

King's County Exhibition
Gala Day at Georgetown
Welcome to Lieutenant-Governor McDonald.
A Fine Day and a Good Show.
THE PRIZE LIST.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR McDONALD was accompanied on his first official visit to his native county town by Mrs. McDonald and a large number of ladies and gentlemen...

ARRIVED AT GEORGETOWN, which was gay with bunting. His Honor was cordially greeted by members of the reception committee...

THESE GRANDS, extending from the Drill Shed to the Main Street, have been enclosed by a picket fence, and at the time of His Honor's arrival, presented a most animated spectacle...

AT THE ENTRANCE to the grounds there was a tasteful evergreen arch of welcome, which had been erected under the supervision of the Reception Committee...

WE ALSO FEEL ASSURED that the large assembly which will be gathered together on this occasion, will convey to Your Honor the best assurance...

IN CONCLUSION we pray that the Giver of all Good will be pleased to accord you and your family good health—that greatest of all earthly blessings—so that on many future occasions we may have the pleasure of welcoming you amongst us.

ON THE ARRIVAL of the Lieutenant-Governor and party at the Arch, His Honor was met by the Reception Committee; the Georgetown Battery of Militia Artillery drawn up under command of Captain Owen...

TO HIS HONOR THE HONORABLE ANDREW ARCHIBALD McDONALD, Lieut.-Governor of the Province of Prince Edward Island, etc., etc., etc.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR,—We, the inhabitants of Georgetown and Royalty, respectfully beg leave to address your Honor and heartily and cordially welcome you to this town...

YOUR SOCIAL QUALITIES, and your honorable bearing, have gained you the respect of all with whom you have in time past had intercourse. The satisfactory manner in which you have discharged the onerous duties of head of one of the public departments...

WE HAVE THE HONOR to be Your Honor's most obedient servant. WILLIAM SANDERSON, A. C. STEWART, G. A. AITKEN, JAMES BUTTS, J. L. BYRNE, MALCOLM McDONALD, WILLIAM WIGHTMAN.

IN BEHALF of the merchants, magistrates and other inhabitants of Georgetown and Royalty. To His Honor replied as follows: REPLY: To the Magistrates, Merchants, and other inhabitants of Georgetown and Royalty: GENTLEMEN,—I return you my most sincere thanks for the address you have presented to me...

REPLY: To the Magistrates, Merchants, and other inhabitants of Georgetown and Royalty: GENTLEMEN,—I return you my most sincere thanks for the address you have presented to me, and also for the cordial and enthusiastic reception I have received on my first official visit to the place of my nativity...

I have been chosen to fill the honorable position of Lieutenant-Governor in no small degree due to the fact that for nearly twenty years I was returned to Parliament as a member from King's County.

I beg to assure you that I prize highly the possession of your confidence and esteem, and the sincerity of which I have received so many convincing proofs.

After three hearty cheers had been given for the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. McDonald, the Battery presented arms, and the party proceeded to the Drill Shed.

YOUR APPOINTMENT has been hailed with satisfaction by all classes of this community, not only on account of your own intrinsic merits as a good citizen, but also on account of your having identified yourself with, and taken a leading part in, all movements that are for the best interests of the Province.

THE "SONS OF THE HEATHER" have also reason to feel proud that one, who, for so many years, occupied the honorable position of Chief of the Caledonia Society, has been selected as Her Majesty's representative in this Island.

IN WELCOMING you, we have great pleasure in pointing out to Your Honor's attention the many evidences of the increasing material advancement of the people of this county, and from the great interests you have taken in all former Exhibitions, an interest only equalled by that taken by your predecessor while in office...

WE ALSO FEEL ASSURED that the large assembly which will be gathered together on this occasion, will convey to Your Honor the best assurance that you and Mrs. McDonald's occupation of Government House, will be long pleasantly remembered.

IN CONCLUSION we pray that the Giver of all Good will be pleased to accord you and your family good health—that greatest of all earthly blessings—so that on many future occasions we may have the pleasure of welcoming you amongst us.

ON BEHALF of the Commissioners of King's County Exhibition, 1884. (Signed) D. GORDON, Chairman.

TO THIS ADDRESS HIS HONOR MADE THE FOLLOWING REPLY: To the Commissioners of the King's County Exhibition: GENTLEMEN,—It affords me very great pleasure to receive your kind address, and I return you my warmest thanks for your congratulations on my appointment as Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island.

IT IS VERY GRATIFYING to me to learn from such a representative body as yours are that my appointment has been hailed with satisfaction by all classes in the community, and in the fulfillment of my new duties I shall endeavor to still merit their approval.

I AM DELIGHTED to be present at this Exhibition and to observe further evidences of the material advancement of the people of King's County. The large and well-tilled fields through which we have passed, the comfortable dwellings and commodious barns on every side show a marked improvement in the homesteads of the farmers in this section of the country...

I AM PARTICULARLY PLEASED to see so many old friends, and to receive their congratulations in this, the capital of my native County, and in the years that are to come, I shall look back on this day with pride and pleasure.

MRS. McDONALD requests me to thank you for your kind reference to her, and words far more suitably than I can for your many kind wishes for us and our family. I now formally declare the Exhibition open. Georgetown, Oct. 1st, 1884.

Our thanks are due the very efficient Secretary of the Exhibition Committee, George F. Owen, Esq., and his assistants, Messrs. Bent, Henry Wickwire and Frank Lavers, for their courtesy and assistance in preparing the prize list. At no preceding exhibition was the prize list so promptly and satisfactorily furnished.

THE important case of proving the will of the late John B. Bourke, of Lot 49, in solemn form, and which was before the court all day yesterday, was concluded this morning before His Lordship Mr. Justice Young. The witnesses to the will and codicil were examined and subjected to a strict cross-examination by Mr. McLeod, on behalf of the contestants. After the evidence submitted by the executors was all in Mr. McLeod concluded to call no witnesses, and a decree was thereupon passed confirming the will. The counsel in the case were: For the executors, Hodgson, Q. C., and Warburton, and McLeod, Q. C., for the contestants.

RUNAWAY.—This morning, about half-past eight o'clock, as Mr. Laughlin and young daughter were driving down Powell Street, his horse became unmanageable and ran away with great violence, and did considerable damage to the will and codicil were examined and subjected to a strict cross-examination by Mr. McLeod, on behalf of the contestants. After the evidence submitted by the executors was all in Mr. McLeod concluded to call no witnesses, and a decree was thereupon passed confirming the will. The counsel in the case were: For the executors, Hodgson, Q. C., and Warburton, and McLeod, Q. C., for the contestants.

A CORRESPONDENT, signing himself No. 1 Mackerel, writes to the effect that he is pleased to see an important official on the steamer Carroll is about to take the oath of allegiance to Her Majesty. Who is the officer?

CROWDED OUT.—An obituary notice of the late Ernest M. Welsh: "Wedding Bells at Port Hill," and an editorial on "Who Will Enforce a License Law?" They will appear to-morrow.

THE flag of Prince Edward Division, No. 1, is flying to-day at half-mast, for the death of the Rev. Ernest M. Welsh.
