

MR. AND MRS. B. P. CHIVILLO AND THEIR ATTENDANTS

Young Couple Pledge Vows At Holy Redeemer Church

Holy Redeemer Church was the scene of a pretty summer wedding on Saturday morning, June 21st, at 10 a.m. when Anne Elizabeth, R.N., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Steele, Charlottetown, was united in the Holy Sacrament of Matrimony with Bernard Peter Chivillo, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Chivillo, Fort Macleod, Alberta.

The altar was decorated with white lights and white and yellow chrysanthemums. Bows of white satin ribbon and lilies of the valley marked the guest pews.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend C. H. Moreau, S.S. R. who also celebrated the nuptial Mass. Mr. Alex MacLean played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Elaine MacDonald who sang "Mother At Your Feet Is Kneeling," "Ave Maria" and during the signing of the register "Be Thou With Me".

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Mrs. W.D. MacDougall, matron of honor, Miss Nadine Boehner, bridesmaid and the little Misses Heather and Paula Pidgeon as flower girls, all of whom are cousins of the bride and are from Picton, N.S.

Mr. Paul Steele, brother of the bride was best man. The ushers were Mr. W.D. MacDougall, Picton, N.S. and Mr. Merrill Steele, brother of the bride.

The bride was lovely in her floor length gown of white nylon and lace over bridal satin fashioned with full bodice skirt. The lace bolero with Peter Pan collar trimmed with sequins and pseudo pearls featured long fitted sleeves forming points on the hands. Her finger tip veil of bridal illusion fell from a white satin pill-box trimmed with iridescent sequins and she carried a cascade bouquet of "Better Time" roses and maiden hair fern.

The matron of honor wore a waltz length gown of pink embroidered nylon net over taffeta styled with bouffant skirt and cummerbund waistline accented with large satin bow in back. She wore matching headress and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The bridesmaid was in a waltz length gown of ice blue nylon illusion fashioned with full skirt appliqued in lace. She wore matching headress and carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations.

The flower girls were winsome in full length gowns of Nile green taffeta with net overskirts caught up with small pink rosettes. They wore matching headress and carried baskets of mixed summer flowers.

Mrs. Steele chose for her daughter's wedding, a dress of pale blue lace styled on princess lines with matching hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for fifty guests was held at the Queen Hotel. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. James MacAleer, R.N. The brides table was centered with a three tier wedding cake. The floral decorations were white and yellow mums.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Reverend Father Moreau and responded to by the groom. Congratulatory telegrams were read from Mr. and Mrs. A. Chivillo, Fort Macleod, parents of the groom; friends and relatives in Fort Macleod, Alberta, Vancouver, Montreal, Port Dalhousie, Ont and New London, Conn.

The bride's parents on this day were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary and a toast to them was proposed by Father

Moreau and responded to by Mr. Steele. Twenty-five beautiful roses were presented to Mrs. Steele by the guests present. Miss Emma Fitzgerald, who was bridesmaid to the bride's grandmother and a guest also at her mother's wedding, spoke a few words extending best wishes to the newlyweds and congratulations to the bride and groom of twenty-five years ago.

For travelling the bride donned a light blue suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Boehner, Mr. and Mrs. F.J. Pidgeon and daughters Heather and Paula, Mr. and Mrs. W.D. MacDougall and son Barry, Miss Nadine Boehner, all of Picton, Nova Scotia, Mrs. Roy Cormier, Saint Margarets, N. B. Miss Kay Steele, and Miss Norma Sinton of Morell, Miss Mona Gallant R.N., Miscouche, Mr. and Mrs. James MacKay, Clinton.

Prior to the marriage the bride was entertained at a linen shower by Mrs. W.L. McManis and at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. James MacAleer. Mr. and Mrs. Chivillo will visit at Niagara Falls before returning to their new home in Fort Macleod, Alberta, where the groom is employed with the United Grain Growers Company.

A Washington Resident Visits Native Province

Captain William Silliphant, medical corps United States navy, commanding officer of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology in Washington, has been a distinguished visitor to Prince Edward Island.

Captain Silliphant's former home was in Hunter River and he has been visiting his sisters, Mrs. J.W. Patterson, Hunter River, and Mrs. Sherman MacDuff, Brookfield.

He left the province Monday. Captain Silliphant was a guest lecturer at the Canadian Association of Pathologists at the annual meeting in Halifax during the week the Canadian Medical Association met there.

Mrs. Silliphant did not accompany her husband on this trip although she has enjoyed visits to this province. The two daughters are charming young girls and excellent students. Captain Silliphant is a tall fine-looking man of marked modesty. However, there is some pride, natural and understandable, when he mentions his daughters.

Mary Ruth is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. She majored in economics and is now teaching in Norfolk, Virginia.

Elizabeth Ann, the younger daughter, is a sophomore at George Washington University in Washington. She is majoring in education.

FOR MEN ONLY

A spend-thrift whose first name was Errol
Spent much dough on the finest apparel.
But from then on he chose
To neglect his fine clothes—
He'd have looked just as good
In a barrel!

Okay, so I'm
A dry cleaner,
Not a poet!
But I dare
Any poets to Come around
And try their Hands at doing
Half as good
A dry cleaning
Job as we do
On every garment
Brought into our shop.

And anyway it's not the poem
That counts, it's the thought
Behind it.

And the thought behind that
One, just in case you weren't paying
Strict attention, was that There's not much point in any Man paying good money for any
Garment or accessory—be it a $150 suit or a $1.50 tie—unless
You give it the care it deserves.
So:

Unless you're down to your
Last respectable-looking suit,
Alternate from one suit to the Other's giving each a day's
Rest at least every second day.
A wooden hanger will keep the
Jacket in better shape than a
Wire hanger will, and leaving
The coat unbuttoned will help
Restore the jacket to its original Shape.

Avoid creases across the Trousers by using a clamp-type
Hanger that grips them by the Cuff. And be sure to give your Suit a regular brushing every couple of days whether it seems to need it or not. This keeps the surface dust from working into the fabric, where it causes serious wear.

Oh, yes, I almost forgot! We'll give it the best dry cleaning job in town. So send it along to us regularly, eh!

ELLEN'S DIARY

The Small Red Berries — Where Do I Find Them?

The wedding continues to make nice progress according to report, as completed in one place the scene moves on to some other piece or patch of the farms. Today it came to Rob's, which then took the sunbathed workers out of the hands of these cooks to dine and sup there as well.

Of the six weeders however, a pair of lads appeared at times into that quiet which at first is delectable because of its rarity, and then becomes more and less lonely as days of absence continue. They came wheeling or, at a fancy, on foot, to share our meals, to find some new pastime about and then wearing of it to be away once more to rejoice in the field the men with the noes.

"We thought" one said "you wouldn't like to eat alone."

"And those strawberries that went into the refrigerator this morning looked too good to leave" the other offered with a young smile.

So we left on its shelf the dainty china gift-cup from which we leisurely sup our tea when "off duty" and alone, and spread the checked cloth and set the table for three, with the everyday stouter, though still attractive, dishes we use.

Mac, young laird of all he surveys at Alderlea, including cats and kit-cats, and a knowing and likeable chap, naturally appropriated his grandfather's empty seat at the table.

"Now boys", he grinned "let's not linger too long over this!"

"I'd say" Gage dimpled, "we might get a shower to stop our work before the day is through".

Exceedingly pleasant, we could appreciate, it was for the two today, with as usual no cloud of discord arising to bedim the young and sunny hours.

Summer in a silken shimmer of heat lazed above the fields where the cattle grazed prettily against the daisied pasture. Scent of roses and clover perfumed the air.

"Ah ha, Missis wouldn't you like to go a-huntin' wild strawberries this perfect afternoon?" the breath of wind that in a summer sheen moved the near haylands came by to tease.

"Now", it smiled, "where would you find some?"

"Where shall I find, for a hungry tongue, Small red berries, tart and young Hidden in grass and close to the ground
Where timourly, without a sound,
The chipmunk and the bronze squirrel go?
Where shall I find them? Where do they grow—
