

OBITUARY

MRS. WILLIAM J. POWER
 Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth now saith the spirit that they may rest from their labors for their works do follow them.

She passed peacefully away at her home in Elliovalie, May 31, after a long and painful illness, borne with Christian patience and fortitude Lavinia, widow of William J. Power.

Lavinia as she was familiarly known, was born at Elliovalie seventy-seven years ago the youngest of a family of nine of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmonds.

When only three years old she sustained the loss of her mother but was tenderly cared for by her father and her oldest sister, Mary Gertrude who later was known as Sister of Mercy.

In 1910 she married William J. Power and of this union there were born five sons and two daughters, to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, Frank on the homestead who together with his wife Gertrude, tenderly cared for his mother during her illness, Gerald also of Elliovalie, Edward and Ernest of Hamilton, and William of Montreal and Mrs. James McRae and Mrs. David McDonald, also of Hamilton, a sister, Mrs. Edward McQuade of Maine, and 21 grandchildren.

The funeral was held at St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Urban Gillis assisted by Rev. Louis Dooley, deacon and Rev. Clifford Murphy, sub-deacon.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Fr. L. B. Dooley. After which all that was mortal of a kind and loving mother and loving neighbor was laid to rest beside her husband who predeceased her six years ago, here to await the glorious resurrection.

The pallbearers were: John Whalen, John McInnis, William Gill, Herman Gill, Terrence Maginnis and George Walsh. May she rest in peace.
