A Proclamation.

I, D. H. MACKINNON, do, by virtue of the authority vested in me, as Proprietor of the "New York Clothing Emporium," issue this my Proclamation, the 20th day of October, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy, which, like the laws of the Medes and Persians, is binding to all intent and purposes, that whereas, this fashionable Street has been needlessly misused by the Great George Street, which is not keeping with the intelligence of the residents thereon, nor appropriate to the business thoroughfare of so magnificent a location for business purposes. "BROADWAY!" Where I sell the Handsomest and Stylishest fitting Garments ever manufactured in Charlottetown or any other place. You can call, gentlemen, and examine my Stock of Cloths, my Fashionable make up Garments to
