Murray Harbour Taxis & Trail Ranger Groups Carry Off First Prize

SACKVILLE, Dec. 30 — Youth groups in Murray Harbor, P.E.I., and Truro, N.S., placed high in Dominion youth competitions it was announced here yesterday as the 28th annual Maritime Taxis and Older Boys' parliament set- tled down to business.

The Taxis and Trail Ranger groups from Murray Harbor car- ried off the first prize award, thus leading all Canada while the Busy Beavers T.R. group from Truro won second-place honors in the contest.

In a resolution adopted today the conference took a stand against the "increasing number of youth participating in and attend- ing competitive Sunday sports, leaving behind their loyalties to the Church and thus creating a serious threat to the Christian standards of our country." The session is being held at Mount Al- lison University here.

Other resolutions adopted at the third day's session included the following: "Resolved, that we emphasize the complementary relationship between religion and science, realizing that God was the creator of the universe and all therein."

"Resolved, that we go on record as taking a stand against the use of alcohol among high school stu- dents." "Resolved that we who are laying the foundations for a Christian world show a more aggressive and conscientious spirit in carry- ing out the many and varied pro- grams as well as church-centred programs throughout our com- munities and the world by giving our wholehearted support, our financial aid, and ourselves to the way of the Master."

Sessions Conclud SACKVILLE, Jan. 1—The 28th Maritime Taxis and Older Boys' Parliament concluded its sessions at Mount Allison University Sat- urday evening, with the final serv- ice of worship conducted by the premier, deputy premier and speaker, Lloyd C.
