Mouth Guard Seen Effective In Saving Teeth

TORONTO (CP)—A mouth guard that will be 100 per cent effective in preventing tooth decay in children is being developed in the United States.

Addressing the Alpha Omega Dental Fraternity's annual meeting, Dr. Robert Rapp said the guard made of plastic will be similar to multipieces now worn by hockey and football players and will only have to be worn five minutes a day.

The guard will completely cover the teeth and soak them in a solution of fluoride and dental sealant.

In some cases, he added, the guard—now in the final stages of development at the U.S. National Institute of Dental Research—has already arrested cavities. But eventually it is hoped the guard will prevent cavities from ever developing.

Dr. Rapp said the guard would be used in conjunction with community water fluoridation or painting of teeth with fluoride.

While the mask is still being experimented with, Rapp was confident it will come into public use.

HUNTERS' BAG

More than 18,000 hunters in 1964 bagged 4,075 deer, as reported in Southern Ontario check stations.

OBITUARY

MRS. JARDINE STAVERT

The death occurred at the Prince County Hospital on Monday, December 28th of Mrs. Adelaide Stavert, Lower Freeport, following an illness of three months.

The late Mrs. Stavert was born at Port Hill in 1892, the youngest of a family of nine born to the late Hugh John Campbell and his late wife, Jane.

At an early age she moved with her family to Freeport where she attended school followed by a business education at Charlottetown Business College.

She married Mr. James Stavert and moved to Lower Freeport, where she was a devoted mother, good neighbour and true friend. Always interested in community and church affairs, the deceased was a charter member of Low P. Freeport Women's Institute, and a faithful member of Freeport Presbyterian Church where for over forty years her place in the choir was seldom vacant.

But it is in the home where she will be most sorely missed. The gracious hospitality of her and her late husband, who died in 1962, had gained for them a wide circle of friends who join with the family, sister, nieces and nephews to mourn the loss of their dear one.

Left to mourn are one daughter, Olive, Mrs. Scott Clarke, Kelvin Grove, one son, Walter Freeport, at home, one sister Mrs. Laura Lidstone, North Tryon and seven grandchildren.

The funeral was held at Freeport Presbyterian Church where service was conducted by Rev. G.K. Tamshill, assisted by Rev. L.M. Murray. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd and Move Love To Thee." J.B. Lewis sang as a solo, "Jesus I Come, a favourite of the deceased Organist was Mrs. John Poynter.

Burialbearers were: Freeport St. Andrew's, Wilfred Hamer, William Rogers, Jesse Bradshaw, Alfred Reeves and Allison Profit.

Interment was in the People's Cemetery at Freeport.
