IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HECTOR MACLEAN

Seldom has a community been more shocked and grieved than when word was circulated that Mrs. Hector MacLean of Long Creek had suddenly passed away during the early morning hours of an exceptionally healthy and active person, the news seemed almost incredible.

Blanche as she was, familiarly known to every one, had been ill for only two weeks with a hitherto unsuspected heart condition, but none anticipated that it would so quickly prove fatal.

Possessed of a happy disposition, and an agreeable and friendly manner, she was a general favorite among her large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Born in Meadow Brook in 1882, the elder daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Drake, she was married in September 1907 to Mr. Hector MacLean of New Dominion, where service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. R.A. Patterson. The organist was Mrs. Arthur MacDonald and the hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and "We cannot think of them as dead."

The floral tributes were very beautiful, silent tokens of love and respect for one who will be deeply mourned by all.

Interment was in Long Creek Baptist cemetery.
