

THE CAMPAIGN.

King's County—The Candidates

AUSTIN C. McDONALD, Esq. DR. MUTTART.

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 6, 1878.

What the Reformers have said about the Tariff.

(From the Hc. Herald.)

We are compelled to read a good deal of nonsense in the Reform press on the subject of Free Trade and Protection, and of the relations of the Liberal Conservative party to Free Trade.

MR. MACKENZIE'S IDEA.

Our Commercial System will always be more or less controlled by the policy of the United States, as our immediate neighborhood may compel us sometimes, for our own protection, to adopt measures in accordance with what may be termed correct commercial principles.

SENATOR FABRE'S IDEA.

Before M. Fabre, editor of the Bien Public, was made a Senator by McKenzie, he had written as follows:—

The resolutions adopted at a large meeting of manufacturers that has lately taken place at Toronto, asked for the tariff to be raised to twenty per cent. on all goods coming from Great Britain, which can be manufactured in Canada, and that on all articles coming from the UNITED STATES AND OTHER COUNTRIES, CANADA SHOULD IMPOSE EQUAL DUTIES TO THOSE IMPOSED UPON CANADIAN PRODUCTS GOING INTO THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

MR. WORKMAN'S IDEA.

Mr. Workman was put into the field by the Government. Mr. McKenzie went down to Montreal to speak for Mr. Workman, and in one of his own speeches Mr. Workman said:—

"My policy on the manufacturing question is simple. We are to a very large extent here in Montreal, and I think over the greater part of the country, over-run with American manufactured goods, sent here and forced upon our market at sacrificing prices.

Mr. Workman was subsequently induced to abandon these views, by obtaining contracts from Government, for which he had to leave his seat vacant in Parliament.

JONES'S IDEA.

Mr. Jones's ideas are not many, but they are strong. This is the kind of Free Trader he is:—

"The American Government, always alive to the interests of their people and all that relates to the prosperity of their country, have recently passed a treasury order, increasing very considerably the drawback on white refined sugar, the result of which, I learn, has been that the great bulk of that quality now used in Canada comes from that quarter, and their manufacture is entirely abandoned at Montreal, where formerly large quantities were made; hence, it follows, that if our trade is to be encouraged or sustained, such exceptional legislation as I have referred to must be met by corresponding legislation on our part."

ANOTHER IDEA OF MR. MACKENZIE.

"The hon. gentleman says I made a Free Trade speech in Dundee, and a Protection speech in Sarnia, in Hamilton, and in Montreal, and that the speech I made in Montreal was the means of electing Mr. Workman. I made the same speech everywhere. I said that, situated as we were, it was absolutely impossible to carry out a free trade policy."

Yet Deacon Smith, and Goudge and Samuel and Ray and the Morning Comical will all go shouting in chorus that Mr. McKenzie's Government is all for Free Trade, and for nothing else but Free Trade; and they will expect the people to believe them, too. But the people will not; the expectation is vain.

Now, let any sensible man, let those who in Shelburne and Digby, and Yarmouth and Hants, are opposed to us, look at the above extracts, and say, if they will, that in supporting Mr. McKenzie, they are actuated by a sincere desire for Free Trade, or that Mr. McKenzie and his friends, on their own showing, are really Free Traders at all.

Puzzles in Philosophy.

(From the Toronto Mail.)

Some months ago this journal pointed out the marvellous kinship of language that appears to exist between the Big Push people in the United States and the Big Push people in Canada. In the Presidential campaign of 1876, Zach Chandler, of Michigan, was the treasurer of the bribery fund which enabled Hayes to carry those States which he did not steal from Tilden.

They are driving us hard. It is hard to work, etc.

I cannot make out where they get all their money. The Government candidates have enormous funds.

We have done the best we could with what we had. We have expended our strength.

We want to hold Ohio and Indiana in the worst way. A big push has to be made in the East and West Divisions on Saturday.

We are pretty well cleaned out just now and must pass the hat around. We have done all we possibly can do, and we have to ask a few outsiders to help us.

We must turn our pockets into those two States. We therefore make our grand stand on Saturday.

We've got to fight the devil with his own weapons. We could easily carry the two divisions but for the cash against us.

Don't talk to anybody. Private and confidential.

The thing is working well. Things look well all over the Province.

We'll beat them sure as hell. We'll beat them hollow.

I was told to write you and here it is. I have been urged to write you and comply accordingly.

Send along your draft. Will you be one.

The question for philosophers is: Did Chandler plagiarize Brown's note, or was the Michigan statesman merely struck after a lapse of four years by the identical brain-wave that in 1872 passed into the massive caput of the laird of Bow Park? When that aut has been cracked, let the philosopher turn his mind-teeth to this. In 1867 and 1872, Mr. David Moore rendered signal service to Mr. Blake in South Bruce; indeed, in the former year there is no doubt he elected him. Well, as soon as Mr. Blake gained office, Mr. Moore told him he would like to try for the Goderich Harbor contract, and so Mr. Blake gave him the following note to Mr. McKenzie:—

"TORONTO, 2nd January 1874.

"My Dear McKenzie,—David Moore, of Walkerton, asks me to inform you that he is about to tender for the Goderich works, and I do so accordingly. I told my friend Moore that an introduction was unnecessary, as you would let the work fairly without respect of persons.

And Mr. Moore got the contract although his tender was $30,000 higher than that of a much more experienced contractor. Now, for the marvellous parallel. In the 1876-7 campaign, when Louisiana was being stolen for Hayes, one of the most accomplished of the minor thieves engaged in the job was Edward Bowes, who with his brother Joe Bowes was elected inspector of Leon Township, where seventy-four votes were stolen for the Republicans. In June, 1877, three months after Mr. Hayes had been installed in the White House, Bowes thought he would like a ship-building supply contract, he being a boat-builder. Accordingly he spoke to Mr. Hayes on the subject, and the latter gave him the following note to Secretary of the Navy Thompson:—

"16th June, 1877.

"My dear Thompson—My friend Edward Bowes, of Louisiana, tells me he is going into the ship-building business, and he would like to supply one of your navy yards with timber. I told friend Edward Bowes that you did things on business principles, and that you gave out your contracts without fear, favor or affection. This will introduce him to you.

"R. B. H."

Friend Bowes formed a ring of people who knew something about the business—friend Moore's case exactly—and got a teak contract, although his figures were $70,000 higher than these of practical contractors.

Again, the question is: Was it plagiarism or a brain-wave? Here is excellent material for the debating class of Mr. J. D. Edgar's Reform night school, King Street, east.

Miss Rye, in a letter to the London Echo, makes an appeal for "more money" to carry on her children's emigration work, and denies the charge made by an English correspondent of that journal that she sells the children in Canada to any applicants at £10 a piece.

N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist Conference.

Rev. H. Pope, D. D., has been elected to fill the vacancy in the delegates to the General Conference. Rev. Professor Burwash has been chosen delegate to the Educational Board, and Rev. R. Duncan to the Central Missionary Board.

Political Corruption in the States.

The Boston Globe, in an article on the Potter investigation, claims that it has been proven that forgery was actually committed in Louisiana in the interest of Hayes. That there is evidence, in Sherman's own handwriting, that he was privy to it, and that Mr. Hayes was, at least afterwards, aware of the work that had been done on his behalf.

THE PAN-ANGLICAN SYNOD.

Opening of the Conference at Lambeth Palace.

On the 2nd inst., the Pan-Anglican Synod assembled at Lambeth Palace. Ninety bishops were present at the first meeting. Communion was partaken of in Lambeth Palace chapel. The Archbishop of Canterbury afterwards presided over the conference. He urged the question of maintaining the faith against infidelity as the principal subject of the thoughts of the delegates.

Yankee Swindler—Efforts to Extradite Him.

Geo. Tessler, who is represented as having defaulted from Banton, Ohio, with fully $60,000 of funds belonging to Stark County, of which he was Treasurer, is staying at the Royal Hotel, Hamilton Ont. He is under the surveillance of the police, who have been in communication with the authorities in the States, but he declines to go over the border voluntarily, although he says he is prepared to treat with the County Treasury Board if they like to come here.

MR. TILLEY.

The Toronto "Mail," of this statesman, says:—

"Of admirable business habits, the larger and weightier duties of a Minister of the Crown for the Dominion were easily borne by him; and his career as Finance Minister, if not flashy, was marked by carefulness and ability. He filled the office at a time when the extension of the Dominion greatly increased its obligations. These were inseparable from the growing condition of the country, and the necessity for imposing them has never been questioned. Mr. Tilley is essentially a safe man in office. He would not show the silver side of the shield in England and the brazen side in Canada. Well up in all the ramifications of trade, he could neither play the doctrinaire like Mr. David Mills, nor make such a display of incapacity as has Mr. Cartwright. Were he directing our fiscal affairs confidence would be restored in every department of trade, and the whole country would feel that the helm was in a master's hand."

Transatlantic Trade in Live Stock.

In consequence of the whole of the available space on board the steamers engaged in the transport of live stock from Canada and the United States being secured, the Montreal shippers, says the Liverpool Post, decided to make an experimental shipment by sailing vessel. The Glenfinart, one of Messrs. Allan's fast clipper ships, arrived at Glasgow on Wednesday last, with a pioneer lot, comprising thirty-eight head of choice Canadian steers, all alive and in excellent condition, which were sold on Thursday at most satisfactory prices.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be.
