathlon wonder, became the seventh and highest vaulter ever with a 16-3¼ vault at Portland, Ore.

Belitza, 21, made three tries at 16-3½—which would have outdone Finland ace Pentti Nikula's 16-2½ world record—but dislodged the bar on the way down each time.

Bill Crothers of University of Toronto repeated at the winner of the Lapham 1,000, finishing 10 yards ahead of Ernie Cunliffe of Stanford, the 1961 winner, who set the pact until the final lap. Richard Smith of College Park, Md., was third. Winning time was 2:08.1

It was the relentless Crothers' 13th cup race in 16 tries, and could not be rated any surprise.

The Hunter Mile went to Vic Zwolak of Villanova who burst from the pack at the three quarters mark and won by 20 yards in 4:09.8. Hilke Van de Wal of Hamilton, Ont., nosed out Rodney Soderberg of the University of Tennessee for second. The time was 4:09.8.

In Portland, Ore., Yang, a 29-year-old native of Formsa, known in track circles until Saturday night only as a decathlon star, soared over the bar at 16 feet, 3¼ inches at the Oregon indoor invitational track and field meet.

NOT RECOGNIZED

That's an unofficial indoor record and won't count as a world standard because only outdoor performances are recognized internationally.

Yang's best in previous vaults was 14-7.

Yang used a glass fibre pole which he gave much of the credit.

Wings Down Bruins 5-3; Howe Triggers Winner

BOSTON (AP) — Iron man Gordie Howe, frustrated on 10 earlier shots, scored on an assist from his goalie with just over three minutes remaining as Detroit edged Boston 5-3 in a National Hockey League game Sunday night.

The goal was Howe's 22nd of the season and 524th of his long career. He picked up the puck at centre ice when it was cleared by goalie Hank Bassen, broke through the defence, faked a shot to the far side of Boston netminder Ed Johnston and flipped a neat 20-footer into the near corner.

When Johnston was pulled in favor of a sixth attacker, Norman Ulman scored an insurance goal for the winners with just one second to play.

MAKES 37 SAVES

Johnston made 37 saves in a losing cause and his principal victim was Howe until the relentless star connected.

The Red Wings led twice, 1-0 and 2-1, but the Bruins scrambled back and took the lead on Johnny Bucyk's 21st goal of the season before Val Fonteyne tied matters just before the end of the middle period.

Alex Delvecchio and Parker MacDonald got the other Detroit scores ,while Jerry Toppazini tallied twice for the losers.

Charlie Burns of the Bruins suffered a possible broken nose from an injury early in the opening period and had to sit out the rest of the contest.

The goalie's assist was the first awarded on Boston Garden ice since March 2, 1944, when Bert Gardner got one assisting Bob Towle against Toronto.

Hull's Injury Not Serious

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago Black Hawks said Sunday the injury suffered by Bobby Hull in Saturday night's hockey victory over Detroit Red Wings apparently is not serious.

A spokesman said x-rays at a Chicago hospital indicated the injury was a charley horse. Hull left the ice under his own power at Detroit after scoring in a second period rally. Chicago won the game 3-0.

Hull was out of the lineup for Sunday night's National Hockey League game between the Hawks and Montreal Canadiens.

Maple Leafs Top N.Y. Rangers 4-2

NEW YORK (CP) — Frank Mahovlich increased his National Hockey League leading goal output to 26 Sunday night as Toronto Maple Leafs defeated New York Rangers 4-2.

Camille Henry and Andy Bathgate spoiled Don Simmons' bid for his first shutout in the final two minutes.

Red Kelly, Dave Keon, and Dick Duff scored the other Toronto goals.

Ranger goalie Gump Worsley had another busy night. He made 50 saves for a total of 143 in his last three games.

Henry's goal, at 18:31 of the final period, marked the fifth straight game in which the little left winger has scored. Since rejoining the Rangers following a two-week rest for a stomach disorder, Henry has scored six goals in five games.

SCORES 20TH GOAL

For Keon, it was his 20th goal of the season. Both Kelly and Duff notched their 11th. It was Henry's 18th and Bathgate's 23rd.

The loss, following a tie and a win in the Rangers' two previous games, disappointed the fourth straight Sunday sellout crowd of 15,925.

Simmons, the masked Toronto goaltender who had a total of 23 saves, seemed sure of his shutout until the closing minutes. Then Henry flicked a shot by him and, moments later, Bathgate fooled him with a dribbler that bounced into the net for the game's final goal.

First period. No scoring Penalties—Brewer 16:55; Langlois 19:39.

Second period: 1. Toronto, Kelly 11 (Nevin, Brewer) 6:13; 2. Toronto, Keon 20 (Brewer) 13:54. Penalties—None.
