

14 CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN, NOV. 20, 1958.

IN MEMORIAM

DALEY — In loving memory of Maurice Daley, who passed away, Nov. 20th, 1952. O happy hours we once enjoyed, How sweet their memory still; But death has left a loneliness The world can never fill. Always remembered by your loving wife Jessie, and son Buddy.

EDWARDS — In loving memory of our dear brother, Leslie Lawrence Edwards, who passed away November 20, 1952. This day we do remember A loving thought we give To one no longer with us. But in our hearts still lives. Fondly remembered by sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cudmore.

EDWARDS — In loving memory of Leslie Lawrence Edwards, who passed away November 20, 1952.

It's lonely here without you, And sad the weary way. For life is not the same to us Since you were called away. There's still an ache in our hearts today That countless years won't take away. A place in our hearts that nothing can fill. We miss you, Leslie and always will.

Ever remembered by Mother, Daddy, sisters, Rita, Vera, Tona and Kathy, brothers Wilfred and Borden and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald.

IN MEMORIAM

CAROLINE CRAIG
 The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on November 2nd, 1958 of Miss Caroline Craig, at the age of 72 years.

She was the daughter of the late Frances Craig and Margaret Slain of Kelly's Cross.
 She was a semi-invalid for almost two years and was cared for at the Sacred Heart Home.
 She was a member of St. Joseph's Sodality and Alumnae and also of St. Dunstan's Public Alter Society.

She leaves to mourn her loss a sister (Levenia) Mrs. Dawson of Toronto, two sisters in Charlottetown, Carolyn (Aunt) and Myrtle Sampson whom she had made her own niece (Elva) Mrs. R. G. Duffy in Toronto and Mr. Stanley F. Dawson of Summerside a nephew.

Many flowers, mass cards and messages of sympathy were received from her many relatives and friends.

Her funeral, which was held at the Hennessey Funeral Home on Wednesday, November 19th at 10 o'clock, was officiated by Rev. Clare McDonald. Also conducted the service was the Rev. J. P. Sweeney, who gave the pall bearers were: John Connelly, William Coady, John Coady, P. B. McQuaid, George McQuaid and J. Deane. May she rest in peace.

Enrolment At Mt. A. Doubles

WOODSTOCK, N.B. Field representative Rev. A. McLellan said here Monday that enrolment at Mount Allison University at Sackville, N.B. is more than doubled in the last few years.
 Total enrolment including part-time and extension students is about 1,500, he told at a meeting. There were about 1,000 full-time students.
 Extensive expansion had been carried out and more was planned for the near future, including recreation centre and additional library and men's and women's residences.

Seek To Block Deportation

MONTREAL (CP)—A petition for a writ of prohibition against deportation of a young Haitian couple was filed Monday in Quebec superior court and is scheduled to be heard Nov. 24.
 The petition, addressed to the minister of citizenship and immigration, was filed by A. H. Zaitlin, Montreal lawyer, on behalf of Jean Oreste Volcy, 22, textile student, and his wife, Andree, 22, a night club singer.
 The petition notes that Volcy came to Canada in 1956 as a student's visa to study at the Hyacinthe, Que., textile school. He and his wife met and married when she visited Canada as part of a Haitian entertainment troupe.
 The couple's three-month-old child was born in Canada and is subject to deportation.
 Mr. and Mrs. Volcy were deported several months ago by the immigration department. A writ was filed against the deportation order, but it was never heard because in the meantime the order was withdrawn pending further investigation.
 A week ago a second order was issued, signed by the immigration minister.

50 Properties Sold For Taxes In Pictou County

PICTOU, N.S. (CP)—FIFTY 100 properties were auctioned here Tuesday by Pictou County officials in an effort to collect back taxes.
 The biggest single sale was a 600-acre lot that brought $1,000. It was bid by the Healeys. Municipal clerk James Healeys said the owner let taxes lapse and then bought the property in an effort to have a clear title.

Timber Dealer Appeals Term

VANCOUVER (CP)—Timber executive H. Wilson Gray today was granted an application for his release from Oakridge Prison Farm pending his appeal against a conviction on bribery and conspiracy charges.
 Mr. Justice H. W. Davies set bail at $20,000. He granted the appeal on the proviso that Gray's release is heard not later than the sitting of the British Columbia court of appeal in January.
 The justice said that Gray was not leave B.C. J. R. Nicholson, Gray's counsel, said the bail was posted "within the next day or two—probably tomorrow."
 Mr. Nicholson filed an appeal Monday on behalf of Gray and two of his companies, Pacific Coast Services and Evergreen Lumber Sales.
 Gray and former forest minister Robert Sommers were sentenced Friday to five years imprisonment on bribery-conspiracy charges. The companies were fined a total of $19,250.
 The appeal lists six points of law as its basis, including submissions that Mr. Justice J. I. Wilson, who presided over the prolonged trial, erred in his handling of the case.
 No appeal has yet been filed on behalf of Sommers.
