THE STANLEY left for Pictou at seven o'clock this morning.

A. O. H.—The members are requested to meet this evening at 7 30.

ASTRAKAN JACKETS. A large stock selling low at the London House.—Harris & Stewart. dec12 5i

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Daniel Macdonald, of this city, has, we understand, been appointed night watchman for the Dominion Building.

NEW.—Those ivorine Christmas cards at the Diamond Bookstore are the latest novelty and much admired.

LEPROSY.—Two cases of leprosy are reported from Cape Breton. Two victims, two women, are said to reside at Lake Ainslie.

STEAMER FOR PICTOU.—If the weather continues to be mild, the St. Lawrence will leave for Pictou to-morrow morning at 7 o'clock.

S. OF T.—Orient Division S. of T., will meet this evening at the usual hour. All brethern of the order in good standing are cordially welcome.

CHAPPELLE'S ALMANAC.—The 1891 issue of this valuable work will appear in a few days, brimful of information. With this number the publication will cease.

I. O. O. F.—Nomination of officers in Willey Lodge, this evening; also, practice on first degree. Every member of the degree team is requested to be present.

BAZAAR.—The C. D. Society intend holding a bazaar in the schoolrooms of the Second Methodist church, on Monday night next. Admission only 10 cents. Come one and all.

FANCY SALE.—There will be a sale of useful and fancy articles in St. Peter's Schoolroom, on Wednesday next, 17th inst. Sale will commence at four o'clock. Admission 5 cents. Bargains may be expected.

AN ARTISTIC NUMBER.—The Christmas issue of the Dominion Illustrated is for sale at the Diamond Bookstore, and is a credit to the publishers. The press work and prize pictures are equal, and in some points superior, to foreign publications. Get a copy.

SUCH IS FAME.—The Monetary Times reports. "The Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, firm of Davies & Sutherland, general merchants, has dissolved, and is succeeded by the new partnership of Davies & Hazzard, in the same line."

TO GET A GRANT OF 5,000 ACRES.—The establishment of the Trappists, at Lake St. John, is shortly to become an accomplished fact. The Quebec Local Government has agreed to grant them 5,000 acres of land on the banks of the Mistassini for a model farm.

MUST PAY DUTY.—The first importation of Dr. Koch's lymph has arrived at New York through the mail. The postmaster delivered it without raising the question of duty, but the collector, when his attention was called to the matter, said at once that the remedy must pay duty. So the matter rests.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.—There will be a public temperance meeting in the basement of the Methodist church, on Monday next, at 8 p. m. Mr. B. D. Higgs, editor of the Island Guardian, will read a paper on "The Scott Act—its place in the temperance movement in Canada," which will be followed by an open discussion of the question of the day.

CANADA'S EGG TRADE.—A late despatch says that one million four hundred thousand eggs from Canada have been landed in England since the McKinley tariff went into effect. The authorities state that these met the market so well that were the McKinley bill repealed, the Canadian egg trade with Britain is now on a sound and permanent footing.

SWALLOWED A FISHERMAN'S KNIFE.—Elisha Burke of West Harbor, Shelburne, N. S., killed a beef cow a few days ago. She was very fat, but for some days had appeared to be sick. On opening the cow a fisherman's knife thirteen inches long was found in her stomach. It is not surprising that she did not appear to be in good health. The knife was a rather tough subject for digestion.

MUST BE A WORKER.—An exchange says: Sunday was the fifth anniversary of Rev. Mr. Hinson's pastorate over the Moncton Baptist Church. He spoke on that evening of his stewardship from his conversion in 1876 to the present time During his stay there 436 persons had been added to the church membership. In that time four churches had been built or repaired, one on Church Street, one on High Street, and churches in Lewisville and Cherryfield.

A BRISK TRADE AT SOURIS.—Shipping has been going on quite briskly at Sonris for the last day or two. Potatoes are in good demand and bring readily 25 cents a bushel cash with an upward tendancy. One firm was paying as high as 30 cents a bushel, on Wednesday evening. The McKinley bill, it seems, has'nt frightened Souris buyers any. The American steamer, Simon Dumois, besides several sailing vessels, are there taking in potatoes as fast as they can get them.

LEG BROKEN.—Mr. Donald McLellan, of Cable Head, was on his way to Souris, on Wednesday last, with a load of beef for Mr. Dennis Murphy's canning establishment. On coming down Gillis' hill his horse stumbled and fell upon him, the shaft coming across his leg, breaking it between the ankle and knee. He was carried at once into Mr. Gillis' house and kindly cared for. A doctor was soon on the spot and attended to the injured man.

THE OLDEST MAN IN CAPE BRETON.—North Sydney Herald: We are informed by a rev. gentlemen of Sydney Mines that Alexander McKinnon, who died at Sydney Mines last Monday, was 114 years of age. This is the oldest man that ever lived in Cape Breton. He was able to go about and enjoy fair health and full vigor of mind until a short time before his death. The rev. gentleman we must remark, gave us the information as the current report of the place.

POLICE COURT.—This morning, two men charged with disorderly driving were each fined $5 and costs. There were seventeen Scott Act cases on the docket, and the court was in session until late this afternoon. Three of these cases were dismissed, and adjourned. John J. Trainer was convicted of three third offences, for each of which he was sentenced to two months imprisonment. Enoch Carmody confessed to a first offence and was fined $50 or one month's imprisonment. Johanna Edmunds was fined $100 or two months imprisonment for a second offence.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

The Irish Difficulty.

DUBLIN, Dec. 11.

Healy on three occasions was hooted in the streets yesterday. The last time he tried to address the people, when the crowd made a rush for him, hustling him around and smashing his hat down over his eyes. One man was arrested for assaulting Healy with a stick.

LONDON, Dec. 11.

The Carlton Club will probably ask Sir John Pope Hennessey to resign because of his candidacy for Parliament, as a representative of the Nationalist party. According to the rules he cannot be expelled.

DUBLIN, Dec. 11.

This morning Parnell proceeded to the office of United Ireland, and, with the assistance of a crowd of his supporters, forced open the doors and again took possession of the plant. The police witnessed the affair, but did not interfere in any way. Parnell addressed the crowd outside from the window of the office. When Parnell made the assault upon the office this morning, he himself was armed with a crowbar which he used in forcing the front door. In the afternoon Parnell started for Cork. A large crowd cheered him at the train. The Parnellites have withdrawn the nomination of Barry O'Brien, the author, and have finally selected John Kelly to contest the seat against Sir John Pope Hennessey, the nominee of the anti-Parnellites.

DUBLIN, Dec. 11.

Parnell's supporters in Limerick and Cork are preparing for big popular displays in his honor.

Leamy sent a despatch to a friend in London stating that Parnell is winning all along the line.

Bishop Brownrigg, of Ossary, has advised the voters in the coming election in Kilkenny to cast their ballots according to the dictates of their conscience.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.

Mr Morris, of Conservative Cordage Company is endeavoring to have New Zealand flax admitted duty free for use in Cordage works.

Senator Saraford, who has just returned from England is urging the Government to take steps to induce Great Britain to oppose discriminating rates in favor of leading Canadian products. He says that the injury felt throughout the manufacturing districts from the McKinlay Act makes the time most opportune to secure discrimination in favor of the Colonies.

Mr. Saunders, poultry commissioner, is showing his faith in his report by arranging to ship 1,000 tons of poultry next week via Halifax to Liverpool.

Heavy Liabilities.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.

The liabilities in the Chicago Safe and Lock Company's assignment are roughly estimated at $600,000, chiefly money advanced by the missing millionaire, B. H. Campbell.

Sad and Fatal Accident.

ST. CONSTANT, Que., Dec. 11.

While Charles Satoumais was chopping trees to-day in this parish, a large pine fell upon him, inflicting such severe wounds that the victim breathed his last a few hours after.

Contest in South Victoria.

1891, HARPER'S BAZAR, ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is a journal for the home. Giving the latest information with regard to the Fashions, its numerous illustrations, fashion-plates, and pattern-sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modiste. No expense is spared in making its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its clever short stories, parlor plays and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues every thing is included which is of interest to women. During 1891, Agnes B. Ormsbee will write a series of articles on "The House Comfortable," Juliet Corson will treat of "Sanitary Living," and an interesting succession of papers on "Woman in Art and History," superbly illustrated, will be furnished by Theodore Child. The serial stories will be by Walter Besant and Thomas Hardy.
