A LIBERAL SCHEME MISCARRIES

As to elections, it has been the settled policy of the Liberals to work together, those in power in the Province helping their partisans in the Dominion and those in power in the Dominion assisting their friends of the Province. In vulgar parlance, it was a case of "you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours." To carry this policy into successful operation the Liberals have not scrupled to tinker with the laws. For example, the various Provincial lists of electors, widely different as they were, were adopted for use in Dominion elections. It was hoped and believed that their Provincial friends would be able so to manipulate the electorate, striking off Government officials in one Province leaving them on in another, having a "high qualification" here and a "low qualification" there, broad franchises, narrow franchises and medium franchises to suit their purposes, that the Provincial Governments would materially aid the Dominion Government when the inevitable hour of struggle with the people should come. The Dominion Ministers, on their part, were always conveniently at hand to help their Provincial friends with promises of Dominion works if the people of the districts affected would only "vote right," and threats that the works would be "hindered" or "stopped" if they should dare to "vote wrong." In this way a widespread mutual interest was built up, and politicians with axes to grind could, when required, be counted upon to exert themselves and hand over the huddle. It was apparently a good scheme, and it was worked for all it was worth in Manitoba, the electoral lists being "fixed," and Dominion ministers going the length of importing such men as Garnot "to work the machine." But "the best laid schemes" * * * gang aft a-gley." The conspirators counted without the electors who were honest and independent, and without Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Foster. These Federal statesmen argued that the game of "helping their friends in the Province" was one at which both parties could play, and happening to be in Manitoba at the time, they pitched into the fight. The result was seen yesterday when it was announced that instead of 33 Liberals and 6 Conservatives, there were elected 24 Conservatives and 14 Liberals, with two constituencies in which elections are yet to be held. So far as Manitoba is concerned the great Liberal scheme is a dead failure; and we feel sure that its break-down in this Province will follow within a week. Other provinces and the Dominion at large will, without doubt, follow suit, and the whole vast machinery of Liberal Government by means of log-rolling and corruption, fall to the ground.

MANITOBA'S NEW PREMIER.

The Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, Leader of the Conservatives of Manitoba, and soon to be Premier of that Province is the only son of the Right Honorable Sir John A. Macdonald, G. C. B. He was born at Kingston, Ontario, March 13th, 1850. A lawyer by profession and a Queen's Counsel, he entered politics as the representative of Winnipeg in the House of Commons. He possesses all his father's bon homie and much of his father's rare power in the leadership of men. We heartily congratulate him upon his late most notable success and predict for him a career that shall redound to the advantage of Manitoba and the country at large.

"MAKE-HIM-ALL-RIGHT LETTERS."

PERSONS in the Belfast and Murray Harbor districts who have received letters from Premier Farquharson assuring them that certain roads in which they are interested would be opened in December and ready for traffic in June next, ought to be careful not to lose such letters. One of these semi-official letters was picked up on a street in Charlottetown yesterday, and a copy sent to THE EXAMINER for publication. It has evidently been written to one of the numerous Liberal "kickers," for the purpose of making him "all right" in the coming election.

ELECTORAL FRAUD.

A special despatch from Winnipeg to the Montreal Star (Dec 7) reports that—

Philip Garnot, Louis Riel's secretary, arrested on a charge preferred by James Hooper, proprietor of the Morning Telegram, for violation of the Election Act, in unlawfully having in his possession a number of ballots to be used in Woodland for fraudulent purposes, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday.

Frank W. Russell, a C. P. R. official, testified to the accused having told him that he had marked ballots which he intended to use against R. P. Roblin. Garnot, according to Russell, stated further that he had been brought here by Hon. Clifford Sifton, and he showed a number of documents which looked like letters. He also said he had a blank cheque signed by T. O. Davis, and produced it as proof of what he said. The marked ballots Garnot asserted he had obtained from "Mr. Smith." At the request of Garnot's counsel, the further hearing of the case was adjourned until to-day.

The prisoner is still behind the bars, as the bail for $1,000 has not been forthcoming.

A sensation in connection with the case has been caused by the discovery that the papers and letters which were found on Garnot at the time of his arrest have been spirited out of sight.

Hon. Clifford Sifton, T. O. Davis, M. P., A. F. Martin and other prominent men will be subpoenaed to give evidence in the case.

The election frauds contemplated and attempted by Garnot and his pals have excited indignation among all honest men in Manitoba. Happily Garnot was caught in time. It is greatly to be regretted that those who employed him and brought him to Manitoba are still at large. The fact that Garnot had in his possession a sympathetic letter from Sir Wilfrid Laurier is significant. The Premier of Canada ought not to hold personal correspondence with the secretary of a convicted traitor.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Greenway is "a goner"—Farquharson's turn next!

—Whether General Joubert is dead or only sick, it is evident that he has struck a snag.

—A capital Christmas remembrancer to send to friends abroad: the P. E. Island Magazine,—out to-day.

—As to the Manitoba election, the Patriot and the Guardian seem to think that "the general result is still in doubt."

—The number of Liberals lost in the Manitoba blizzard causes Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues anxiety and alarm.

—For Sale—A rooster very little the worse of wear, but in poor health and not guaranteed to crow. Can be seen at The Patriot office.

DEAR Mr. PATON,—

The telegraph line must be tapped to send you this message. You will be sorry to hear about my accident, but when going at full gallop during a terrible snow storm the deer missed the road and went over a high precipice, taking myself, the sleigh and the Toys with them; it was an awful smash up, but as luck would have it we fell into a terrible snow drift, which saved the Toys from being broken and the deer and myself from being killed or much hurt.

It took me about an hour to get myself out of the snow drift and another hour to get the deer and sleigh ready for the road again. My careful management I did not lose any of the toys. If no more accidents happen I shall be a very short distance from Ch'town on Wednesday, but will telegraph again Monday. "Au Revoir."
