CBC Income And Expenditures

OTTAWA, June 30 - (CP) - Gross income of the CBC last year totalled $6,300,000 against expenditures of $9,200,000, Revenue Minister McCann told the Commons tonight. He said the income totals included $5,500,000 in radio licence fees, $2,400,000 from commercial advertising and $258,000 from miscellaneous sources. Expenditures included $4,000,000 for programs, $1,900,000 for engineering, $1,100,000 for station networks, $540,000 for administration and $271,000 for press and information. Depreciation allowances and other factors brought the deficit for the year to $1,140,000. He told Donald Fleming (P.-C. Toronto Eglinton) the CBC paid $147,227 for its news services, including $108,227 to the Canadian Press, $35,000 to the British United Press and $4,000 to a French News Agency.

Carloadings

OTTAWA, June 30 - (CP) - Carloadings on Canadian railways during the week ended June 23 totalled $4,721 cars, down slightly from $4,863 cars for the previous week, but higher than the $2,191 cars for the corresponding week a year ago. The Bureau of Statistics reported today that increases over the similar week last year were shown in loadings of grain and grain products, pulpwood, wood pulp and paper, gasoline and ore. Decreases were registered in livestock, coal, coke, building materials and lumber.
