Successful Old Home Week Races Conclude

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

When this page reaches the eyes of readers the biggest sports feature in the Maritimes — Old Home Week — will be over and another of those great racing meets inaugurated in 1940 will be talked about and discussed until the 1951 one rolls around. It has been a great speed festival with some 170 horses from various parts of the Maritimes meeting each other in battle array four nights and four afternoons. A well kept track, large audiences and many close finishes were features that pleased those who looked on and showed their appreciation by applauding vigorously for their favorites. There were many upsets where horses with good reputations fell by the wayside, but then again many of those who had been overlooked proved their worth and won and took new records. For the benefit of Saturday readers we are giving a brief resume of what happened.

Monday night under the lights Bob Canuck, owned by George Gregory and John MacLean of Souris, and driven by I. O'Meara, was a straight heat winner of the Prowse Bros. Classified Pace with Toby Patch (W. Burt) 3-2-2, three other starters, best time 2.15 2-5. The trotter Cobblestone, owned by P. J. Cadegan and driven by Worrell Lewis, was 2-1-1 in the DeBlois Bros. Classified Trot, Wait N'See (O'Meara) 1-2-3, best time 2.13 4-5 by Cobblestone. Four other starters. In the Hughes Drug Co. Free For All Pace, Lock Hanover, owned by Bert Yerxa of Sussex, N.B., and driven by Claude O'Brien, was a straight heat winner with Argot Pointer (Stead) 3-2-2, best time 2.09, five other starters. Argot Pointer was close up and must have paced in 2.09 2-5 at least.

Tuesday afternoon the Hughes Drug Co. Classified Pace was won in straight heats by Mary T. Clegg, owned by L. D. MacLeod, Victoria, and driven by D. A. MacKinnon. Buddy Clegg (Cole) 2-2-3, four other starters, best time 2.16 1-5. The Edison Electric Classified Pace was won in straight heats by Lil Frisco, owned and driven by Don McNeill of Summerside, Yankee Dale (W. Kelly) 4-2-3, six other starters, best time 2.18 3-5. The Old Spain Classified Pace was won by Indiana Boy, owned by Bob Brown of Woodstock and driven by Tom Etter, with 1-2-2, Buster C. (Allen) 2-1-4, Prince Budlong (Cudmore) 5-3-1, three other starters, time, 2.15 1-5, 2.13, 2.13. Indiana Boy had won the third dish on the Saturday night previous in 2.12 2-5.

Wednesday afternoon's races drew an attendance of 7,000 people. It was a beautiful afternoon, a perfect track and great racing. The Carvell Bros. Trot was won by Bonnie Dale, owned by Chester Birt, Mount Stewart, and driven by Willard Kelly, with 2-1-1, Mac Stout, owned by A. A. Jabalee, North Sydney, and driven by M. Jabalee, 1-7-2, best time 2.16 by Bonnie Dale. The Central Creameries Classified Pace was won in straight heats by Miss Knox, owned by Commander G. H. Buntain, and driven by L. O'Meara, her first heat in 2.10 being a new record for her and places her in the coveted 2.10 list. The other heats were in 2.10 3-5, 2.14. The pacer Abbeland 2.10 4-5, owned by James Watt and driven by W. Jardine, was 2-3-4, Dale B. (C. O'Brien) 3-4-2, Billy McVay (W. Craig) 4-2-3. In the W. G. Barbour Classified Pace Junior Hal owned by Bennett Whalen, Sackville, and driven by Joe Hennessey, had the best summary, 5-1-2, Ohio Hal, owned by P. J. Cadegan and driven by W. Lewis was 1-6-4, Miss Donna Mae, owned by Lorne Letcher and driven by C. O'Brien, was 7-4-1—four other starters, best time 2.12 2-5 by Miss Donna Mae. This is a new record.

Wednesday night's program drew as large or possibly larger an audience than the afternoon. The Henderson & Cudmore Classified Pace was won by Bud Abner (Burt) recently sold by Cyril Smith to the C. M. Alexander Stable of Saint John, N.B., with 3-1-1. Sunny B. (Daniels) 1-2-dnf, five other starters, best time 2.18 3-5—new record for Bud Abner. The Pure Milk Co. Classified Trot was won by Miss Judy Dale, owned and driven by Earl Buell, Village Green, with 1-2-1. Judy Kalmuck, owned by Lester Johnston and driven by Willard Kelly, was 2-1-6, six other starters, best time 2.18 2-5—a new record for Miss Judy Dale and Judy Kalmuck in winning the second heat also lowered her record to 2.18 2-5. In the A. Pickard and Co. Classified Pace the well known campaigner Jean Henley, owned and driven by Sam Kennedy, Charlottetown, had the best summary—3-1-5, Josedale Hoosier, owned by Dr. George Bishop and driven by E. Shaw was 1-4-4, Eleanor G. owned by Mrs. P. C. Brown and driven by Teddy Weir was 5-5-1, four other starters, best time 2.13 1-5 by Eleanor G.

Thursday afternoon's racing featured by one of the best Free For All classes in years and there was a larger attendance than Wednesday. All the stands were filled, and a great many people were seated in the infield. The afternoon was cloudy but no one expected rain. However, just before the third dash of the Hambly and Ennis Classified Pace, rain came down in torrents, the track was flooded and the remaining heats were postponed until Friday afternoon. The first two heats of the Hambly and Ennis Classified pace were won by Just Brenda, owned by Justamere Stables, Charlottetown, and driven by Don Seaman, with 1-1, best time 2.14 3-5—a new record for Brenda. Marjorie Budlong (L. Rankin) was 3-2, C. Albert Budlong (H. Cudmore) 2-7, Louise Fingo, (Horseman) 4-3, five other starters. The R. T. Morrison Classified Pace — 2 dashes—was won by John Clegg, owned by B. C. Cruikshank and driven by Angie Allen with 1-1, Miss Commando (Llewllyn) 2-5, Starlight Eclipse (Daniels) 7-2, Ma Cherie (Cormier) 3-3, five other starters, best time 2.13 1-5 — a new record for John Clegg. The Moore and McLeod's Free For All Pace with its classy field was looked forward to with eagerness and the two heats raced were fully up to expectations. In the first Scott Spencer, owned by Harry Hirsch and driven by Harley Harrison, came from away back to win from Gay Law (Allen), Vella La Vella (MacDonald) 3, Carl Frisco (W. Lewis) 4, Victory Dale (Sweeney) 5, Lock Hanover (O'Brien) 6, Argot Pointer (Stead) 7 and McKylo Cash (Horseman) 8, time, 2.09, with the first quarter in 29 3-5 and the first half in 1.03 4-5. In the second heat Lock Hanover, owned by Bert Yerxa and driven by Claude O'Brien won in 2.09, with Vella La Vella (MacDonald) 2, Victory Dale (Sweeney) 3, Gay Law (Allen) 4, Argot Pointer (Stead) 5, Carl Frisco (Lewis) 6, Scott Spencer Harrison) 7, and McKylo Cash (Horsemen) 8.

Thursday night packed stands and overflow to infield showed no slowing up in interest by race fans. The Henderson and Cudmore Pace was won by Miss Playfair, owned and driven by Willard Kelly with 4-1-1, Hilda Mac (Bernard) 1-3-4, Bessie Budlong (Collins) 2-2-2, best time, 2.18 by Hilda Mac. The Jack Cameron Classified Pace was won by Queeney Dewey, owned and driven by H. S. Horsemen with 3-2-1, Peterkin Aubrey (Pettigrew) 1-3-3, Cumberland Scott (Stead) 4-1-4, four other starters, best time 2.17 2-5 by Peterkin Aubrey. The Jenkins Pharmacy Pace was won by Jerry Lee Volo, owned and driven by Mike Jabalee, North Sydney with 2-1-1, Johnny Kalmuck (W. Kelly) 1-2-2, four other starters, best time 2.12 by Johnny Kalmuck — a new record.

During the meeting the splendidly bred pacer Gallonage 2.15, which was purchased at the Harrisburg sale last fall by Heber M. Sweeney, was sold to B. C. Cruikshank, and the trotter Lusty's Queen 2.18 4-5 was sold by Willis and Cutcliffe to Heber Sweeney.

We had the pleasure of a short talk with B. C. Cruikshank, owner of that superb trotter Brewer's Gallon 2.02 2-5, that has won ten starts and has only lost one race since being placed in Joe O'Brien's hands last fall. Several tempting offers have been made to Mr. Cruikshank and Wednesday night there was a telephone message from New York in which an offer of $40,000 was received and declined. Mr. Cruikshank stated that while the price was a magnificent one yet the pleasure he has received from owning Brewer's Gallon and also the pleasure of looking forward to future successes was worth more than the money could bring him. He plans on leaving for the United States in the near future where he will see his horse race in several stakes prior to going to Lexington where there is a possibility of his taking an even lower record than he has at present. Mr. Cruikshank has been one of the best supporters of harness horse racing in the Maritimes for several years.

We also had a talk with Ken MacDougall, the affable manager of the Sydney Sports Centre. Ken is delighted with the way the people of Sydney and surrounding centres have taken to night racing. At first it was a bit discouraging but a little experience watching the trotters and pacers under the lights captured the fancy of the harness horse fans and now racing is an assured success. The final meet prior to Old Home Week was held on Saturday night. It was marred by a four horse spill in which The Baker, Frank Grattan, Togo Bars and Brendon's Boy went down, also the drivers. Brendon's Boy almost catapaulted over the others. Gratifying indeed, said Ken, was the fact that no one was injured and only one horse — The Baker — suffered an injury. Some of the harness and parts of the sulkies were damaged. Ken plans on conducting an auction sale of harness horses, probably in October, getting out a catalogue and listing as many desirable trotters and pacers as owners wish to dispose of. He is confident there are quite a number of sportsmen in Cape Breton who are prepared to buy a good trotter or pacer and pay

If anyone were to ask what the leading sport is on Prince Edward Island, there could be only one answer—horse racing. At least that should be the legitimate answer of anyone attending the Exhibition Raceway during this week, particularly Thursday, if public attendance and enthusiasm is to be used as the measuring stick of popularity.

• • •

In the afternoon and evening meets held there, an estimated 18,000 fans were on hand to witness the day of top-notch racing, and although there was still one day to go when this column was written, it was the peak performance and attendance record of this year's Provincial Exhibition and Old Home Week Diamond Jubilee celebrations up to that time.

• • •

Although rain cut short a third of Thursday afternoon's stellar program, when a twenty-minute deluge that came and went with a suddenness that gave no warning and sent people scurrying for cover at every conceivable point of refuge, it didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the attending fans for the evening meet when the facilities were again packed to overflowing.

• •

But there were a lot of people who had to make a complete change after the afternoon downpour before returning for the night program. Catching thousands of people who jammed the bleachers and grounds, so engrossed in the running of the second dash of the Free-For-All Pace that they were unaware of impending disaster from gathering clouds overhead, the rain came down by the bucket rather than drops, to drench people to the skin even though they did seek cover under the stands, etc.

• • •

This writer was one of them, and although taking refuge under the stands with literally thousands of others, proceded to get drenched by degrees as the rain dripped through from the open bleachers above. But it was a gay crowd who withstood the uncomfortableness of the situation. Wiping the streams of water from their heads and faces as it dripped down, to most it was a constant source of amusement watching the antics of the others who were in the same condition. For the ladies in particular, it will be a busy time for the beauty salons, when permanents and toni's went by the boards by the hundreds.

• • •

But they say it is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and it no doubt applies to rain too. One enterprising young chap in a refreshment booth underneath the stands, had a supply of miniature plastic umbrellas, and taking advantage of the situation, did a record business in a hurry, selling them like hotcakes to those seeking protection from the rain.

• • •

A firm believer in the mottos, "be prepared" and "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," this writer toted his raincoat to the track with him yesterday. It was a good idea but it didn't work. Vacating the stands for a short visit to the pari-mutuels, leaving both coat and mottos in the press-box, the 'rains came' while making our way through the crowd. It came so suddenly and heavily that it dispensed of any possibility of retrieving the coat without a complete wetting. So taking shelter under the stands with the rest, we got wet anyway.

• • •

But the coat was not brought in vain. A gentleman in the seat behind the press-box, a non-motto man without a coat but not lacking in enterprise, took temporary possession of the unused coat to ward off the elements for he and his companion, and later made his apologies for the liberty. It was O.K. with us, because after all, who cares about a coat when we still have our mottos, even though damp ones. We now have the coat too, ready for another rainy occasion.

KITCHENER, Ont., Aug. 18 — (CP)—Laura Klingender, 27, who was to have been married at the end of this month, was killed today when she fell down a flight of stairs at her home here and broke her neck.

Keen Racing Features Program Under Lights Here Last Evening

A gala week of harness horse racing entertainment was brought to a highly successful conclusion before a crowd of more than six thousand ardent fans when an exciting nine-dash program was held over the Exhibition Raceway last night to add the final touch to the Provincial Exhibition Association's Diamond Jubilee Year and Old Home Week celebrations.

The racing was close and keen in every event with some stirring battles being enacted over the mile distance that gave the large crowd their last big racing thrill of the week-long program.

Coming up with the fastest pace of the night in the second dash of the S. A. MacDonald Classified Pace, New Look, owned and driven by James MacGregor, was another of the many horses this week to lower their individual time records. Coming up with a smart demonstration of driving, MacGregor brought his horse out from fourth place going down the back stretch to the three-quarter pole in a powerful drive that took him in front of Johnny Dale, Rosalie Hooper and Tryon going round the upper turn and came down the stretch flying, a good five lengths ahead of the rest of the field at the finish wire. It was a winning drive that saw New Look clip four full seconds off her previous record to set it at 2.11.

With Walter Craig in the sulky, Rosalie Hooper was the winning horse in the first dash, while Tryon, driven by Harvey Cormier, pulled an upset in the final dash to come home a winner ahead of New Look and Rosalie. Tryon paid $20.40 to win ticket holders.

In the Rogers Hardware Classified Pace, Ramona Peters, driven by A. Phillips, was the leading winner in the division, coming through with a win over Lady Ruthie T. and Little Millie in the first dash, and after placing fourth in the second, was the lead horse at the wire again in the final dash in a tight finish with Lady Ruthie and Mason's 49, who finished in that order. Mason's show position was an upset in itself, paying $28.80 for a $2 show ticket, the largest pay of the night with the exception of the daily double which paid $35.70 on Ramona Peters and Rosalie Hooper. Lady Ruthie T., owned by Miss R. Stevens of Sackville, was the winner of the middle dash.

The Moore and MacLeod Pace, the opening event on the card, saw the winning honors split three ways between Just A Gift, Bonnie Frisco and Sister Verna Hoo, in a division that produced some very nip-and-tuck battles over the mile distance in all three events, and came up with the only accident of the night, which fortunately didn't prove serious.

Driven by Don Seaman, Just A Gift captured the first dash in a very close photo finish to the wire with Bonnie Frisco and Billy Budlong, only to be drawn in the second and third. With the main threat out of the way, Bonnie Frisco, owned by Messrs Horne and Clark, Summerside, and driven by George Sobey, trailed behind Billy Budlong to the half before going to front but had a tough time nosing out the MacDonald-driven Billy in a driving finish to the wire with Sister Verna showing.

A high favorite to win coming out for the final dash, Bonnie Frisco had a tough break getting away to go into a spill right in front of the judges stand, with both driver and horse going down in a heap. But as soon as the rest of the field went by, both driver Sobey and Bonnie got back on their feet to continue the race without any evidence of injury.

It was a really game act by both driver and horse, and both received a large round of applause from the crowd in the trail position at the finish wire. Of the race itself, Sister Verna came in the winning horse with Walter Craig doing the piloting in a tight finish with Billy Budlong and Twilla Stewart.

One morning last week, in the darkest hour that precedes dawn, a Mount Albion sportsman stirred restlessly in his sleep and then, as wakefulness chased the fog of sleep from his brain, he propped himself on one elbow and listened. In the pitch blackness of the calm pre-dawn hour the cries of hunting dogs on the trail threbbed and echoed in the distance. This was not the first time he and his wife had been awakened during the night hours by the baying and yelping of hunting dogs running down their quarry.

• • •

Game was plentiful along the string of beaver dams on the headwaters of the Mill Brook and it was here that the dogs spent most of their time. Rabbits were plentiful (not so plentiful now) in the grass grown short spruce thickets bordering the alder swales and two broods of young black ducks were known to be feeding on the dams. In addition at least two covey's of half grown pheasants were making the alders their home and ruffed grouse, Huns, woodcock and snipe had nested in the area.

• • •

It was the last straw that broke the camel's back and in this instance the pre-dawn hunting foray in the beaver swamp left no doubt in this particular sportsman's mind as to the course he intend to pursue. Clear daylight saw him on the hunt with his trusty Winchester Pump tucked under his arm. In a few minutes he spotted the dogs with tongues hanging out and plastered from nose to tail tip with black swamp mud. Two quick shots and it was all over.

• • •

One of those dogs deserved a better fate. He was a four year old German short-haired pointer owned by a Pownal sportsman. He was a trained hunting dog and was rated especially good on Hungarian partridge and pheasant. Visiting U.S. sportsmen here in the fall after Huns will jump at an offer of dogs of this type at $150.00 each. What puzzles this columnist is why a sportsman with a trained hunting dog that is really tops and one that would be almost impossible to replace will not take steps to keep his animal within bounds and not have him running at large throughout the countryside. A German short hair on the loose is bad medicine. There is enough of the wolf strain in them to make them a menace to game as well as live stock.

• • •

Despite repeated warnings through the medium of this column, hunting dogs running at large are becoming an increasing menace to our wildlife and domestic live stock. In the Mount Albion district alone five hunting dogs have been shot within the past three weeks.

• • •

Not all those dogs were of a hunting strain. One was a collie but they are all classed as hunt- and another an ordinary mongrel ing dogs when they go out on the trail of game. In fact a collie that has developed a yen for hunting is as deadly as any breed. They are swift and silent on the trail and have keen noses.

• • •

The pack running in the Mount Albion district had taken to chasing and annoying live stock, particularly cattle and horses. One land owner with a large herd of beef cattle had 16 of them driven through the railway fence onto the track. Another farmer in the Village Green district lost a valuable heifer allegedly from being harassed by dogs. Farmers have sustained heavy sheep losses this season from attacks by dogs and recently in the Vernon area a farmer shot two dogs, described as bird dogs, while they were in the act of killing hens. They had visited his farm on the previous day and killed five. He was all set for them when they appeared on the following day and started in where they had left off on the previous foray.

• • •

Dogs will frequently make a game of killing poultry. Last week a poultry raiser at Keppoch reported forty odd chickens killed during the early morning hours. On examining the birds I found that their necks were skinned and broken and heads bruised and crushed to a varying degree. The handiwork was too crude for a fox or skunk and furthermore the owner of the poultry was suspicious of one of his own dogs. After consultation this dog was shot and his stomach opened and examined. It was full of feathers, blood and chicken meat. Incidentally the feathers in his stomach matched those of the birds killed.

The dog had enjoyed a meal of

Jennie Kalmuck And Nell Kalmuck Share Honors In Feature Trot

Holding true to the high calibre of racing that has been featured over the Exhibition Track all this week, yesterday afternoon's program came up with another stellar nine-dash card, which was preceded by three other top-notch dash features that were rained out at Thursday afternoon's meet, to give an estimated crowd of 5,000 fans an exciting program of racing entertainment.

In the regular program, Prodigal Vic, Jennie Kalmuck, and Rusty Hanover were the big winners of the meet, all copping off two victories out of three in their respective dashes, while Hardroad Bill, Nell Kalmuck and Cyclonic were the single event winners.

After placing second to Willard Kelly's Nell Kalmuck in the first dash of the feature event of the card, the Victoria Driving Club Free-For-All trot, Jennie Kalmuck trotted her way to a new mark in winning both the second and third dashes, covering the mile in 2.11 2-5 in both to reduce her record by two-fifths of a second. Lee Brewer C. was the place horse in the second and Nell in the third.

Coming out on top in some terrific track duels with Buster C., Cyclonic, Josedale Clipper and Tiny Budlong, Paul Woodcock's Rusty Hanover of Saint Stephen, N B., paced to the fastest time of the regular meet, 2:10, in winning the opening heat of the Carvell Bros. and Central Creameries classified pace event, and came home in front again in the second to be the big winner. Cyclonic, owned and driven by J. MacDonald of Sydney Mines, N. S. came through with a thrilling win in the final dash.

After losing out to Hardroad Bill, owned and driven by Harold Stead of Brackley, Prodigal Vic came through with two convincing victories in the final dashes of the S. R. Johnston Ltd. classified pace, when he had it all to himself coming down the stretch to the wire Hardroad pressing a bit in the second, but a number of lengths in front in the final dash. Vic was driven by owner Joseph MacRae of Park Corner, who did an excellent job of handling the reins.

Thursday's Card Completed

In the three dashes carried over from Thursday's card, B. C Cruickshanks Victory Dale pulled a startling upset in the final dash of Free-For-All pace to make the highlight event of the week a three-way split for top honors. Scott Spencer and Lock Hanover were the first and second dash winners of the event held on Thursday.

Coming up with a masterful performance against the power-packed field of Scott Spencer, Lock Hanover, Argot Pointer, Vella La Vella, Gay Law, Carl Frisco and McKlyo Cash, Victory Dale and driver Sweeney put on a powerful drive along the back stretch to the three-quarter pole from third position and take over the lead rounding the upper turn into the stretch, to come down home in a rousing battle with Scott Spencer and Gay Law to head them both to the wire, Scott placing and Gay Law garnering the show position. Victory Dale's winning drive paid $27.10 for a two dollar ticket at the pari-mutuel. A special ticket made up for the occasion, known as a "quinella, paid off $59.90 for a $2 bet. The idea of the bet is to pick the first and second winners in the one race, and paid off on Victory Dale and Scott Spencer.

The final dash of the Hambley and Innis classified pace was also an upset victory when Lester Rankin brought Marjorie Budlong home a winner after Just Brenda had clipped off firsts in the opening two on Thursday. Chocolate Dip also made a smart performance for the place position. Marjorie paid $15.40 to win and Chocolate Dip paid $21.80 to place.

Following up his consistent performances on the previous day, John Clegg, also owned by Mr. Cruickshanks of Halifax, and driven by Angie Allen, made it three straight in the R. T. Morrison Pace when he topped out Abegweit Milady and Ma Cherie to the wire in a wide-open finish.

Remember When

(By The Canadian Press)

Tiger Flowers became the first negro to hold the world's middleweight boxing title when he outpointed Harry Greb at New York, 24 years ago tonight. Flowers held the crown four months, losing it to Mickey Walker December 3.

CHRISTMAS GOODS DISPLAYED

LONDON, Aug. 17—(Reuters)—Christmas plum puddings are being displayed in London shop windows which also are featuring other yuletide goods earlier than usual this year. Only explanation seems to be that many shoppers hope to stretch their Christmas budgets by buying early.
