Mr. Wm. W. Forbes, of Vernon River Bridge left this morning on a trip to the Pacific coast for the benefit of his health.

Mrs. Beane, of St. John's, Nfld., who has passed some months in Charlottetown, was a passenger by the Coban last evening.

Mr. J. M. McKay of Haverhill Mass., and his son, Mr. H. M. McKay, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, Great George Street, left for home this morning.

Mr. Charles Graham, of Tallahassee, Fla. is visiting his sister at Georgetown. Mr. Graham was a member of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and took part in the now famous battle of Santiago. He was one of the men who with Capt. Capron when that gentleman was killed in ambush.

Mr. Graham has a number of interesting relics of the war. Asked as to the condition of the troops he said they were wretchedly provided for while in Cuba. The company of which he was a member fared better than the rest of the troops as the officers on several occasions purchased food for the men out of their own pockets. The general condition of the army was, he said appalling, as they had little food, less clothing, and drugs or medicines were almost unknown. At Santiago Mr. Graham was twice wounded, being shot once in the wrist and once in the side. His wounds however were not serious.
