By JIM PEACOCK
Canadian Press Staff Writer
VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. Roger Bannister was keyed up to beat Landy, and he did. John Landy "ran as hard as I could but I saw the writing on the wall."

LITTLE ANXIOUS
Bannister called his race precisely right. "I ran my race," he said in an interview after winning the Games mile in 3:58.8. "I ran independent of the others, setting my pace for 3:59, which I felt would win."

IT'S STILL BOTHERSOME

LONDON (Reuters)—A British doctor says that likely causes of asthma are nagging parents, mothers-in-law, erring wives, "teen-age growing pains and a frustrating job. Dr. S. J. van Pelt, one of Britain's leading medical hypnotists, put forward the theory in the British Journal of Medical Hypnotism. He declared the mental factor was the most important one in a meritorious life membership in the legion.
