TORONTO

TORONTO (CP) — The base metal index managed to carve out a gain of almost one-half point on the stock exchange Friday. An announcement in Washington that the United States government is planning a major tax cut failed to show on the trading board. Brokers said this announcement has been partially discounted by investors, who seem to be happy to sit back and wait for awhile, at least.

International Nickel lost a point at 76 among senior base metals but Opemiska was up 30 cents to $6.80 among coppers. Other mines and western oils moved in a narrow range with losses holding a numerical edge over gains.

Index changes: Industrials off 1.71 to 422.57; golds off .88 to 175.50; base metals up .44 to 153.65; western oils off .90 to 130.12.
