Kingston Branch Legion Meeting

The January meeting of the Kingston Branch No. 30, Canadian Legion was held at the Charlottetown Legion Home with nine officers and 30 members present. Comrade Russell Mason was in the chair.

The treasurer's report indicated that the financial standing of the Branch is in satisfactory condition. The chairman of the Welfare Committee was asked to send two parcels to patients in the P. E. I. Hospital and one to a comrade in the Charlottetown Hospital. Letters of thanks were read for parcels received during the Christmas season.

A lively discussion followed, in which the matter of building a home for the Branch was taken into consideration. A committee was appointed to look into this matter and have a report submitted before the next annual meeting. The Legion closing and the singing of The Queen brought the meeting to an end.

LION'S CLUB DONATION — The Charlottetown Lion's Club voted the sum of $25 as a donation to the Somers Relief Fund at their regular dinner meeting held at the Queen Hotel last evening. The fund is in aid of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Somers the victims of a disastrous fire here last Saturday that claimed the life of one child and left the family homeless. First Vice-President, Lion Bill Warren presided over the meeting in the absence of King Lion Jack Stevenson, while secretary, Lion Lou Bagnall, read the minutes and incoming correspondence. Following a short business session the meeting closed with singing of the Queen.

KINSMEN MEET—At a special meeting of the Kinsmen Club last night, final arrangements were made for the presentation of what is looked forward to being one of the most elaborate variety shows ever attempted here. A committee headed by Clive Cudmore has enlisted the free services of Ivan Doherty to produce, stage and direct the entertainment in the near future. Ambie Weatherbie and Ken MacKenzie are associated with Mr. Doherty in the ambitious program which anticipates the cooperation of the best available talent in the city. The objective is fund raising for club good will activities.

ST. PAUL'S A. Y. P. A. — The regular meeting of St. Paul's A. Y. P. A. was held in the Parish Hall last evening, the president, Robert Pitcairn, presiding. The meeting was opened with prayers led by the president. Following a short business session. Dr. F. W. Jelks instructed the group in several new square dances. Several films on Indian and Eskimo life were shown, following which lunch was served. Meeting closed with Auld Lang Syne and the Grace.

Y'S MEN'S MEETING — Bill Beer and Doug Dennis were co-chairmen at the supper meeting of Centennial Y's Men held in the Y. M.C.A. last evening. Dr. Bill Moreside and Bob Giggey were in charge of the sing-song with which the meeting opened. Stu MacKay was unusually active as finesmaster. General secretary Maxwell gave an outline of the proposed activities of the YMCA late this month. The Association is celebrating it's Centennial this year, and unusual interest is anticipated. Several short movies were shown at the conclusion of routine activities. The meeting closed with the Queen.

Personals

Lieut.-Col. J. F. Storey returned last evening from Toronto and Montreal where he attended furniture shows by leading manufacturers.

While regretting that Mrs. W. A. Stewart is a patient in the P. E. Island Hospital, friends will be pleased to know that she was reported resting comfortably last evening.

Central Christian Annual Meeting

The annual congregational meeting of the Central Christian Church was held last night in the church annex with a large number of members in attendance.

The meeting was conducted, after opening prayers, by chairman Keith MacKinnon. Comprehensive reports from the various departments were presented by the respective chairmen and an unusually fine gain was shown Mr. MacKinnon, chairman of the trustee board reviewed something of the extensive work done to the church property in the last year. Brick pointing, wiring, floodlighting, replacing of the rain gutters; painting of the trim; new front porch steps to the manse; renovating of balcony rooms providing for a comfortably furnished church parlour, were some of the items noted. The maintenance committee, under the capable leadership of Penna Moore reported the building of a new garage which has done much to improve the appearance of the property as well as furnishing improved facilities for the Minister's automobile.

The clerk's report concerning attendances in both church services registered a new all time high. A ten percent increase of the membership in new members to the church was reported. The assistant Sunday School superintendent Mr. Victor Ling, reporting for secretary treasurer Wm. L. Henry, gave the Sunday School report. A 20% gain over 1953 brought attendance in this department to an all time high in the history of the church. The Sunday School of Central Christian maintains regular services through the summer. The attendance during the summer quarter was 91 with an all year average of 108, highest attendance being 186.

Current giving showed an increase of $1300.00 over the previous year. Missionary giving was above the average of other years.

The Minister, Marvel D. Dunbar presented a well outlined report of his duties through the year. Mr. Dunbar emphasized the need of evangelism. Stressing that two evangelistic efforts a year, spring and fall is not too great an emphasis. The congregation extended its annual call to Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar who began their eleventh year with Central Christian.

Mr. Dunbar presented the obituary report. Calling attention to several of the wonderful members of the congregation now called to their higher reward. Mrs. Peter Matthews, Mrs. Martin MacKinnon, Miss Thelma Burns, Mrs. Hazel Wright, Miss Anna Stewart, and Mrs. Margaret Kennedy. An obituary prayer was offered following a standing moment of silence.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was carried out and a full slate of officers was elected to carry out the growing work of the church.

The trustees appointed were: Keith MacKinnon, chairman; M C. Stewart, vice-chairman; V. S. Ling, treasurer; W. L. Henry, secretary; Allison Owen, Henry MacLaren, and H. W. Platts.

Comprising the Board of Elders: Mr. Edwin Sellick, chairman; H. W. Platts, Donald Stewart, Preston Beck and Floyd MacKinnon.

In respect and appreciation of the years of untiring interest and effort in the work of the church given by Mr. Wm. L. Henry, the congregation moved a motion of heartfelt regret in his absence from the meeting due to a recent illness and every wish for a speedy recovery allowing for his restoration in the work again soon.

The meeting adjourned and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the congregation.

B.I.S. Play Committee Meets

The play committee of the Benevolent Irish Society held a special meeting last night to facilitate the planning stages of this year's St. Patrick's Day parade and entertainment. President McAvinn was chairman of the meeting. Reports were given by the different subcommittees engaged in furthering this important Society endeavour.

Chairman McAvinn stated the Society had been fortunate in obtaining the services of Bro. J. Pius Callaghan, C.D.A., as director for the play, this year titled, "Jenny Kissed Me." The director informed the meeting that he had his cast practically chosen and that practices had commenced. He stated he would have an outline of the play ready for the next general meeting of the Society.

The sale of Shamrocks will again be handled by the members of the Society in conjunction with the B. I.S. Ladies Auxiliary, the proceeds to go to the aid of The Sisters of The Precious Blood. Proceeds from the sale of candy at the show, to be held March 17th and 18th, will go to the children of St. Vincent's Orphanage.

The chief marshal, Bro. Fred Steele, informed the meeting that plans to make this year's "centennial" parade one of the biggest ever were well in hand, and he urged all members to participate in this Charlottetown's one hundredth year. He stated all the details should be known by the next monthly meeting.

The members also voted the sum of twenty-five dollars to the fund for a needy family made homeless during a recent fire in Charlottetown.

St. Paul's Sunday School Meeting

The annual meeting of St. Paul's Church Sunday School took place last evening in the Parish Hall, being largely attended, the superintendent J. E. H. Worth presiding. The opening prayer was given by the Rector, Rev. Canon J. T. Ibbott.

The various reports submitted by the officers and committees indicated that the Sunday School had a very satisfactory year. The attendence being the highest on record. The treasurer, J. L. Clark presented the financial report showing there to be a balance of $70.46 on hand. Thanks was extended to the St. Paul's Laymen's Association and to the St. Paul's Parish Guild for their assistance to the Sunday School during the year.

Expressions of regret were directed to be sent to two of the teachers who are ill, Mrs. Louis Diamond and Mrs. George Wood.

Officers for the coming year were re-elected as follows: Superintendent, J. E. H. Worth; Assist. Superintendent, A. H. Duvar; Treasurer, J. L. Clark; Secretary, Miss Marporie Cox; Office Secretary, G. E. Ives.

The closing prayer was given by the Rector.

Feature Attraction At Burns Concert

A feature attraction at the Burns' anniversary concert this year is Mrs. Garden Lawson of Summerside.

She is the former Doris Anderson, who at one time was the junior champion dancer in Northern Scotland and on one occasion placed third for the whole of Scotland in competitions run off at which five members of the Scottish Dancing Teacher's Association were the judges.

Mrs. Lawson started dancing at the age of seven and has competed at the big games in Scotland since the age of twelve. During her dancing career she was in competition with James MacKenzie of Aberdeen who is recognized as the World's champion Highland Dancer. On several occasions while dancing the Seann Tribunas she was successful in winning from Mr. MacKenzie.

The Zion Men's Association are again sponsoring the Burn's Concert this year at Prince of Wales College Hall on the 25th and it promises to be the best seen in Charlottetown for many years.

Tallest peak on the island of Formosa is 14,720-foot Mount Morrison.

W.K.S. Home And School Meeting

The regular meeting of West Kent Home and School Association was held last night. Mrs. J. B. Larkin gave a full report of the semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Federation of Home and School Associations held in November. The monthly class room prize for greatest parent representation at last night's meeting went to Mrs. Robertson's Grade IV class.

Dr. B. J. O'Meara, director of dental health for P.E.I. spoke to the meeting dealing with fluoridation of the municipal water supply. Dr. O'Meara pointed out many important benefits to be derived from the result of fluoridation and answered many questions.

A resolution was passed endorsing fluoridation and requesting the City Council to take appropriate action to recommend to the Water Commissioners that fluoridation of Charlottetown's water supply, under proper supervision and control be introduced as soon as possible.

Mr. Walthen Gaudet addressed the meeting on Charlottetown Centennial. He gave the members an outline of the plans formulated for this celebration during the balance of the year. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Trinity Church Annual Meeting

The annual congregational meeting of Trinity Church which was well attended was held in Hearts Memorial Hall last night.

After devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Howard Christie Rev. A. Frank MacLean recalled the names of those who had passed on since the last annual meeting and aked the congregation to observe a period of silence in their memory in tribute to the services they had rendered.

Mr. S. C. Wright was elected to act as chairman for the meeting and Dr. G. D. Steel and Mr. E. E. Clawson were named co-secretaries. Dr. Steel in presenting the report of the session, paid tribute to the work of Rev. E. C. Evans who for a portion of the year acted as visiting minister in the congregation. He congratulated the organist and choir for their splendid contribution in spite of the fact that they were working under trying circumstances occasioned by the dismantling and installation of the church organ. The report showed that 108 persons had united with the church during the year. There were 123 baptisms; 44 marriages and 40 funerals.

Mr. Stewart Pierce who reported for the Missionary and Maintainance Fund said that the fund had exceeded its allocation by a a substantial amount. Mr. W. W. Lord in the financial report for the Committee of Stewards, indicated that there were increased receipts over the previous year.

Other reports submitted indicated very satisfactory progress during 1954. They were as follows:: Janitor's Committee, John Simmonds; Trustee's report, A. W. Matheson; Music Committee, George Johnston; Church School, Dr. L. W. Shaw; Willing Circle of the King's Daughter, Mrs. Stanley Thompson; Woman's Association, Mrs. Herbert Roper; Junior Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Robert MacKinnon; Afternoon Auxiliary, Mrs. L. W.
