WRECKS.—During the latter part of the last, and the beginning of the present week, we had fearful stormy weather, and reports of wrecks of the vessels in conversation in every quarter. Two new vessels belonging to Messrs. Longworth and Yates, were blown away from the north side of the Island, and ran for the Gut of Canso. They afterwards succeeded in working their way up to the Bay opposite this Harbour, when one of them, the SARDINIAN, came to an anchor in Orwell Bay, on Friday, the 7th inst., and in the night which followed, she parted both chains and drove on Prim Island, and is now a total wreck. The other got on the reef of St. Peter's Island, but we are pleased to learn she has since been got off, and is now in this port. A number of other vessels are reported on shore on the opposite coast, but we have not yet learned particulars. Part of the bridge at Grand River, Lot 13, has been blown away, and the wharf opposite Charlottetown is totally destroyed, and some of the blocks driven near half a mile from their original position.

HALIFAX, DECEMBER. Schr. Saxe Gothra, hence for Boston, with a cargo of produce, struck on the rock in St. Andrew's Passage and sunk.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, astonishing Remedy for Scrofula.—Mr. Henry Judl, of Van Couver, was in a most alarming state of health, he had been a great sufferer from scrofula, for a number of years, and finally all parts of his body broke out into sores rendering him an object of horror to every one, he tried some of the most reputed remedies known, but they did not touch his complaint, and in the greatest alarm he consulted a friend as to what course he ought to adopt when Holloway's Ointment and Pills were recommended, which he commenced using, and by persevering with these remedies for a short time, he was perfectly cured, after every other remedy had failed.
