THE CHINESE PROBLEM.

Britain's Policy as Stated by the Times.

NOT PARTITION OF EMPIRE BUT DEVELOPMENT OF TRADE.

England Wants no Chinese Territory.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The Times commenting editorially upon the statement of the Cologne Gazette that, since Thursday last, negotiations have been proceeding in London for a Chinese loan upon the proposed security of a land tax and the cession of territory, denies that England has any intention to demand territory or to take the lead in the partition of China. England's policy, on the contrary, it says aims at maintaining the Chinese Empire as a going concern and a vast field for the extension of trade. In pursuing this policy we are glad to note that England enjoys the powerful support of the United States government as well as the public opinion of that portion of the American people which is not swayed by blind jingo denunciations.

The editorial considers the government of Great Britain would be justified even in incurring reasonable financial risks, which might formerly be properly regarded as outside the scope of government action, in order to combat the measures restrictive of trade which Russia and Germany are seeking to obtain from China in the shape of railways and mining monopolies and the like.

Complications Feared.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—The cruiser Arrogant has been ordered to prepare for sea. It is supposed that she will proceed to Chinese waters. The North German Gazette thinks that the presence of British warships at Port Arthur may lead to complications.

Long Service Medals.

LONDON, Jan. 5.—It is announced on good authority, that long service medals have been granted the Canadian Militia. Hon. Mr. Borden sails home January 12.

LATEST NEWS BY WIRE AND MAIL

MADRID, Jan. 3.—General Weyler's behavior, which is classed here as "shuffling," in apologizing to the Queen regent and hastily explaining to the premier Senor Sagasta, that he was not responsible for the publication of his protest, has alienated many of his supporters among the Carlists who hoped to entangle the general in the revolutionary meshes. They are specially disappointed at the fact that the government appears to be satisfied that the so-called Weyler bubble has been burst, and that the Spanish army is not gangrened. It is said that only three of the Spanish generals are in sympathy with General Weyler. The government will send 5,000 troops to Cuba at the end of January and further troops up to 14,000 will be sent to the island if needed.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Jan. 3.—Clarence Danvers Daveport, a young Englishman, who has been leading a hand to mouth existence in Portland since August, has received a cablegram announcing the death of his uncle, Sir Richard Danvers, of Danverscourt, Lincolnshire, England, and informing him that he had succeeded to the estate and title.

have blocked the road from Ali Murjd to Lundi Kotal, preventing the establishment of communication with General Sir William Lockhart. The enemy is very active, and has fired on the Oxfordshire regiment, which is engaged in convoy duty at Khyber Pass, wounding Colonel Plouden and Lieutenant Owe. Some of the men who were hampered by the task of removing the wounded, had difficulty in gaining shelter. Three men were killed and twelve, including Captain Parr, were wounded in the subsequent fighting. Finally they were joined by another company and retired into the walled enclosures, where they are awaiting reinforcements.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 3.—Father Cherrier, at the Church of the Immaculate Conception referring to the encyclical said: "It is the will of God that, sooner or later, justice will have its triumph, and we may well hope the Lord of Peace and Harmony will open the eyes of those who think we are bringing a foreign power to rule here. We are simply looking to the infallible teacher whose instructions we must abide by. Therefore, if the Pope says we cannot have neutral schools, we must claim our rights, and must do as we have been doing until the minority are no longer unjustly treated." Archbishop Langevin has decided not to attend the conference of Bishops at Montreal.

NOTABLE CAREERS.

Mary Cowden Clarke spent 16 years on the "Concordance to Shakespeare." Edison's contributions to the science of electricity have all been made in less than 20 years.

Charles Dickens lived 68 years, from 1812 to 1870. His literary life began in 1835 and ended with his death, thus covering a period of 35 years.

Napoleon's military reputation was made between the battle at the bridge of Lodi, in 1796, and the great disaster at Waterloo, in 1815, a period of 19 years.

Michael Angelo Buonarroti enjoyed a long life, from 1475 to 1564. Over 40 years of artistic effort were his, during which time he executed an immense number of masterpieces.

The enormous mass of poetry which Wordsworth gave to the world was written between 1793, when "An Evening Walk" was published, and his death in 1850. His active life therefore covered 57 years.

Goethe was born in 1749 and died in 1832. His literary life began with the composition of "Gotz von Berlichingen," in 1773, and ended with his death, thus covering a period of 59 years. His last three years were spent in revising a complete edition of his works for the printer.
