In Search of the Green

Financial Aid

Greetings from the ever bustling world of Financial Aid. I would remind any juniors who are considering continuing on to graduate or professional school after graduation, to begin looking now at sources of financial assistance for their studies. One stop on this search may be our office. Remember, the early bird gets the worm.

If I may be of any assistance, please feel free to drop by the office on the main level of Robertson Library at the following times or call 566-0488:

Monday 9 am - 1 pm

Tues. & Thurs. 10 - 11 am

Wednesday 10 am - 1 pm

Friday 12 noon - 1 pm

Have a good week!

Canada Employment Centre

This is, of course, a busy period with little for extra reading. However, there are numerous quick reference books and booklets on all aspects of the job hunt available in our Career Center. For example, What Colour is Your Parachute? offers a number of alternative ideas worth considering when looking for a job. Booklets on Resumes, Finding the Right Job, and Interviews are available in addition to individual or group sessions for interested students to aid you in your preparation.

On Wednesday, April 1, a seminar on Preparing Resumes is scheduled for 1:30 in RL 03. All students welcome. Sessions have also been scheduled for senior students from different faculties. If your class would like a particular session, please call us for arrangements.

With regards to summer employment, we post all orders on the job board as received. The following are some orders to consider.

Parks Canada - We expect the Visitor Services Attendant completion to be announced in early April. It will be posted on our Job Board when received.

Kilborn House Ltd. - Student researchers are required to conduct market surveys on a part-time basis. Application forms available. Deadline is March 31st.

College Pro Painters - Application forms are available at this office.

Paradise Lodge & Bungalows - Lake Louise, Alberta. - Now accepting applications for summer employment. Resume required and should be forwarded as soon as possible.

Amherst Rotary Club - Camp Tignish - Position of Director is open. Application forms are available at this office.

For more information or to register for employment, drop by our office in Robertson Library.
