

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR W. J. MacDonald, left, Brighton MacDougall, president of the St. Dunstan's University Alumni Association, pay close attention to Rev. E. J. Roche, secretary-treasurer, as he addresses members of the association at a meeting held last evening at the University.

City Man Re-Elected SDU Alumni President

Brighton MacDougall of Charlottetown was re-elected president of the St. Dunstan's University alumni association at the annual dinner-meeting last night. The meeting was held in the SDU dining room. About 200 members were present.

Approximately 20 members of the class of 1955, which is holding its 10th year reunion, attended the meeting in a body and were introduced by Rev. E. J. Roche, secretary-treasurer of the association.

Under an amendment to the constitution the alumni association now has the power to name four members to the SDU board of governors. Those named last night, under nominating committee chairman Mr. Justice Mark R. MacGuigan, were: C. St. Clair Trainor, Charlottetown; Melvin J. McQuaid, Souris; Dr. J. A. McMillan, Charlottetown; and Eugene MacDonald, Southport.

The naming of an endowment fund committee, also a new proposal under the amended constitution, saw the following nominated to serve: Dr. Loyola Duffy, Charlottetown; Melvin J. McQuaid, Souris; and Rev. V. G. Murnaghan, SDU.

Other officers elected were: president Melvin J. McQuaid, Souris; vice-presidents, John S. MacDonald, Cardigan, and Lt. Col. S. G. Parent, Quebec City; secretary-treasurer, Rev. E. J. Roche, SDU; assistant to the secretary, Michael Hennessey, Charlottetown; executive members: J. Elmer Blanchard, Charlottetown; Dunstan Mullally, Ottawa; Dr. J. H. O'Hanley, Charlottetown; Reginald MacLellan, Summerside; Beverly Fitzgerald, Charlottetown; Francis Zakem, Charlottetown; and Charles Campbell, Morell.

Bell Steer Takes 1st On Carcass Judging

A Shorthorn steer owned by Mr. Justice R.R. Bell emerged as the grand champion of the Provincial Exhibition steer show. The Guardian learned yesterday from Harold C. Heartz, livestock officer with the Canada Department of Agriculture.

The Bell steer placed fourth in live judging on Tuesday morning, but his carcass quality put him in first place overall. The White steer that topped the live judging on Tuesday placed sixth overall, Mr. Heartz stated. He was owned by Lorne Peters, New Glasgow.

The Cyrus Eaton Shorthorn steer that placed second in the live judging went down to 12th overall, and it was explained that the animal's carcass was "wasty", which means that it had an undesirable portion of fat.

Lester Rankine, Mt. Herbert, 2 and 9; Leo McIsaac, Mermaid, 3 and 6; Boyd Dixon, Clyde River, 4 and 3; Jas MacDonald, Hunter River, 5 and 11; Paul Peters, 6 and 1; Frank Mutch, Cherry Valley, 7 and 8; Alton Younker, Winsloe 8 and 7; Fulton Sanderson, North River, 9 and 12; Otto Newson, Winsloe, 10 and 5; Gerald Dollar, Winsloe 11 and 13; Cyrus Eaton, 12 and 2; Harry Loane, Kilmuir, 13 and 10.

Eleven of the steers were choice or Red brand, one was good or Blue, and there was one standard.

Today's The Big Day... It's The Gold Cup Parade

By RALPH CAMERON Sleep will be forgotten and boredom will make a hasty exit today as the whole island gears itself to the day of days as the eagerly awaited Gold Cup and Saucer Parade hits the streets of Charlottetown.

This utterly fantastic show in such a small city has delighted and amazed people for the past five years and today is bigger and better than ever as age has only produced a rounded development that is sheer pleasure.

If the pattern of the past is followed even standing room on the curbs will be at a premium early this morning as thousands of people from all parts of the province pour into the city in festive mood to watch or take part in the biggest single fun day on the island calendar.

If music makes the world go round then Charlottetown should be off in orbit this morning when the trumpets sound at 10 o'clock to start the giant parade on its way. With 10 big bands offering an accompaniment of pounding drums, sounding brass and the clear call of the bugle, thus is provided a sort of counterpoint for the stirring music of the pipers as the killed crews come marching through with the wild highland lift making even tired feet seem light.

And there will be some of the most beautiful floats ever to take part in a parade here. Many of them will offer some of the most beautiful girls the parade has ever seen. But the floats will not be the only things having lovely girls; they will be scattered from one end of the line of march to the other; they will use every type of conveyance from pony to truck.

But among them all there will be eight of the loveliest standing out like cream rising to the top of a milk bottle.

They will also use conveyances which may not be the gold coach of Cinderella but certainly are the modern counterpart. Cup and Saucer Girls will travel in real 1965 style as they ride along the parade route in shiny new convertibles - and to add to the parade's sparkle is better than Cinderella's gold coach any day of the week.

And now the girls know which horse will be trying to bring them the honor of being named Miss Gold Cup and Saucer of 1965 they will be rooting hard for that one to get down to the wire in front. The eight lovelies have eight bearcats representing them on the track and the great Gold-Cup and Saucer Pace should be the bitterest track battle of the year.

So get ready for the morning - and be ready early. Don't miss the biggest show in Charlottetown's history and don't forget that extra sparkle, extra glamor, that is being added by the special guests taking part: the world famous comedy team of Johnny Wayne and Frank Shuster, and their lovely guest star, Diane Staples. All three will be on stage in front of the grandstand tonight between races.

LET THEM SEE From that point it moves along Euston to Great George - and don't forget this section of Great George is reserved for senior citizens. Parades are for everyone, not just the kids; anyway senior citizens are just kids who have grown up. They may not be able to move around as freely so let them sit in cars on Great George Street and see the show without blocking their view.

Aside from the tremendous task facing officials in getting the show without blocking their one of the toughest assignments is that of the float judges. Named to decide the winners in the different classifications are Mrs. Malcolm Putnam, Moncton; Williamson and F. B. Pritchard.
