a regard for learning for its own sake that they can never be happy unless their education is constantly continued. It is from such people that we recruit our splendid teachers. By transmitting their own desire for knowledge to others, they enrich both themselves and their students. So with your husband, if his desire for learning is as great as he claims, let him transfer some of his energy to the teaching profession.

DEAR MISS DIX: I'm a young girl of 21 and for a year have been going with a man eight years my senior. We had gone out together quite a while when I discovered he was separated from his wife—not divorced. My mother advised me to stop seeing him, but didn't actually forbid me to go with him. She talked with him and he promised to go about getting his divorce. For a while everything went well, then he began to take me for granted, breaking dates at the last minute, being late and things like that. He still insists, however, that he loves me. My mother nags continually about him, saying I'm very foolish to waste time on him.

BETTYE L.

ANSWER: Surely you can see for yourself, without mom's prompting, that there is no sincerity in this man at all! His deception at the beginning of your friendship, his postponement of divorce action, now his unchivalrous treatment of you, all add up to a most insecure future. Your mother should have taken firmer action in the beginning to end the friendship, and I urge you to end it now and save yourself from certain heartbreak.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARY BEARSTO

—On Monday evening, March 3, 1952, the people of Freetown and surrounding districts were saddened and shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Mary Bearsto, formerly of Freetown and later of Barrington, N.S., at the early age of 55 years.

Mrs. Bearsto was the daughter of the late Samuel Haynes and Mrs. Haynes of Wolverhampton, England. The deceased was a member of the United Church and a valued member of the W.M.S. of Barrington, N.S.

She was possessed with a kindly disposition and was a friend to all who knew her, especially to her patients, both young and old, who will long remember her understanding care for them. She was a devoted mother and grandmother and loved to visit with her family where she was always welcomed.

There are left to mourn her passing two sons, Allan of Freetown and Norman with the R.C.A.F. in Manitoba. Her only daughter, Marjorie, died at the age of eight years. Also surviving are two grandchildren, Colbourne and Denton, by whom she will be lovingly remembered.

A short funeral service was held at the Kennedy's Funeral Parlours, Barrington, N.S., on Tuesday, March 4th, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Fenton of the Anglican Church. The remains were then conveyed to the home of her son Allan, Freetown, on Thursday evening.

The funeral service was held on Saturday afternoon with a short service at the home at 1:30, thence to Freetown United Church where service was held at 2 p.m., conducted by the Rev. J. K. Campbell. The lovely hymn "Alone" was feelingly rendered by Mr. J. B. Lewis.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Robert C. Auld, Everett Schurman, Louis Cairns, Colby Lewis, Garnet Warren and Ernest Taylor. The interment was in Freetown cemetery.

The funeral was under the direction of Mr. J. L. Davison, Kensington. The many beautiful flowers bore silent tribute to the esteem in which she was held, also the very many letters and cards of sympathy received by the family.

Prince County Hospital Plans $250,000 Campaign

—A $250,000 fund raising campaign to finance the completion of Prince County Hospital as a modern medical and nurse training center was announced Friday by Mr. J. Frank Arnett, president of the Board of Trustees.

The campaign will be conducted this spring, with advance planning and organization work to be completed by mid-May. The project has been officially designated as the Prince County Hospital completion fund.

"We are going ahead with this major step," Mr. Arnett explained "because we must. We have made a thorough study of our existing hospital facilities and our entire operation for the six month period from the opening of new main hospital building last August. Our Board and Staff jointly recognize the acute need for completing all facilities and equipment for the main structure and constructing and equipping a modern, efficient nurses' home and nurse training school.

"As trustees of hospital protection for the people of Prince County, and as an important factor in making available our facilities and services to other Islanders, we feel that we would be negligent of our public responsibilities if we did not seek to expand and more adequately integrate and balance our hospital facilities."

Mr. Arnett then announced that William Hayward, manager of the branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Summerside, has accepted the post of General Chairman of the Completion Fund. Mr. Hayward is a past president of the Rotary Club at Summerside and has been a member of the Council of the Summerside Board of Trade for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Auld. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burns. Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Manning Handrahan. Mr. Everett Schurman. Mr. Von MacCaull. Rene Arling. Mr. J. B. Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Francis. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer MacEachern. Mr. and Mrs. George Jardine. Mr. and Mrs. Colby Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Perry.
