IN MEMORIAM

HIGGINBOTHAM — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Gladstone Higginbotham, Montague, who passed away August 20th, 1952. Sometimes it's hard to understand why some things have to be. But in His wisdom God has planned beyond our power to see. As angels keep their watch up there. Please God, just let him know that we down here do not forget We love and miss him so. Lovingly remembered, and sadly missed by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

PEARLE MACEACHERN
On Wednesday, August 7th, 1957, there passed away suddenly at Belmont, N.S., Pearle Elizabeth, daughter of Searle (Matheson) MacEachern and the late Arthur MacEachern, in her 65th year.
The body was conveyed to Charlottetown, and on Friday, August 9th, service was held at the Cutcliffe Funeral Home, conducted by the Reverend T.H.B. Somers. Burial was in the Peoples Cemetery.
Her friends and acquaintances expressed their deep sympathy in the many floral tributes, letters and cards.

IN MEMORIAM

AUSTIN DOUGHART
The death of Mr. Austin Doughart occurred at the Prince County Hospital on August 15 following a lengthy illness. Born 43 years ago, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doughart, his life was spent on the family homestead at Long River where he was engaged in farming until age and failing health curtailed his activities.
His was a quiet but friendly disposition and he was a good conversationalist. He leaves to mourn one son, Alexander at home and a daughter Vera, Mrs. Keith Lord, Carleton. One brother, Allan at New London also survives.
The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon at the Geddie Memorial Church, New London and was conducted by the Minister, Rev. L.D. Bartlett who had regularly visited the deceased during his last illness. The choir with Mrs. Donald Lamont at the organ led in the singing of the hymns, "The Lord's My Shepherd," and "Abide With Me."
Full bearers were Messrs. Ernest W. and William E. Johnstone, Archie and Vernon Payne, John Bernard and Lloyd Profit. Burial was in the Church Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to offer my very sincere thanks to all the kind friends and neighbours who called on me during my illness and remembered me in so many helpful ways. Mrs. Herb Bernard, New London.

FLOWER PICKERS KILLED

VIENNA (Reuters)—Two mountaineers have been killed in different parts of the Tyrol mountains in the last few days while picking the "forbidden" flower Edelweiss. A third was killed when climbing in the Hinterer Schwarzer mountains Friday when he fell over a precipice. Edelweiss which has a small white flower, is a "protected" plant, one of several which is gradually disappearing from its native haunts. Climbers are also forbidden to pick it because of the danger involved.
