Guatemalan Government Fighting For Life As "Liberation Army" Advances

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
A government which says it is not Communist but which has been suspected because it accepts support from the Communists is fighting for its life in the Central American republic of Guatemala.

Landless Farmers Union. These two groups have a combined membership of more than 100,000. Arbenz first became prominent in 1944 as chief organizer of the army revolt which overthrew dictator Jorge Ubico that year. He was inaugurated president in 1951.

Anti-communist invaders trying to topple President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's Communist-supported regime said Sunday their invading forces are well into the country and striking toward the pan American highway.

Five Die In Liverpool Fire

LIVERPOOL, N.S. (CP)—A 30-year-old man died Sunday—Father's Day—along with his wife and three of his children as he tried to lead them to safety from their burning home. The body of Tom Wills was found with that of one child he was apparently trying to lead to a window and escape. A young eye-witness said earlier Wills had arrived home after the fire started and rushed into the burning house. But later it was learned that the man who rushed into the house was a volunteer fireman who spotted the blaze as he came home from work and attempted a rescue. He was not injured.

U.N. Security Council Calls For End Of Fighting In Guatemala

Chief Of Staff Chats With Local Officers

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United Nations Security Council Sunday adopted a French resolution calling for an end to the Guatemalan bloodshed after the Soviet Union vetoed a proposal to refer the matter to the Inter-American Organization for consideration.

The council approved the Brazilian-Colombian resolution to refer Guatemala's complaint of aggression to the Inter-American Organization by a 10-to-1 vote but Russia's negative ballot was ruled a veto and the resolution was killed.

The proposal by France's Henri Hoppenot, which was passed unanimously, also called on all UN members to refrain from aiding any participants in the fighting. Russia's veto on the Colombian-Brazilian resolution was her 60th since the Security Council was formed.

GUATEMALA demanded the council send a fact-finding mission immediately to investigate air attacks and invasion of the country. Semyon Tsarapkin, Soviet delegate, replied that Lodge had attempted to divert attention from the aggression. He said he could prove the aggression was provoked and armed by the United States. He added the Soviet Union feels the Security Council should act against aggression anywhere, even in Central America.

Blames Rich, Powerful Interests
MONTREAL (CP)—The Guatemalan consul general to Canada Saturday blamed "rich and powerful foreign interests" for sponsoring an invasion of his country. He appealed to the Canadian government and people to "raise their voice to stop this terrible aggression."

ELECTRIC HOT PLATE BLAMED

An electric hot plate which had been left on a stove had burned through its stand and was blamed for the fire. Wills was the father of six children. He died along with his wife Phyllis, 34, Sharon, 10, Gray, 8, and Freddy, 7. Two other children, Douglas, 13, and Stanley, 11, smashed their way to freedom through a first-storey window and a sister, Patricia, 9, was spending the night at a neighbor's home.

AWAKENED BY CAT

Fifteen-year-old Celia Delaney, who lives nearby, said she was awakened at 2:30 a.m. by the cries of her cat. When she went to the door to put him out, she saw the flames spouting from the Wills' home. Screaming toward the house, she ran half-clad toward the house. She said she could hear the children trying to break through the windows. She helped smash the glass and assist them out. Firemen said the "house was a mass of flames when we arrived."

Army Installations Inspected By Lt. Gen. Simonds

Army installations in this area were inspected yesterday and Saturday by Lieut. Gen. G. G. Simonds, C.B., C.B.E., D.S.O., C.D., Chief of the General Staff, who is presently on a tour of Eastern Canadian centres. He was accompanied on his visit by Major Gen. S. F. Clark, C.B.E., C.D., Army Quartermaster General, and Major Gen. E. C. Plow, C.B.E., D.S.O., C.D., officer commanding Eastern Command. The party paid official calls on His Honor Lieutenant Governor T. W. L. Prowse and Premier A. W. Matheson, before inspecting the Ordnance Grounds, the Armouries and the Rifle Range. Just prior to a private luncheon at The Charlottetown, Gen. Simonds was a guest at the United Services Officers Club and after an afternoon of sightseeing was a guest of the Garrison Officers Mess at the Armouries. This was followed by a dinner at The Charlottetown attended by Provincial and civic authorities. The General left here with his party yesterday morning for New Brunswick where he will inspect Army centres at Moncton, Sussex, Saint John and Gagetown.

TENDERS OPENED FOR GRADING OF TRANS-CANADA HIGHWAY SECTIONS

Tenders for the grading of three sections of the Trans-Canada Highway were opened Saturday in the office of the Hon. Douglas MacKinnon, Minister of Highways. Contracts will be let after consultation with Ottawa. The Minister advised those tendering that the time clause and penalty would be strictly enforced. The tenders were as follows: Cornwall-New Haven: Poole and Beer, $83,420; Curran and Briggs Ltd., $88,150; Island Construction Ltd., $91,145; Morrison & MacRae Ltd., $90,476; MacRae Construction Co. Ltd., $84,400; Matheson & MacMillan, $85,635. New Haven-Churchill: Poole & Beer, $97,200; Curran & Briggs, $91,550; Island Construction $96,905; Morrison & MacRae, $89,100.

Three Sisters Wed In Triple Ceremony

OTTAWA (CP)—Three beautiful Peruvian sisters, their triple marriage carrying Pope Pius' personal blessing, honeymooned today in various parts of the United States and Canada after their capital's most spectacular society wedding in many years. The flashing-eyed South American belles, daughters of Peru's ambassador German Fernandez-Concha, not only provided Ottawa with their first triple altar ceremony Saturday but brought out the cream of diplomatic row and many high Canadian officials. The three brides, Victoria, 23, Luzmila, 22, and Amparo, 21, wore identical gowns of ivory lace and satin for the ceremony and carried bouquets of white roses. One of the most prominent guests, wife of Peru's president, Delgado de Osorio, was escorted into the church by Dr. Roque Belido - Tagle of Lima, Luzmila's bridegroom. Mrs. Fernandez-Concha arrived with her other two prospective sons-in-law, Peter Bonardelli of Montreal, who married Victoria, and Angel Carnevale, Amparo's Venezuelan groom.

Bevan Would Be Red If In China

CARDIFF, Wales (AP)—Aneurin Bevan said Saturday he would be a Communist if he lived in China. The 56-year-old Labor MP told a rally of South Wales miners: "If the South Wales miners were in China they would be Chinese Communists. Of course you would know I would be." Bevan tossed out the remark in the midst of an attack on American policy toward Red China. "We think the Chinese are entitled to have their revolution if they want it," he said. "I am not preaching anti-Americanism," he added. "I don't believe in it. I don't believe a socialist should be anti any nation. There are many millions of Americans who think as we do."

Blames Liquor And Tobacco For Ills

OTTAWA (CP)—A retired United Church minister Saturday blamed liquor and tobacco for some of the ills. Rev. Dan McIvor, 81-year-old Liberal member for Fort William, told the Commons that Canadians spend $888,000,000 a year on liquor and $465,000,000 on tobacco. "Liquor was a cause of mental illness, tuberculosis and the cause of a lot of heart-burning," he said. "The greatest cause of heart trouble is the use of tobacco," he added. Clarie Gillis (CCF—Cape Breton South) said drinking and smoking still are matters of individual choice. "You can drink yourself to death, if you want to. And you can smoke yourself to death. Some people think it's better to smoke here than in the hereafter."

Former President Truman Undergoes Emergency Operation; Condition Good

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Harry Truman underwent an emergency operation early Sunday for removal of his gall bladder and appendix. Dr. Wallace Graham, Truman's personal physician, later described the condition of the 70-year-old former president as excellent. "He had a gangrenous gall bladder," Dr. Graham said. "He had been in considerable pain since Friday night when he first became ill but he wouldn't ride to the hospital in an ambulance." Truman didn't want "all that commotion" and hospital attendants said he refused an offer of a wheel chair to take him to his room. The former president was taken to surgery at 1:30 a.m. CDT and was returned to his room at 4 a.m. but Dr. Graham said the actual operation took little more than an hour. Mrs. Truman and her sister, Mrs. George Wallace, waited anxiously just outside the surgery room during the operation and remained at the hospital until dawn. GIFT FROM DAUGHTER Mrs. Truman returned to the hospital after a few hours sleep. She brought a Father's Day gift from daughter Margaret, who is scheduled to make her debut in the legitimate theatre tonight at the Pocono playhouse at Mountain Home, Pa. Dr. Graham said his patient probably will leave the hospital in about 10 days if his recovery follows a typical course. The usually vigorous ex-president first became ill at the outdoor Starlight theatre Friday night. He had gone there to surprise the audience by playing a brief part in the play "Call My Blame" based on the career of one of Truman's favorite persons, Perle Mesta, Washington hostess and former ambassador to Luxembourg. Mr. Bell also said an item of $25,450 seems high for administrative expenses of the Newfoundland fisheries board, particularly since it no longer is connected with marketing. Mr. Pickersgill replied that the marketing functions have been transferred to the trade department but the board still carries out the functions of the federal fisheries department in Newfoundland.

8 Inches Rain In 10-Minute Storm

GOES, Holland (Reuters)—A freak 10-minute storm Saturday deposited eight inches of rain and hailstones, some of which weighed nine to 14 pounds. In addition to widespread damage to crops, the storm washed rats out of the local sewers and sent them scampering about in the streets.

TO PROCLAIM REGALTY

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Pope will conclude a Marian congress here Nov. 1 by proclaiming the regality of the Virgin Mary. The ceremony, to be held on the fourth anniversary of the proclamation of the virgin's assumption into Heaven, will be marked by the coronation of a statue of Mary in St. Peter's square.

Plan Huge Experimental Fish Plant

Quay. It was expected to help west-coast fisheries. However, the knowledge would be open to the fishing industry as a whole. A Wesley Stuart (L—Charlotte) and T. G. W. Ashbourne (L—Grand Falls White Bay-Labrador) expressed support for such projects to help the fishing industry produce better products that would sell more readily. INVESTIGATE PACKAGING In addition to experiments in new methods of drying fish, the plant also would investigate methods of packaging and preparation of fisheries products. The plant was not a commercial venture. Mrs. Fairclough said this seemed to be the type of work usually done by industrial firms themselves. She wondered if the knowledge will be available to the whole industry. Mr. Pickersgill said the experiments are primarily related to the salt cod industry and therefore
