LONDON, Aug. 27 — (Reuters) — Shipyard owners today followed the lead of other British employers in resisting demands for big wage increases by their workers. The Employers' Federation told leaders of 200,000 shipyard men they would not give way to union claims for a "substantial" pay rise.

Observe 38th Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday afternoon, August 23rd at their home in Murray Harbour, Mr. and Mrs. Horace White were honored with a surprise party by their children and grandchildren on the happy occasion of celebrating their thirty-eighth wedding anniversary. All were present except the Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Withrow, nee Leeta and family who are stationed in an outpost in northern Saskatchewan. The party was a perfect surprise and a greater surprise still awaited then when they were presented with a chest of Rogers silverware by their grandson, Dale MacKay, from their respective families, and a gift of chocolates for the occasion from Mr. and Mrs. Alex McLeod, Charlottetown. Mrs. White very fittingly thanked all and was followed by a speech of thanks from Mr. White.

Following an afternoon of outdoor fun, boating, snap-taking and social conversation, a delicious supper was served where the table was attractively set with multi-colored gladioli and centered with a large two-tier wedding cake with silver trimmings, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The flowers for the occasion were donated by Mrs. Boswell Carver of Hazelbrook.

The hostesses serving the table were Mrs. James MacKay and Mrs. Gordon Carver and tea was poured

Death In Souris Of Mrs. Richard Kickham

The death occurred in Souris on Monday night of Mrs. Richard Kickham in her 89th year. She had been in good health until a few months ago when her advancing years began to take their toll so that she became less and less active as the end approached.

Mrs. Kickham is survived by three sons and daughters: Thomas Kickham, M.P., Dr. James Kickham, Kitchener, Ont., who arrived in Souris last night; Dr. Lawrence Kickham, Westlock, Alta.; Mrs. David O'Donnell (Elinor), Langgan, Sask., Mrs. Bertram Gail (Laura) Lanigan, Sask.; and Mrs. Lloyd Stewart (Aline), Ottawa, who is also now in Souris.

One brother, James Landrian, Charlottetown, and three sisters also survive her. The sisters are Mrs. William MacNamara (May), Haverhill, Mass.; Mrs. John Cullen (Mary), Hope River; and Mrs. Fred Kelly (Aline), Charlottetown. Her husband predeceased her in 1923. The funeral will be held from her late residence at 9 o'clock this morning with solemn Requiem High Mass being celebrated at St. Alexis Church, Rollo Bay at 10 o'clock.

With all others the residents of Murray Harbour will join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Horace White many more happy anniversaries.
